Mainstreaming Of Children In Schools Research And Programmatic Issues Educational Psychology:

Mainstreaming of Children in Schools Phillip S. Strain, Mary Margaret Kerr, 1981 Mainstream or Special? Josephine Jenkinson, 2012-10-02 There remains some controversy about how best to meet the needs of pupils with special educational needs Should they be educated in mainstream schools alongside their peers or does this mean that specialist help and resources are denied to them This book explores in depth the ways in which this problem has been tackled in Australia the UK and Canada It looks at the major issues which have been raised and the types of provisions and resourcing which have been offered and then goes on to provide a vision of how future education provision might look for pupils with special educational needs

The Making of the Inclusive School Gary Thomas, David Walker, Julie Webb, 2006-04-19 Inclusion is a buzzword of the 1990s Politicians now stress their commitment to inclusion and social justice not competition For schools inclusion means accepting and educating all children irrespective of their difficulties The new inclusive mood is about including everyone in society's institutions It has created a growing demand for schools to find effective ways of including and teaching all children even those who at one time would have been sent to special schools The book combines a theoretical examination of inclusion and its rationale with the story of a group of schools in which teachers assistants and children have striven to make inclusion happen This new book explores the arguments for inclusive schools examines the international evidence about children's well being and academic progress in inclusive schools describes how the pioneers have developed their practice for inclusion presents the findings of an in depth 18 month study of a group of schools which have striven to make inclusion happen
