Nurture Your Soul Automatically Whileudrive:

The American Golfer's Guide to Ireland Graeme McDowell, Brian Keogh, Bill Ruskin, 2011-09-29 Maybe the game of golf wasn't invented in Ireland but to most visitors it seems that way. After all, there are more golf courses per square mile in Ireland than in any part of the world. A golfing visit to Ireland will be the trip of a lifetime for many reasons. First, links courses sparkle like an emerald necklace around the coastline of Ireland. It is subjective to pick the best from so many great courses but here are a few: Royal Portrush, Portstewart, Royal County Down, Baltray, Portmarnock, The European Club, Old Head, Waterville, Ballybunion, Tralee, Lahinch, Doonbeg, Connemara, Carne, Enniscrone, Murvagh, Ballyliffin, and Rosapenna. Second, the past two decades have brought world-class resorts with the finest facilities and championship-level courses including The K Club, Lough Erne, Druids, Glen Mount, Wolsely, Killeen Castle, Glasheen, Galgorm Castle, Slieve Russell, The Heritage, Powerscourt, Adare, Fota Island, Dromoland Castle, and many more. Third, visitors can enjoy over 400 private golf clubs scattered throughout Ireland where greens fees offer excellent value and local members make you feel at home. Not least, the 19th hole is a great opportunity to meet local golfers. An old saying puts it like this: 'There are no strangers in Ireland, only friends you haven't met before.' The successes of Irish golfers on the international circuit have also put the spotlight on the great golf found throughout the Island. Pádraig Harrington, Graeme McDowell, Rory McIlroy, Darren Clarke, Paul McGinley, Shane Lowry, and others have been not just successful competitors but wonderful ambassadors for Irish fun and hospitality. I hope you and your friends will come to experience golf in Ireland for yourselves. I can assure you a warm welcome and some wonderful memories. Joe Byrne, Executive Vice President, Tourism Ireland. And That's the Truth! Carl W. McClure, 2012-09-18. And that's the truth. Meaningful fiction to stimulate your mind and nurture your soul is a treasury of short fiction stories. Most of the narrators in Part One are animals talking about themselves. You learn how dozens of animals live, eat, and survive through dialogue and description. Look too for inanimate objects to spring to life and talk about themselves: a houseplant, a stop sign, a dollar bill, and others. Part Two gives you traditional fictional stories with lively characters and believable or not-so-believable storylines. All of the stories leave you with a nugget of wisdom or a bit of a chuckle. Sprinkled throughout Part Two are a few short articles of general interest, non-fiction. Whether you read the stories in order or at random, you will come away enriched with inspirational and encouraging accounts that stimulate your mind and nurture your soul. The American Golfer's Guide to Scotland Bill Ruskin with Tom Renfrew, 2010-06-23. Scotland is known as the Home of Golf and is renowned for its fascinating history, rich culture, and heritage, and but above all, our golf courses are situated amid some of the most spectacular scenery in the world. Throughout Scotland, there is a huge choice of golf courses to suit every skill level, offering quality value for money and above all, a fantastic and unique golfing experience. You are never too far from a golf course, with more than 400 courses less than an hour from a city or an airport. Furthermore, the average green fee is 45, which is only around 70. Every golfer in the world should experience golf in Scotland at least once in their lifetime Up and down the country Scotland offers unique coastal courses and magnificent links golf complemented by breathtaking parkland heathland and moorland golf courses many of which have been designed by renowned golf architects and played by the golfing elite another reason for cementing Scotland's golfing reputation Scotland of course boasts the famous greens of Turnberry and The Old Course But we are not ones to rest on our laurels and new courses are being added to Scotland's amazing collection all the time Machrihanish Dunes Golf Club set hard against the shores of the Atlantic Ocean is the first 18 hole links golf course to be built on the west coast of Scotland in 100 years while Castle Stuart in the Highlands is a championship links course overlooking the Moray Firth and well known landmarks that are synonymous with Highlands With more than 550 courses populating the stunning scenery the length and breadth of the country you will never be stuck for quality or choice With all this and more there is always a reason for visiting Scotland Phillip Riddle Chief Executive VisitScotland Why You Love the Way You Do: A Guide to Self Understanding.
