Reinventing A Continent:

Reinventing a Continent Andre BRINK,1996      Reinventing a Continent André Philippus Brink,1998 Ranging in tone from dispassionate historical overview to bare knuckles polemic these essays chronicle South Africa's willful transformation from repressive police state to emerging democracy      Pre and Post-publication Itineraries of the Contemporary Novel in English François Gallix,2007      Modernism and the New Spain Gayle Rogers,2012-10-03 How and why did a country seen as remote backwards and barely European become a pivotal site for reinventing the continent after the Great War Modernism and the New Spain argues that the Spanish problem the nation's historically troubled relationship with Europe provided an animating impulse for interwar literary modernism and for new conceptions of cosmopolitanism Drawing on works in a variety of genres Gayle Rogers reconstructs an archive of cross cultural exchanges to reveal the mutual constitution of two modernist movements one in Britain the other in Spain and stretching at key moments in between to Ireland and the Americas Several sites of transnational collaboration form the core of Rogers's innovative literary history The relationship between T S Eliot's Criterion and Jos Ortega y Gasset's Revista de Occidente shows how the two journals joined to promote a cosmopolitan agenda A similar case of kindred spirits appears with the 1922 publication of Joyce's Ulysses The novel's forward thinking sentiments on race and nation resonated powerfully within Spain where a generation of writers searched for non statist forms through which they might express a new European Hispanicity These cultural ties between the Anglo Irish and Spanish speaking worlds increased with the outbreak of civil war in 1936 Rogers explores the connections between fighting Spanish fascism and dismantling the English patriarchal system in Virginia Woolf's Three Guineas along with the international anti fascist poetic community formed by Stephen Spender Manuel Altolaguirre and others as they sought to establish Federico Garc a Lorca as an apolitical Spanish European poet Mining a rich array of sources that includes novels periodicals biographies translations and poetry in English and in Spanish Modernism and the New Spain adds a vital new international perspective to modernist studies revealing how writers created alliances that unified local and international reforms to reinvent Europe not in the London Paris Berlin nexus but in Madrid

Reinventing Government David Osborne,Ted Gaebler,1993-02-01 A landmark in the debate on the future of public policy The Washington Post      A Comparative Analysis of the South African and German Reception of Nadine Gordimer's, Andre Brink's and J.M. Coetzee's Works Eva-Marie Herlitzius,2005      The Disappointed Bridge Richard Pine,2014-06-02 This original study is the first major critical appraisal of Ireland's post colonial experience in relation to that of other emergent nations The parallels between Ireland India Latin America Africa and Europe establish bridges in literary and musical contexts which offer a unique insight into independence and freedom and the ways in which they are articulated by emergent nations They explore the master servant relationship the functions of narrative and the concepts of nationalism map making exile schizophrenia hybridity magical realism and disillusion The author offers many incisive answers to the question What happens to an emerging nation after it has emerged Rhetorics of Resistance Bryan Trabold, 2018-10-24 The period of apartheid was a perilous time in South Africa's history This book examines the tactics of resistance developed by those working for the Weekly Mail and New Nation two opposition newspapers published in South Africa in the mid and late 1980s The government in an attempt to crack down on the massive political resistance sweeping the country had imposed martial law and imposed even greater restrictions on the press Bryan Trabold examines the writing legal and political strategies developed by those working for these newspapers to challenge the censorship restrictions as much as possible without getting banned Despite the many steps taken by the government to silence them including detaining the editor of New Nation for two years and temporarily closing both newspapers the Weekly Mail and New Nation not only continued to publish but actually increased their circulations and obtained strong domestic and international support New Nation ceased publication in 1994 after South Africa made the transition to democracy but the Weekly Mail now the Mail Guardian continues to publish and remains one of South Africa's most respected newspapers Readings of the Particular, 2007-01-01 The present collection aims at throwing light on transculturality and the identities and masks that people put on in writing as much as in life in an age of global levelling and the struggle for a particular place in a postcolonial world Topics covered include North African identity in France cultural citizenship and the Asian diaspora novels of beur self identity by Maghrebi immigrants in France Scottish fiction Britain and Empire memory amnesia and the re-invention of the past in South Africa the Caribbean and elsewhere borders necrophilia and history in Southern African fiction encodings of female control spectating in black documentary cinema theatre performance and the Western presence in Africa masks history transtextuality and other aspects of Irish poetry and drama the masking and unmasking of identity in the African American novel violence and Titus Andronicus in black Nova Scotian poetry notions of the national and of indigeneity in contemporary Canadian drama Native Canadians space and the city Authors and artists treated include William Boyd Andr Brink George Elliott Clarke David Dabydeen Ralph Ellison Bessie Head Seamus Heaney Tomson Highway Isaac Julien Daniel David Moses Paul Muldoon Albert Murray Jean Rhys Sir Walter Scott Robert Louis Stevenson Richard Wright and W B Yeats

Colonizer and Colonized, 2021-11-08 Over the last two decades the experiences of colonization and decolonization once safely relegated to the margins of what occupied students of history and literature have shifted into the latter's center of attention in the West as elsewhere This attention does not restrict itself to the historical dimension of colonization and decolonization but also focuses upon their impact upon the present for both colonizers and colonized The nearly fifty essays here gathered examine how literature now and in the past keeps and has kept alive the experiences both individual and collective of colonization and decolonization The contributors to this volume hail from the four corners of the earth East and West North and South The authors discussed range from international luminaries past and present such as Aphra Behn Racine Blaise Cendrars Salman Rushdie Graham Greene Derek Walcott Guimar es Rosa J M Coetzee Andr Brink and Assia

Djebar to less known but certainly not lesser authors like Gioconda Belli Ren Depestre Amadou Kon Elisa Chimenti Sapho Arthur Nortje Es kia Mphahlele Mark Behr Viktor Paskov Evelyn Wilwert and Le la Houari Issues addressed include the role of travel writing in forging images of foreign lands for domestic consumption the reception and translation of Western classics in the East the impact of contemporary Chinese cinema upon both native and Western audiences and the use of Western generic novel conventions in modern Egyptian literature

Democracy at Home in South Africa Kerry Bystrom, 2016-01-26 Focusing on aesthetic figuration diverse home spaces modes of domestic life and family histories this book argues that depicting democracy as it unfolds literally at home presents a compelling portrait of the intimate and everyday aspects of change that can be overlooked by a focus on structural concerns in South Africa

The Past Coming to Roost in the Present Adrian Knapp, 2006-10-07 Since the final demise of apartheid in 1994 South Africa has undergone dramatic changes in the political social and economic sphere It is not surprising that these changes have also resulted in contentious reassessments of recent history Many contemporary South African writers have taken up the challenge and created works offering new ways of critically re imagining the country s violent past While Andr P Brink s Imaginations of Sand and Zakes Mda s Ways of Dying constitute renegotiations of the past during the period of transition J M Coetzee s Disgrace and Phaswane Mpe s Welcome to our Hillbrow represent deliberations of a past that has been hampered in its change by a flawed transition Just as history can never be taken at face value and never constitutes a finite all inclusive narration of the past the historical accounts provided in these texts often present a one sided picture of history when considered only on their representational level On the metafictional level however these texts often put such misreadings into perspective and in doing so open up an otherwise monochrome reflection of South Africa s rainbow

Reinventing Africa Annie E. Coombes, 1994-01-01 Between 1890 and 1918 British colonial expansion in Africa led to the removal of many African artifacts that were subsequently brought to Britain and displayed Annie Coombes argues that this activity had profound repercussions for the construction of a national identity within Britain itself the effects of which are still with us today Through a series of detailed case studies Coombes analyzes the popular and scientific knowledge of Africa which shaped a diverse public s perception of that continent the looting and display of the Benin bronzes from Nigeria ethnographic museums the mass spectacle of large scale international and missionary exhibitions and colonial exhibitions such as the Stanley and African of 1890 together with the critical reaction to such events in British national newspapers the radical and humanitarian press and the West African press Coombes argues that although endlessly reiterated racial stereotypes were disseminated through popular images of all things African this was no simple reproduction of imperial ideology There were a number of different and sometimes conflicting representations of Africa and of what it was to be African representations that varied according to political institutional and disciplinary pressures The professionalization of anthropology over this period played a crucial role in the popularization of contradictory ideas about African culture to a mass public Pioneering in its research this book offers valuable insights for art and design historians historians of imperialism and anthropology anthropologists and museologists

Revenge Versus Legality Katherine Maynard, Jarod Kearney, James Guimond, 2010-04-09 In the wake of Guantanamo Bay extraordinary renditions and secret torture centres in Eastern Europe and elsewhere Revenge versus Legality addresses the relationship between law and wild or vigilante justice between the power to enforce retribution and the desire to seek revenge Taking up a variety of narratives from the eras of Romanticism Realism Modernism and the Contemporary period and including new theories to explain the interactions that occur between legalistic courtroom justice and the vigilante variety Revenge versus Legality analyzes some of the main obstacles to justice ranging from judicial corruption to racism and imperialism The book culminates in a consideration of that form of crime or lawlessness that poses the most serious threat to the rule of law vigilante justice masquerading as legality With its mixture of politics literature law and film this lively and accessible book offers a timely reflection on the enduring phenomenon of revenge The Reinvention of Australasian

Biogeography Malte C. Ebach, 2017 The story of the evolution of biogeographical practice in Australasia Reinventing Theology in Post-Genocide Rwanda Marcel Uwineza, Elisée Rutagambwa, Michel Segatagara Kamanzi, 2023 In the year 2019 Rwanda marked twenty five years after the genocide against the Tutsi Sadly Catholic priests and nuns were complicit or even participated in the killing of an estimated 800 000 ethnic Tutsis Thousands of people were slaughtered in Catholic Churches where they took refuge For example 5000 people are estimated to have been killed at the Ntarama Catholic Church in August 1994 In March of 2017 Pope Francis issued an apology remarking that the sins and failings of the Church and its members had disfigured the face of Catholicism This statement recognized that the Catholic Church's role in the genocide has implicated the entire Church and is an invitation to reimagine the very essence of the meaning of the Church theology in its multiple dimensions the missionary enterprise the mission of the Church and the place of human dignity in the Catholic faith The task of rethinking what it means to be the Church and restoring fraternal identity as Christians in post genocide Rwanda is thus crucial if theology is to make sense again This is particularly imperative in as much as theology is compelled to reflect upon the very evils that have disfigured the Church's image and people's identity namely the evils of sin suffering the indifference of bystanders the increasing number of genocide deniers the complexity of memory the lack of credible and prophetic leadership that invites a new way of thinking about theology This book brings together bishops theologians historians and other scholars to reflect on how the Rwandan Catholic Church can restore fundamental peace and rebuild lasting reconciliation Reinventing the World Bank Jonathan R. Pincus, Jeffrey A. Winters, 2018-08-06 Largely ignored for decades the World Bank increasingly finds itself at the center of an international political maelstrom Attacked by the Right as the last bastion of socialism and by the Left as an instrument of economic imperialism the Bank has struggled to adapt to a changing post Cold War era Still the world's leading development institution in terms of size and influence the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development's failure to articulate and implement a convincing strategy to reduce world poverty has left it vulnerable to the charge that at least in its present form it has outlived its usefulness In a book neither funded nor controlled by its subject leading North American and British scholars critically examine the World Bank They contend that an institution that has grown to unmanageable proportions through internally driven change cannot realistically be expected to effect its own reform program All the Bank's previous attempts at self redesign have failed and the contributors argue it is beyond reform it must be reinvented Reinvention involves a thoroughgoing and externally controlled process of transformation starting from basic principles and encompassing three closely related dimensions operations or the fit between the Bank's lending program and its development objectives concepts its vision of development and anti poverty strategy and power which includes the Bank's relationships with member countries and the wider public as well as structures of internal governance and accountability

Reinventing Anglicanism Bruce Norman Kaye, 2004 Anglicanism world wide faces huge problems in the post Empire era Churches that were originally founded as colonial and missionary outposts by Great Britain and the United States have now become autonomous Anglican provinces and what used to be a predominantly white Anglo Saxon group of churches in the northern hemisphere has become a truly global community most of whose members live in Africa Asia Latin America and the Pacific Using the experience of the Anglican Church in Australia Bruce Kaye tracks the modern story of Australian Anglicanism and reconsiders key elements of the New Testament the English Reformation and the ongoing theological tradition that relate to this story

The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study

What Is Ailing Africa? — Practical Philosophy in Reinventing Africa Stephen Onyango Ouma, 2024-06-11 Not only does this book detail the colonial experiences in Africa through what the author refers to as a social construct it also vehemently criticises modern African governments for their current corruption and maintenance of the continent's situation This book presents a two pronged analysis of Africa's predicament by looking at the duality of ethics and identity It tries to trace the problematic aspects of westernization and modernization within the contexts of neo colonialism and continued exploitation of Africa by external forces as well as the complicity of Africans themselves
