What My Mother and I Don't Talk About Michele Filgate, 2020-08-11 You will devour these beautifully written and very important tales of honesty pain and resilience Elizabeth Gilbert New York Times bestselling author of Eat Pray Love and City of Girls from fifteen brilliant writers who explore how what we don t talk about with our mothers affects us for better or for worse As an undergraduate Michele Filgate started writing an essay about being abused by her stepfather It took her more than a decade to realize that she was actually trying to write about how this affected her relationship with her mother When it was finally published the essay went viral shared on social media by Anne Lamott Rebecca Solnit and many others This gave Filgate an idea and the resulting anthology offers a candid look at our relationships with our mothers Leslie Jamison writes about trying to discover who her seemingly perfect mother was before ever becoming a mom In Cathi Hanauer s hilarious piece she finally gets a chance to have a conversation with her mother that isn t interrupted by her domineering but lovable father Andr Aciman writes about what it was like to have a deaf mother Melissa Febos uses mythology as a lens to look at her close knit relationship with her psychotherapist mother And Julianna Baggott talks about having a mom who tells her everything As Filgate writes Our mothers are our first homes and that s why we re always trying to return to them There s relief in acknowledging how what we couldn t say for so long is a way to heal our relationships with others and perhaps most important with ourselves Contributions by Cathi Hanauer Melissa Febos Alexander Chee Dylan Landis Bernice L McFadden Julianna Baggott Lynn Steger Strong Kiese Laymon Carmen Maria Machado Andr Aciman Sari Botton Nayomi Munaweera Brandon Taylor and Leslie Jamison

My Mother's Eyes Shanelle Dawson, 2023-10-11 Imagine living with the knowledge that your father had murdered your mother and lied to you your whole life telling you she left because she didn t love you anymore How could a father do this to his children How could a husband do this to a woman he at one time loved When she was four years old Shanelle Dawson s mother Lynette disappeared On 8 January 1982 the woman who had been a loving constant presence vanished without a trace Four year old s might not be able to articulate questions or understand a lot but the ache of absence is very real Year after year that ache persisted Shanelle s father Chris Dawson claimed that his wife just needed to get away This is what he told Lyn s parents and siblings This is what he told his daughters But Lyn never returned home Her side of the bed was immediately filled by Shanelle s teenage babysitter a former student of her father s After thirty six years of her father s lies a podcast called The Teacher s Pet investigated her mother s case Sordid details about the father she loved became public Whispers that he had murdered Lynette grew louder The police refocused on the cold case Then Chris Dawson faced court Forty years after she went missing he was sentenced to twenty four years in prison for the murder of Lynette Now in this brave emotionally powerful memoir Shanelle reclaims her mother s story and finds a channel for her own voice It is an unforgettable insight into the ripples of trauma and loss that family violence brings and shows how Shanelle found the strength to confront her father and can now create a new life after unimaginable deception This is Shanelle s story My Mother/My Self Nancy Friday,1997-09-08 When Nancy Friday began her research for My Mother My Self in the early 1970 s no work existed that explored the unique interaction between mother and daughter Today psychotherapists throughout the world acknowledge that if women are to be able to love without possessing to find work that fulfills them and to discover their full sexuality they must first acknowledge their identity as separate from their mother s Nancy Friday s book played a major role in that acceptance The greatest gift a good mother can give remains unquestioning love planted deep in the first year of life so deep and anassailable that the tiny child grown to womanhood is never held back by the fear of losing that love no matter what her own choice in love sexuality or work may be Through candid self disclosure and hundreds of interviews Friday investigates a generational legacy and reveals the conflicting feelings of anger hate and love the daughter s hold for their mothers and why they so often become that mother themselves My Mother's Daughter H.
