Secular Narrations and Transdisciplinary Knowledge Abdelmajid Hannoum, 2023-05-31 This book considers secularism and its narrative expressions It shows how secularism is articulated and transmitted ubiquitously within state institutions and outside of them Abdelmajid Hannoum does this by dissecting in a series of essays a variety of narrative forms interrogating modes of their constitution and production the dynamics of their translatability the politics of their use the struggle over their status of truth and the conditions that make secular narration so central to our existence The book ranges from a medieval narrative of the secular to a modern narrative to anthropological secularism and religious experiences to narratives of translation produced by what the author calls translation ideology to historical narratives regulated by archival power and state secrecy to narratives of violence to narratives of recollection as well as narratives of silence Particular attention is paid to postcolonial French contemporary cultures and politics Transdisciplinary approaches are deployed to not only reframe old questions in new ways but also posit new questions out of old ones In doing so this innovative work opens up fresh discursive possibilities that cross traditional disciplines It will be of interest to scholars of anthropology history and beyond English as it is Broken ,2008 Why Bother with History? Beverley C.

Southgate,2013-11-04 Why Bother With History argues for an increasingly important role for a revitalised historical study Examining the motivations of past historians the author rejects the ancient aspiration to a history for its own sake and argues that historians importance lies in their own adoption of a moral standpoint from which a story of the past can be told that facilitates the attainment of a future we desire Inevitably controversial in that it challenges many of the assumptions of modernist history this is an interdisciplinary book which draws in particular on psychology and literature The Curse of Cain Regina M. Schwartz,1998-10 The Curse of Cain confronts the inherent ambiguities of biblical stories on many levels and in the end offers an alternative inspiring reading of the Bible that is attentive to visions of plenitude rather than scarcity and to an ethics based on generosity rather than violence A provocative and timely examination of the interrelationship of monotheism and violence This is a refreshing alternative to criticism biblical and otherwise that so often confuses interpretation with closure it is an invitation to an ethic of possibility plenitude and generosity a welcome antidote to violence as important for its insights into memory identity and place as for its criticism of monotheism s violent legacy Booklist Brilliant and provocative this is a work demanding close attention from critics theologians and all those interested in the imaginative roots of common life Rowan Williams Bishop of Monmouth A stunningly important book Walter Brueggemann Theology Today Artfully rendered endlessly provocative Lawrence Weschler New Yorker Graphic Novels as Philosophy Jeff McLaughlin,2017-08-18 Contributions by Eric Bain Selbo Jeremy Barris Maria Botero Manuel Mandel Cabrera Jr David J Leichter Ian MacRae Jeff McLaughlin Alfonso Mu oz Corcuera Corry Shores and Jarkko Tuusvuori In a follow up to Comics as Philosophy international contributors address two questions Which philosophical insights concepts and tools can shed light on the graphic novel And how can the graphic novel cast light on the concerns of philosophy Each contributor ponders a well known graphic novel to illuminate ways in which philosophy can untangle particular combinations of image and written word for deeper understanding Jeff McLaughlin collects a range of essays to examine notable graphic novels within the framework posited by these two questions One essay discusses how a philosopher discovered that the panels in Jeff Lemire s Essex County do not just replicate a philosophical argument but they actually give evidence to an argument that could not have existed otherwise Another essay reveals how Chris Ware s manipulation of the medium demonstrates an important sense of time and experience Still another describes why Maus tends to be more profound than later works that address the Holocaust because of not in spite of the fact that the characters are cartoon animals rather than human Other works contemplated include Will Eisner s A Contract with God Alan Moore and David Lloyd s V for Vendetta Alison Bechdel s Fun Home and Joe Sacco s Footnotes in Gaza Mainly each essay contributor graphic novelist and artist is doing the same thing trying to tell us how the world is at least from their point of view The World We Live In Alexandru Dragomir,2016-12-15 This book contains twelve engaging philosophical lectures given by Alexandru Dragomir most of them given during Romania s Communist regime The lectures deal with a diverse range of topics such as the function of the question self deception banalities with a metaphysical dimension and how the world we live in has been shaped by the intellect Among the thinkers discussed in these lectures are Anaxagoras Socrates Plato Aristotle Descartes and Nietzsche Alexandru Dragomir was a Romanian philosopher born in 1916 After studying law and philosophy at the University of Bucharest 1933 1939 he left Romania to study for a doctorate in philosophy in Freiburg Germany under Martin Heidegger He stayed in Freiburg for two years 1941 1943 but before defending his dissertation he was called back to Romania for military service and sent to the front After 1948 historical circumstances forced him to become a clandestine philosopher he was known only within a very limited circle He died in 2002 without ever publishing anything It was only after his death that Dragomir s notebooks came to light His work has been published posthumously in five volumes by Humanitas Bucharest the present volume is the first to appear in English translation In 2009 the Alexandru Dragomir Institute for Philosophy was founded in Bucharest as an independent research institute under the auspices of the Romanian Society for Phenomenology The One Year Love Language Minute Devotional Gary Chapman,2014-09-26 Are you and your spouse speaking the same language He sends you flowers when what you really want is time to talk She gives you a hug when what you really need is a home cooked meal The problem isn t love it s your love language The Love Languages Devotional by Gary Chapman author of the New York Times bestseller The 5 Love Languages is the Christian couple s daily guide on how to express heartfelt love to your loved one Each day contains a selection from Scripture an insightful message about communicating love to your spouse and a prayer Start any day of the year You ll read about topics like Learning the love language of touch Handling anger constructively Sharing money Personality differences Grow closer to your spouse this year with the One Year Love Language Minute Devotional
