Maids And Madams A Study In The Politics Of Exploitation:

Maids and Madams Jacklyn Cock, 1982-06-01 Maids and Madams Jacklyn Cock, 1984 European Women and the Second British Empire Margaret Strobel, 1991 It enhances our understanding of intracultural and cross cultural relationships and raises significant questions about the complexities of the colonial phenomenon in the modern era Journal of World History Gender Security And International Politics DR. AURORA MARTIN ,DR. NANDINI BASISTHA ,2023-09-03 This book contains thirty three Best Paper Award winning articles presented in the IIHSG International Conference 2021 on Gender Security and Global Politics organised by Interdisciplinary Institute of Human Security Gender Security and Law Gender Security and Governance Gender Security Gender Security Gender Security and Sustainable Development Non Governmental Gender Security Measures Global Agencies for Gender Security Global Parameters for Gender Security Gender Security in Domestic Sphere Child Security Threats Recent Trends and Gender Security and Pandemic Recent Trends I hope that this collection of essays can become a benchmark for the future as well as spur new research agendas and projects that will put the region into a much needed conversation on the recent trends of gender security in world politics The volume is essential reading for social scientists bureaucrats and non governmental political activists interested in gender security It will also appeal to public policy analysts and scholars who have yet to adopt the contribution of critical security and development studies in the analysis of different dimensions of gender security Feminism and Families Hilde Lindemann Nelson, 2016-02-04 A ground breaking volume of all new essays covering the conjunction of two topics feminism and families that for all their centrality in our culture have not been adequately examined in light of one another While the family has suffered feminist neglect most women are in fact members of families living their lives within the social context of families even at a time when the concept of family has become bewilderingly unstable The intersection of families and feminism is thus one in need of philosophical reflection as a basis both for good public policy and for the ethical relationships of intimate life Facing Global Environmental Change Hans Günter Brauch, Navnita Chadha Behera, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, John Grin, Ürsula Oswald Spring, Béchir Chourou, Czeslaw Mesjasz, Heinz Krummenacher, 2009-06-04 The year 2007 could perhaps accurately be described as the year when climate change finally received the attention that this challenge deserves globally Much of the information and knowledge that was created in this field during the year was the result of the findings of the Fourth sessment Report AR4 of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC which were disseminated on a large scale and reported extensively by the media This was the result not only of a heightened interest on the part of the public on various aspects of climate change but also because the IPCC itself proactively attempted to spread the findings of its AR4 to the public at large The interest generated on the scientific realities of climate change was further enhanced by the award of the Nobel Peace Prize to the IPCC and former Vice President of the US Al Gore By taking this decision in favour of a leader who has done a great deal to create awareness on c mate change and a body that assesses

all scientific aspects of climate change and disseminates the result of its findings the Norwegian Nobel Committee has clearly drawn the link between climate change and peace in the world

Confronting Historical Paradigms Frederick Cooper, 1993 Confronting Historical Paradigms argues that confrontation with major paradigms of world history has marked the fields of African and Latin American history during the last quarter century and that the process has dramatically restructured historical and theoretical understanding of peasant labor and the capitalist world system Moreover it maintains the intellectual reverberations within and across the African and Latin American fields constitute a challenging and underappreciated counterpoint to laments that contemporary historical knowledge has suffered a splintering so extreme that it undermines larger dialogue and meaning The authors in their substantive essays synthesize order and evaluate the significance of the enormous resonating literatures that have come to exist for Africa and Latin America on the themes of the capitalist world system labor and peasantries They historicize these literatures by analyzing an entire cycle of critical dialogue and confrontation with historical paradigms and the professional upheavals that accompanied them They review the initial confrontations with frameworks of historical knowledge that erupted in the 1960s and the early 1970s the emergence of new dissident paradigms the outpouring of subsequent scholarship on peasant labor and capitalism that began to unravel the newly proposed paradigms by the 1980s and 1990s and the outlines of the new interpretive frameworks that tended to displace both the traditional and early dissident paradigms They also suggest possible outlines of a new cycle of Third World confrontations with paradigm anchored in themes such as gender and ethnicity Confronting Historical Paradigms employs a historicized awareness of intellectual networks conversations and history theory dialogues The result is a critical analysis and synthetic presentation of substantive advances that have preoccupied scholarship on Africa and Latin America in recent decades and a powerful challenge to notions that new fields of history have ended up destroying intellectual coherence and community

Leading for Change Jonathan Jansen, 2015-08-14 This book offers new theoretical ground for thinking about and transforming leadership and higher education worldwide Through an examination of the construct of intimacy and nearness including emotional spiritual psychic intellectual and physical closeness Jonathan Jansen demonstrates its power to influence positive leadership in young people He argues that sensory leadership which includes but extends beyond the power of touch represents a fresh and effective approach to progressive transformation of long divided institutions Considering richly textured narratives chapters explore complex intimacies among Black and White university students in South Africa post apartheid and in the aftermath of a major racial atrocity The stories reveal the students transformation in the process of leadership for change interweaving concepts of racism human relationships and intimacy and in turn expanding the knowledge base of social and institutional improvement This book explores how when different kinds of nearness come together in leadership change young people respond in ways that would not be possible through conventional instruments such as policy legislation and the appeal to moral sensibilities alone Leading for Change will be critical reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education educational justice higher education educational leadership and change social and or racial justice This book will also be of interest to those working in the fields of anthropology social psychology and South African contemporary politics policy and institutional practices Under the Canopy Linda Elaine Thomas,1999 The culture of a black South African community the religion rituals that enabled it to survive the devastating apartheid era Race, Memory and the Apartheid Archive G. Stevens,N. Duncan,D. Hook,2013-09-27 Race Memory and the Apartheid Archive Towards a Transformative Psychosocial Praxis draws on a psychosocial approach that is uniquely suited to the socio historical and psychical analysis of racism The book relies mainly on the memories stories and narratives of ordinary people living in apartheid South Africa Race Steven Gregory,Roger Sanjek,1994 What unites these essays is a common focus on the social construction of racial categories and a desire to expose the exercise of racism and its intersection with other forms of social domination such as class gender and ethnicity Fascinating Multicultural Review The coming together of theoretical multiethnic and on the ground perspectives makes this book a particularly valuable contribution to the discourse on race Paula Giddings Timely and thoughtful contributes to our understanding of how race operates as a social process and in the contextualization of power and status Contemporary Sociology A treasure chest full of gems Virtually every article is fascinating and important and as a collection its impact is tremendous Neo conservative myths and fantasies fall like nine pins before its well researched and tightly argued papers Martin Bernal author of Black Athena A timely antidote to that reaction tome The Bell Curve Daily News New York Let s be clear from the start what this book is about writes Roger Sanjek Race is the framework of ranked categories segmenting the human population that was developed by Western Europeans following their global expansion To contemporary social scientists this ranking is baseless though it has had all too real effects Drawing on anthropology history sociology ethnic studies and women s studies this volume explores the role of race in a variety of cultural and historical contexts The contributors show how racial ideologies intersect with gender class nation and sexuality in the formation of complex social identities and hierarchies The essays address such topics as race and Egyptian nationalism the construction of whiteness in the United States and the transformation of racial categories in post colonial Haiti They demonstrate how social elites and members of subordinated groups construct and rework racial meanings and identities within the context of global political economic and cultural change Race provides a comprehensive and empirically grounded survey of contemporary theoretical approaches to studying the complex interplay of race power and identity Contesting Transformation Marcelle C. Dawson,Luke Sinwell,2014-04-10 Contesting Transformation is a sober and critical reflection on the wave of social movement struggles which have taken place in post Apartheid South Africa Moving beyond a social movement scholarship that has tended to romanticise emergent movements this collection takes stock of the contradiction and complexity that is necessarily entangled in all forms of popular resistance Through an exploration of labour strikes legal organisations community protest and local government elections the contributors consider how different movements conceive of transformation and assess the extent to which these understandings challenge the narrative of the ruling African National Congress ANC An empirically grounded analysis from a coterie of leading researchers and analysts Contesting Transformation is the definitive critical survey of the state of popular struggle in South Africa today Labour Market Theory Ben Fine,2002-09-11 This book is a commanding assessment of labour market theory across the social sciences It provides a radically original critique of labour market theory which draws constructively but critically on existing literature The work contributes to the debates on key issues in labour economics such as unemployment gender equal pay and the minimum theory illustrates the policy implications in empirical studies supplements existing orthodox labour market theory texts Domestic Democracy Jennifer Fish,2005-11-16 This study examines the dialectic relationship between social inequality and change in the newly democratic South Africa through the lens of paid domestic labor The complexities of this institution provide an in depth analysis of the tension between the race and gender priorities of South Africa s new democracy and the lived realities of the majority of its population Because paid domestic work remains the largest sector of employment for women in South Africa it is critical to situating the scope of social change in this emergent democracy This book presents the first comprehensive study of paid domestic labor since South Africa s 1994 post apartheid transition Drawing upon 85 interviews with domestic workers employers Parliamentarians community activists and organizational leaders this research offers diverse perspectives on the race class and gender divides that remain integral to social relations in the context of national transition In contrast this study also details women s collective agency through the exploration of a critical social policy change shaped by the activism of a new union of domestic workers Drawing upon extensive fieldwork this book demonstrates that transformation of social relations remains one of the greatest obstacles to engendering democracy in South Africa Like Family Ena Jansen,2019-04-15 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Es kia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie Responsibility, Privileged Irresponsibility and Response-ability Vivienne Bozalek,Michalinos Zembylas,2023-07-23 This book uses the overlapping approaches of political care ethics and feminist posthumanism as a lens to focus on the notions of privileged irresponsibility responsibility and response ability within the context of higher education and as it pertains to the issues of colonialism decolonisation pandemics and the climate crisis The book will appeal to scholars in the field of higher education as well as to those in several other fields such as ecology gender studies sociology philosophy and political science Colonization and Domestic Service Victoria K. Haskins, Claire Lowrie, 2014-12-05 This book brings together two key themes that have not been addressed together previously in any sustained way domestic service and colonization Existing studies of domestic service rarely make mention of colonization but colonization offers a rich and exciting new paradigm for analysing the phenomenon of domestic labour by non family workers paid and otherwise Scholars in diverse fields and disciplines here share new and stimulating insights on the various connections between domestic employment and the processes of colonization both past and present in a range of original essays A Handbook of Economic Anthropology Carrier, James G., 2022-05-13 This timely Research Agenda examines the ways in which public private partnerships PPPs in infrastructure continue to excite policy makers governments research scholars and critics around the world It analyzes the PPP research journey to date and articulates the lessons learned as a result of the increasing interest in improving infrastructure governance Expert international contributors explore how PPP ideas have spread transferred and transformed and propose a range of future research directions Home and Hegemony Kathleen M. Adams, Sara Dickey, 2000 Original and provocative essays on the construction of identity and hegemony Women in the South African Parliament Hannah Britton, 2010-10-01 Although the international press closely chronicled the dismantling of South Africa's apartheid policies it paid little attention to the unique role women from a variety of political parties played in establishing the new government Utilizing interviews participant observation and archival research Women in the South African Parliament tells an inspiring story of liberation showing how these women achieved electoral success learned to work with lifelong enemies and began to transform Parliament by creating more space for women's voices during a critical time in the life of their democracy Arguing from her detailed analysis of the strategies and political tactics used by these South African women both individually and collectively Hannah Britton contends that contrary claims in earlier studies of the developing world mobilization by women prior to a transition to democracy can lead to gains after the transition including improvements in constitutional mandates party politics and representation At the same time Britton demonstrates that not even national leadership can ensure power for all women and that many who were elected to South Africa's first democratic parliament declined to run again feeling they could have a greater impact working in their own communities
