Jake Eberts, Terry Ilott

My Indecision Is Final The Rise And Fall Of Goldcrest Films:

My Indecision is Final Jake Eberts, Terry Illott, 1990-01 In 1983 Goldcrest Films was hailed as the saviour of the British film industry but within two years the company was virtually bankrupt This book tells the story of Goldcrest Films and was one of The Financial Times Business Books of the Year My Indecision is Final Jake Eberts, 1990 David Bowie and Film Stephen Glynn, 2022-10-31 This book constitutes the first monograph dedicated to an academic analysis of David Bowie's appearances in film Through close textual analysis together with production and reception histories Bowie's silver screen career is explored in full The book covers performance documentaries such as Ziggy Stardust and the Spiders from Mars star vehicles ranging from the eulogised The Man Who Fell to Earth to the excoriated Just a Gigolo plus roles from the horror chic of The Hunger and cult fantasy of Labyrinth to the valiant high brow Baal and vainglorious high budget Absolute Beginners ending with Bowie as Bowie in Bandslam and others as Bowie in Velvet Goldmine and Stardust Alongside showing his willingness to experiment and at times fail across a variety of genres this study investigates Bowie's performative style that while struggling to accommodate the requirements of cinematic realism fits more harmoniously with alternative production codes and aesthetics More broadly by exploring the commercial socio cultural and ideological significance of Bowie on film the book demonstrates how notions of gender sexuality and identity formation plus commodity and cultural capital function and fluctuate in contemporary society The International Film Business Angus Finney, 2022-05-25 Examining the independent film sector as a business on an international scale author Angus Finney addresses the specific skills and knowledge required to successfully navigate the international film business Finney describes and analyses the present structure of the film industry as a business with a specific focus on the film and entertainment value chain and takes readers through the status of current digital technology exploring ways in which this is changing the structure and opportunities offered by the industry in the future The textbook provides information and advice on the different business and management skills and strategies that students and emerging practitioners will need to effectively engage with the industry in an international context Case studies of films and TV including Squid Game 2021 Parasite 2019 Game of Thrones 2011 2019 and The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel 2011 are supplemented by company case studies on Redbus Renaissance Pixar with additional new chapters focusing on Netflix TikTok and the Metaverse This third edition of The International Film Business includes up to date information on the status of the international film industry during and post COVID 19 expanded content looking at the TV industry and streaming services new case studies and dedicated sections on the Streaming Wars and the Chinese Film Industry and a new chapter looking at the changes in digital production in the context of the global and territorial film and TV industry Written for students of Film Business and emerging practitioners this book will take readers through the successes and failures of a variety of real film companies and projects and features exclusive interviews with leading practitioners in all sectors of the industry from production to exhibition Transatlantic Crossings Sarah

Street,2002-01-01 Transatlantic Crossings is the first major study of the distribution and exhibition of British films in the USA Charting the cross cultural reception of many British films Sarah Street draws on a wide range of sources including studio records film posters press books and statistics While the relative strength of Hollywood made it difficult for films that crossed the Atlantic Streets research demonstrates that some strategies were more successful than others She considers which British films made an impact and analyzes conditions that facilitated a positive reception from critics censors exhibitors and audiences Case studies include Nell Gwyn 1926 The Private Life of Henry VIII 1933 The Ghost Goes West 1935 Henry V 1946 Black Narcissus 1947 The Red Shoes 1948 Ealing comedies The Horror of Dracula 1958 Tom Jones 1963 A Hard Days Night 1964 Goldfinger 1964 The Remains of the Day 1993 Four Weddings and a Funeral 1994 and Trainspotting 1996 Against a background of the economic history of the British and Hollywood film industries Transatlantic Crossings considers the many fascinating questions surrounding the history of British films in the USA their relevance to wider issues of Anglo American relations and to notions of Britishness on screen

Shadow Economies of Cinema Ramon Lobato,2019-07-25 How do people access movies today What are the most popular and powerful channels for media distribution on a global scale How are film industries changing in the face of media convergence and digitisation To answer questions such as these argues Ramon Lobato we must shift our gaze away from the legal film business and toward cinema s shadow economies All around the world films are bought from roadside stalls local markets and grocery stores they are illegally downloaded and streamed they are watched in makeshift video clubs on street corners and in restaurants shops and bars International film culture in its actually existing forms is a messy affair and it relies to a great extent on black and grey media markets Examining the industrial dynamics of these subterranean film networks across a number of different sites from Los Angeles to Lagos Melbourne to Mexico City this book shows how they constitute a central rather than marginal part of audiovisual culture and commerce Combining film industry analysis with cultural theory Shadow Economies of Cinema opens up a new area of inquiry for cinema studies putting industry research into dialogue with wider debates about economic informality and commodity circulation Written in an accessible style this book offers an original bottom up perspective on the global cinema industry for researchers and students in film studies cultural studies and media and communications
