My mother never married my father. She was married to and divorced from another man, then she married and divorced my stepfather and then, ultimately, they ended up getting back together.

My Mother Is Not Married To My Father:

Catch My Mother's Killer Paula Mints, 2008-07-29 This gripping true story brings the terrible truths of the nation's homelessness issues to life as a young woman searches for the killer of her homeless mother and struggles to prevent more innocent deaths Original Decisions of the Department of the Interior in Appealed Pension and Bounty-land Claims United States. Department of the Interior, 1904 Behind the Eight Ball Tanya Telfair Sharpe, 2005 Behind the Eight Ball Sex for Crack Cocaine Exchange and Poor Black Women documents an American tragedy that highlights the widening gap between social and economic classes In their own words poor black women nameless faceless and marginalized by poverty share the details of their lives before and after crack cocaine invaded their communities each recalling the circumstances of her introduction to the drug and her first experience using sex to support her addiction These candid interviews expose the socioeconomic changes in inner city neighborhoods that created the perfect conditions for a crack stronghold the crack cocaine economy's impact on the lives of inner city residents and the social and familial consequences of crack addiction among poor black women The Bigness of the World Lori Ostlund, 2010-10-01 Set among such divergent places as a small town in Minnesota an Albuquerque airport A Belizean caf and a hotel swimming pool in Java Ostlund's Flannery O'Connor Award 2008 winning debut collection depicts sexually and socially repressed Americans Men and women who wind up feeling displaced when they fail to escape the influence of their past ineffectual parents fathers and lovers who disappear teachers who struggle to connect with their students and lifelong obsessions with language The Gospel of Barbecue Honorée Fanonne Jeffers, 2000 The title poem of this collection tells of the creation of barbecue how slaves cooked their masters scraps into a survival food that became a cuisine Powerful and moving these poems teach how the nasty leftovers in life can be transformed into music scripture celebration Everyday Silence and the Holocaust Irene Levin, 2024-07-31 Everyday Silence and the Holocaust examines Irene Levin's experiences of her family's unspoken history of the Holocaust and the silence that surrounded their war experiences as non topics A central example of what C Wright Mills considered the core of sociology the intersection of biography and history the book covers the process by which the author came to understand that notes found in her mother's apartment following her death were not unimportant scribbles but in fact contained elements of her mother's biographical narrative recording her parents escape from occupied Norway to unoccupied Sweden in late 1942 From the mid 1990s when society began to open up about the atrocities committed against the Jews so too did the author find that her mother and the wider Jewish population ceased to be silent about their war experiences and began to talk Charting the process by which the author traced the family's broader history this book explores the use of silence whether in the family or in society more widely as a powerful analytic tool and examines how these silences can intertwine This book provides insight into social processes often viewed through a macro historical lens by way of analysis of the life of an ordinary Jewish woman as a survivor An engaging grounded study of the biographical method in sociology and the role played by silence this book will appeal to readers with an interest in the Holocaust and World War II as well as in social scientific research methods It will be of use to both undergraduate and postgraduate scholars in the fields of history social science psychology philosophy and the history of ideas The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Testimonies of Slaves Work Projects Administration, 2020-12-17 Musaicum Books presents to you this meticulously collection of hundreds of life stories recorded interviews and incredible vivid testimonies of former slaves from the American southern states including photos of the people being interviewed and their extraordinary narratives After the end of Civil War in 1865 more than four million slaves were set free There were several efforts to record the remembrances of the former slaves The Federal Writers Project was one such project by the United States federal government to support writers during the Great Depression by asking them to interview and record the myriad stories and experiences of slavery of former slaves The resulting collection preserved hundreds of life stories from 17 U.S. states that would otherwise have been lost in din of modernity and America's eagerness to deliberately forget the blot on its recent past Contents Alabama Arkansas Florida Georgia Indiana Kansas Kentucky Maryland Mississippi Missouri North Carolina Ohio Oklahoma South Carolina Tennessee Texas Virginia

My Father's and Mother's Century Angela South, 2013-11-01 I had intended this to be the story of my father an ordinary man living in an extraordinary turbulent half century which shaped his life and subsequently mine However when researching my father's life I realise what an extraordinary life my mother had also lived and I want to incorporate her own tale This is a story that also belongs to my sister and me and tells how we came to be the adults we now are This book chronicles the family history of Angela South's father John Louis Salter It starts with his army career at 14 years old and how he was posted at 15 to Hong Kong and Mauritius In WW1 he received the DCM Distinguished Conduct Medal and returned home in 1918 with a French bride Albertine Marie John left the army in 1925 qualifying as a civil servant despite his lack of education He settled with his wife in southern England during the 1920s and 30s In 1937 Albertine Marie was admitted to a mental asylum for the remainder of her life due to mental instability During WW2 he worked in Whitehall and in 1945 was posted to Berlin where he met Angela's mother Christa who was 20 years old at the time They returned to England together in 1947 where she studied English and secretarial skills so she could take over as the family bread winner John and Christa married in 1951 after the birth of Angela and her younger sister Karin My Father's and Mother's Century delves into Angela's childhood through the 1950s and 60s in her somewhat unusual family and reveals how it impacted on herself and Karin The book will appeal to fans of family history biographies and family history

The Voices From The Past - Hundreds of Testimonies by Former Slaves In One Volume Work Projects Administration, 2023-12-11 In The Voices From The Past Hundreds of Testimonies by Former Slaves In One Volume the Work Projects Administration compiles a remarkable collection of firsthand accounts from former enslaved individuals shedding light on their experiences and the complexities of slavery in America The book s literary style is characterized by authentic vernacular and vivid personal narratives allowing readers to connect with the raw emotion and resilience underlying each testimony This compilation not only serves as a historical document but also positions itself within the tradition of oral history making an invaluable contribution to the understanding of African American experiences in the antebellum and postbellum periods The Work Projects Administration was established during the Great Depression as part of New Deal initiatives aiming to provide employment through public works programs In this context collecting slave narratives became a means to preserve an essential part of American history while simultaneously offering work opportunities to writers and historians This intersection of socio economic necessity and cultural preservation showcases the WPA s commitment to documenting the voices often silenced in mainstream narratives I highly recommend The Voices From The Past to anyone interested in American history African American studies or oral history By engaging with these testimonies readers will gain profound insights into the lived realities of former slaves while encountering the broader implications of their stories which resonate with modern discussions on race identity and social justice

Silence Moves Andrés J. Fernández, 2025-02-09 This is a collection of stories about my journey to find answers to the challenges surrounding my relationships with my mother father and grandparents especially during my childhood and adolescence I have explored these challenges in the context of cultural norms traditions and the ancestral or collective trauma that has been passed down through generations It reflects on a journey that started when a stroke incapacitated my mother It delves into the silence that moves through generations surrounding abuse alcoholism and my parents lived experiences uncovering how these issues have shaped my life as I strive to heal from unanswered questions lost parental love and trauma They tell stories of disappointment resilience hope and the understanding that not everything can be answered recaptured forgiven or forgotten
