The Singing Man: A Book of Songs and Shadows Josephine Preston Peabody, 2019-12-23 In The Singing Man A Book of Songs and Shadows Josephine Preston Peabody crafts a poetic exploration of the interplay between light and darkness within the human experience This collection is characterized by its lyrical style rich imagery and haunting themes reflecting the author's deep engagement with literary modernism Peabody presents a tapestry of emotions and experiences infused with a sense of mysticism where songs serve as a conduit for exploring existential questions about identity loss and the essence of creation The work's innovative structure weaves together elements of folklore and personal reflection inviting readers to immerse themselves in its evocative landscapes Josephine Preston Peabody 1874-1922 was an influential American poet playwright and advocate for social reform known for her empathy toward the marginalized Her artistic pursuits were often fueled by her interactions with various artistic circles including the Boston literary renaissance and her belief in the transformative power of art These influences profoundly shaped The Singing Man a reflection of her personal struggles and broader societal themes encapsulating the interplay of beauty and sorrow This remarkable work is a must read for those interested in the intricate relationship between art and life Peabody's masterful command of language and her ability to evoke deep emotional resonance make this collection an enduring contribution to American poetry Readers seeking to illuminate the shadows of their own experiences will find solace and inspiration within Peabody's haunting melodies The Singing Man Josephine Preston Peabody, 1911 The Singing Teacher's Guide to Transgender Voices Liz Jackson Hearn, Brian Kremer, 2018-05-18 The Singing Teacher's Guide to Transgender Voices is the first comprehensive resource developed for training transgender and nonbinary singers This text aids in the development of voice pedagogy tailored to the needs of transgender singers informed by cultural competence and bolstered by personal narratives of trans and nonbinary singing students The singing life of a transgender or nonbinary student can be overwhelmingly stressful Because many of the current systems in place for singing education are so firmly anchored in gender binary systems transgender and gender nonconforming singers are often forced into groups with which they feel they don't belong Singers in transition are often afraid to reach out for help because the likelihood of finding a voice teacher who is competent in navigating the social emotional physical and physiological challenges of transition is minimal at best This text equips teachers with a sympathetic perspective on these unique struggles and with the knowledge and resources needed to guide students to a healthy joyful and safe singing life It challenges professional and academic communities to understand the needs of transgender singers and provide evidence based voice education and real world opportunities that are authentic and genuine The Singing Teacher's Guide to Transgender Voices is the first book of its kind to provide thorough organized information on the training of trans singers for educators in both the academic and independent teaching realms Singing the Songs of My Ancestors Linda Goodman, 2003 Ever since she was a small child Helma Swan the daughter of a Northwest Coast chief loved and learned the music of her people As an adult she began to sing even though traditionally Makah singers had been men How did such a situation develop In her own words Helma Swan tells the unusual story of her life her music and how she became a singer An excellent storyteller she speaks of both musical and non musical activities and events In addition to discussing song ownership and other Makah musical concepts she describes songs dances and potlatch ceremonies proper care of masks and costumes and changing views of Native music education More generally she speaks of cultural changes that have had profound effects on contemporary Makah life Drawing on more than twenty years of research and oral history interviews Linda J Goodman in Singing the Songs of My Ancestors presents a somewhat different point of view that of the anthropologist ethnomusicologist interested in Makah culture and history as well as the changing musical and ceremonial roles of Makah men and women Her information provides a context for Helma Swan s stories and songs Taken together the two perspectives allow the reader to embark on a vivid and absorbing journey through Makah life music and ceremony spanning most of the twentieth century Studies of American Indian women musicians are rare this is the first to focus on a Northwest Coast woman who is an outstanding singer and storyteller as well as a conservator of her tribe s cultural traditions

At the Bridge Wendy Wickwire,2019-06-01 At the Bridge chronicles the little known story of James Teit a prolific ethnographer who from 1884 to 1922 worked with and advocated for the Indigenous peoples of British Columbia and the northwestern United States From his base at Spences Bridge BC Teit forged a participant based anthropology that was far ahead of its time Whereas his contemporaries including famed anthropologist Franz Boas studied Indigenous peoples as members of dying cultures Teit worked with them as members of living cultures resisting colonial influence over their lives and lands Whether recording stories mapping place names or participating in the chiefs fight for fair treatment he made their objectives his own With his allies he produced copious meticulous records an army of anthropologists could not have achieved a fraction of what he achieved in his short life Wickwire s beautifully crafted narrative accords Teit the status he deserves consolidating his place as a leading and innovative anthropologist in his own right
