Making A Simple Violin And Viola:

Making a Simple Violin and Viola Ronald Roberts, 1957 Making a Simple Violin and Viola, 1975 This folio provides detailed plans on reproducing a violin or viola The Coevolution Quarterly, 1976 Making Music in Montessori Michael Johnson, 2020-11-21 Infused with a warm affable tone Making Music in Montessori is the Guide's guide to music education providing Montessori teachers all at once a snappy practical handbook music theory mentor pedagogical manual and resource anthology The book's goal To give teachers confidence in music so that when their children walk away from a lesson all fired up to compose their own music their teacher will know how to guide them Before Making Music in Montessori teachers may have only dreamed of a classroom buzzing with children working learning and growing with music alongside all of the other subject areas in the Montessori curriculum Now it's a reality If children's minds are a fertile field then Making Music in Montessori will stir Montessori teachers of all musical backgrounds to don their overalls roll up their sleeves sow the musical seeds and watch them blossom under their children's flaming imagination Directory of Contemporary American Musical Instrument Makers Susan Caust Farrell, 1981 This unique reference book is a compendium of makers and manufacturers of every variety of musical instrument made in the United States today It provides names and addresses of instrument makers indexed alphabetically Each entry gives all known information on the total and annual number of instruments the maker has produced the number of workers in the shop the year the individual or firm began manufacturing instruments whether the instruments are available on demand or made to order and whether a brochure is available from the maker Complete cross references are provided for companies known by more than one name for partnerships and for parent and subsidiary firms Instruments are also indexed and makers are listed by state for the convenience of the reader Lists of schools of instrument making and relevant organizations and publications are included as appendixes The directory will serve two major purposes First it will be an invaluable source of information for historians and for the rapidly growing number of collectors of musical instruments who will be able to use the data gathered here in appraising instruments and tracing their history The second purpose is simply to increase communication among instrument makers and to make their names available to retail and wholesale outlets for their products The Strad, 1903 The String Quartet, 1750-1797 Mara Parker, 2017-07-05 The second half of the eighteenth century witnessed a flourishing of the string quartet often represented as a smooth and logical progression from first violin dominated homophony to a more equal conversation between the four voices Yet this progression was neither as smooth nor as linear as previously thought as Mara Parker illustrates in her examination of the string quartet during this period Looking at a wide variety of string quartets by composers such as Pleyel Distler and Filtz in addition to Haydn and Mozart the book proposes a new way of describing the relationships between the four instruments in different works Broadly speaking these relationships follow one of four patterns the lecture the polite conversation the debate and the conversation In focusing on these musical discourses it becomes apparent that each work is the product of its composer s stylistic choices location intended performers and intended audience Instead of evolving in a strict and universal sequence the string quartet in the latter half of the eighteenth century was a complex genre with composers mixing and matching musical discourses as circumstances and their own creative impulses required
