

Early comment on My People is the Enemy William
Stringfellow

"The publication of MY PEOPLE IS THE ENEMY at this time is a case of President Johnson's focus on the problems of poverty. It is very auspicious."

Wesley Morris
U. S. Senator from Oregon

"William Stringfellow is not only a prophet for our times but he has the gift to imagine how America and the world would address themselves to the contemporary situation.
To read him is to see the present through his headlights, history and complexities of the day and to see the future clearly.
Stringfellow is the prophet to be glowing the Christ who has appeared that he knew the reality of our human condition and as this is the human story."

Rev. Dr. John R. Morris Executive Director
The Ecumenical Society for Cultural and Social Unity

"In MY PEOPLE IS THE ENEMY William Stringfellow and his people the Negroes who live there. Stringfellow is a young white lawyer and committed spiritual leader who spent seven years living and working among the poor people of Harlem, and his account of their poverty and what deprivation is one of the best I have ever read, concerned, understandable.
He is also an artist, one of whose strength is in his visual poetry as New York as it is and offers an important and well-grounded account of the inner world of the Negro."

Paul Pickett
in Harper's Magazine
