

ADVANCE ACCLAIM FOR MY SECOND
TWENTY YEARS

"A tough and moving pilgrimage from the pain of death to the full beauty of a brilliant life... a vivid death's ride of destiny measured, a splendid, witty, lucid portrait of the artist as his reader's partner and witness; in short, a story about choosing one's life—a story that triumphs and defies and risks and inspires and moves, and is likely to win prominence in that wonderful literature (published by Simon Adams and Samuel Butler and John Grant Mills) of self-education."

Cynthia Clark
author of Trust, The Paper Ball,
and Blindfold

"This is a struggle which leaves you dumfounded up against a wall facing yourself. This is honesty which goes through the heart to the marrow and evaluates the parameters of pain and grief we thought had been defined. Brickner descends and thrusts back at us all our presuppositions and the myths and allegories we have accepted about accident and survival. He articulates the questions we are too impotent to ask about the transcendence of the human spirit."

"Richard Brickner has written the best book I have read about how a sensitive intelligent man thinks about sex, and about women and the problems of loving us now. The feelings, the exquisite physical detailing in this book will serve a revolution. And yet, Brickner's imagination is such that the revolution and honesty do not detract from the appeal of the male mystery, the seductiveness that gives this book its strong erotic pull. Where certain men see sex as a defense, Brickner sees sex as pull down his defenses—and ours. No one has written so well about sex and how it is with the bright men. Where Mailer, Miller and Roth stop short at telling men what they wanted to hear, saving all the rough words and describing the action, Brickner goes all the way through to the feelings that are tougher to tell. . . . You could trust such a man who uses such implication of his women's expressions as clearly as he uses and reveals his own. . . . It is an eminently adult appraisal of sexuality which leaves us smiling and crying and reaching out to him as one would to a lover—if one only had a lover who could explain himself as well."
