Single Engine to Singapore T. A. Anderson, 2004 This gift book of poetry is a collection of pearls of God's truths and promises These poems and prayers were written in Janet's journal during her quiet times with God each morning As she read and meditated on various scriptures from the bible she was inspired to write about joy hope comfort and thanksgiving God spoke to her heart through His written word and she wishes to speak to the reader's heart of her Heavenly Father's love for all

Single Engine to Singapore Theodore Anderson, 2004-04-27 Aviation and aviators are seldom exposed to the real world of manual flight Professional commercial pilots The Sir Galahads of the heavy iron long for a chance to flit through the heavens on gossamer wings No hero's here only the thrill and excitement of doing the impossible First hand flying experiences seldom touch the exuberance of going beyond the horizon and into the vacant air of high adventure You will fly through unimaginable mental cartwheels whiles feeling the swiftness of the shifting weather conditions No hanger talk to dull the mood only high ambitions and throbbing action Take a ride to the edge of our breathing space and see what emotions may block the way Fact is far more thrilling than fiction and here is a chance to fill an invisible seat and take command of the thrills Be forever fascinated by the towering realms beyond the sunset Take time to see if the pilot is qualified

Operation Rising Sun David W. Jourdan, James P. Delgado, 2020-06-01 In 1944 Allied codebreakers learned the Imperial Japanese Navy had dispatched the cargo submarine I 52 to occupied France with tons of military supplies and payment in gold for German assistance I 52 undertook the mission as part of the Yanagi missions a military program meant to alleviate Japan's desperate need for military material and technical knowledge After tracking I 52 from Asia to the Atlantic the Allies destroyed the vessel in a battle that ended the Yanagi missions and left I 52 an unlikely treasure ship on the seafloor David W Jourdan adds to the history of I 52 with a spellbinding account of his efforts to find the sunken submarine One of the first joint American Russian research expeditions the search for the wreck combined a team effort exhaustive detective work and a dramatic battle with the sea The effort paid off when the group found I 52's nearly intact hull three miles down The expedition also earned an unexpected historical dividend when it uncovered one of a kind recordings of American Avenger torpedo bomber attacks on an enemy submarine Part war tale and part seagoing adventure Operation Rising Sun tells the story of the two very different missions to find submarine I 52

Singapore Burning Colin Smith, 2005 Churchill called it the worst disaster and largest capitulation in British history This description of the fall of Singapore on 15 February 1942 after Lt Gen Percival's surrender led to over 100 000 British Australian and Indian troops falling into the hands of the Japanese was no wartime exaggeration The Japanese had promised that there would be no Dunkirk in Singapore and that was so no one was spared and its fall led to imprisonment torture and death for thousands of allied men and women In this extraordinary book using much new material from British Australian Indian and Japanese sources Colin Smith has woven together the full and terrifying story of the fall of Singapore and its aftermath Here alongside cowardice and incompetence are forgotten acts of enormous heroism treachery yet heart rending loyalty Japanese compassion as well as brutality from the bravest and most capricious enemy the British ever had to face Chronicle of Singapore, 1959-2009 Peter H. L. Lim, 2009 This lavishly illustrated volume captures the entire dramatic sweep of Singapore's modern history from its declaration of independence in 1959 to today Organised in chronological order with each year's coverage starting with a succinct summary of its key events Chronicle of Singapore covers not only the nation's defining political and economic events but also the more human side of Singapore sports fashion music the arts architecture and culture giving readers the broadest possible coverage Anyone who has visited or lived in this most unique of modern city nations will be enthralled by this pictorial and narrative history Indian and Eastern Motors ... , 1926 Vol 29 no 8 37 no 7 Aug 1937 July 1944 include the section Aviation The Pioneer Mail and Indian Weekly News , 1923 One of Our Submarines Edward Young, 2004-09-30 Young immortalized his distinguished war service as a submariner in the bestselling autobiography One of Our Submarines a gripping memoir The Guardian In the very highest rank of books about the last war Submarines are thrilling beasts and Edward Young tells of four years adventures in them in a good stout book with excitement on every page He writes beautifully economically and with humor and in the actions he commands he manages to put the reader at the voice pipe and the periscope so that sometimes the tension is so great that one has to put the book down The Sunday Times No disrespect to the big screen but you can't beat a book for digging out the details And the details feel even better if the author is someone who's been there So at least take the time to read Das Boot the autobiographical novel by Lothar G nther Buchheim And for the British perspective read One of Our Submarines by Edward Young The Mouldy Books He tells his story in a modest clear and amusing way that is a delight to read not too much Suicide as a Dramatic Performance David Lester, 2017-07-05 Each suicide is as unique as the individuals involved especially if one examines the nature of the act and to what extent these acts can be viewed as a theatrical performance Focusing on the dramatic aspects of suicide may seem tangential to the physical and mental pain experienced by those who try to kill themselves but dramatic aspects often provide important clues for understanding the mental state of suicidal individuals David Lester and Steven Stack investigate what happens in the weeks days and hours before a suicide when the suicidal individual must make decisions and formulate the script for his or her suicidal act The editors argue that these choices may help us understand and prevent other suicides and stimulate new and innovative research in this important area Through twenty five substantive chapters including both quantitative and qualitative analyses this book offers insights into suicide as a dramatic act with chapters on the intended audience the suicide note the location and method chosen and cultural scripts including suicide by cop sati seppuku and duels The contributors to this volume argue that psychological social and cultural factors influence these choices and that the decisions made by the individual are important for understanding the mental state of the person choosing to die by suicide Tunnels and Underground Structures: Proceedings Tunnels & Underground Structures, Singapore 2000 J.
