The Philistine Controversy Dave Beech, John Roberts, 2002-06-17 Dave Beech and John Roberts develop what they call a counter intuitive notion of the philistine with insights on cultural division and exclusion

Revolutionary Time and the Avant-Garde John Roberts, 2015-09-15 Why the avant garde of art needs to be rehabilitated today Since the decidedly bleak beginning of the twenty first century art practice has become increasingly politicized Yet few have put forward a sustained defence of this development Revolutionary Time and the Avant Garde is the first book to look at the legacy of the avant garde in relation to the deepening crisis of contemporary capitalism An invigorating revitalization of the Frankfurt School legacy Roberts s book defines and validates the avant garde idea with an erudite acuity providing a refined conceptual set of tools to engage critically with the most advanced art theorists of our day such as Hal Foster Andrew Benjamin Alain Badiou Jacques Rancière Paolo Virno Claire Bishop Michael Hardt and Toni Negri

The Moral Foundations of Public Funding for the Arts Michael Rushton, 2023-06-26 This book provides a detailed account and critique of diverse approaches to the arts funding question with a focus on the arm s length arts councils that are the norm in the Anglo American world It builds on economic methods the liberal egalitarian framework of John Rawls the communitarian opposition to the liberal framework the capabilities approach to equality and the cultural conservatism of Roger Scruton and others In each case the book considers the very practical aspect of public funding of the arts namely what are the implications for what ought to receive priority and what parts of the cultural world are best left to their own private sector devices It is not a work of arts advocacy Rather the book challenges assumptions and sparks critical debate in the field

Visual Shock Michael Kammen, 2009-04-22 In this lively narrative award winning author Michael Kammen presents a fascinating analysis of cutting edge art and artists and their unique ability to both delight and provoke us He illuminates America s obsession with public memorials and the changing role of art and museums in our society From Thomas Eakins s 1875 masterpiece The Gross

Clinic considered too big bold and gory when first exhibited to the bitter disputes about Maya Lin's Vietnam War Memorial this is an eye opening account of American art and the battles and controversies that it has ignited The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1926 The Making of the Humanities Rens Bod, Jaap Maat, Thijs Weststeijn, 2010 This first volume in The making of the humanities series focuses on the early modern period Specialists from various disciplines offer their view on the history of linguistics literary studies musicology historiography and philosophy Einstein on the Beach: Opera beyond Drama Jelena Novak, John Richardson, 2019-12-06 Philip Glass and Robert Wilson's most celebrated collaboration the landmark opera Einstein on the Beach had its premiere at the Avignon Festival in 1976 During its initial European tour Metropolitan Opera premiere and revivals in 1984 and 1992 Einstein provoked opposed reactions from both audiences and critics Today Einstein is well on the way itself to becoming a canonized avant garde work and it is widely acknowledged as a profoundly significant moment in the history of opera or musical theater Einstein created waves that for many years crashed against the shores of traditional thinking concerning the nature and creative potential of audiovisual expression Reaching beyond opera its influence was felt in audiovisual culture in general in contemporary avant garde music performance art avant garde cinema popular film popular music advertising dance theater and many other expressive commercial and cultural spheres Inspired by the 2012-2015 series of performances that re contextualized this unique work as part of the present day nexus of theoretical political and social concerns the editors and contributors of this book take these new performances as a pretext for far reaching interdisciplinary reflection and dialogue Essays range from those that focus on the human scale and agencies involved in productions to the mechanical and post human character of the opera's expressive substance A further valuable dimension is the inclusion of material taken from several recent interviews with creative collaborators Philip Glass Robert Wilson and Lucinda Childs each of these sections comprising knee plays or short intermezzo sections resembling those found in the opera Einstein on the Beach itself The book additionally features a foreword written by the influential musicologist and cultural theorist Susan McClary and an interview with film and theater luminary Peter Greenaway as well as a short chapter of reminiscences written by the singer songwriter Suzanne Vega

The American School Board Journal William George Bruce, William Conrad Bruce, 1901 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance, 1926 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 1989 The National Review Politically Incorrect Reference Guide Frederick W. Campano, 1993 Reading Arab Women's Autobiographies Nawar Al-Hassan Golley, 2010-01-01 Authors of autobiographies are always engaged in creating a self to present to their readers This process of self creation raises a number of intriguing questions why and how does anyone choose to present herself or himself in an autobiography Do women and men represent themselves in different ways and if so why How do differences in culture affect the writing of autobiography in various parts of the world This book tackles these questions through a close examination of Arab women's autobiographical writings Nawar Al Hassan Golley applies a variety of western critical theories including Marxism colonial discourse feminism and narrative theory to the autobiographies of Huda Shaarawi Fadwa Tuqan Nawal el Saadawi and others to demonstrate what these critical methodologies can reveal about Arab women's writing At the same time she also interrogates these theories against the chosen texts to see how adequate or appropriate these models are for analyzing texts from other cultures This two fold investigation sheds important new light on how the writers or editors of Arab women's autobiographies have written documented presented and organized their texts
