Simmons,Brian Sorrells,2016 At the heart of Christian ethics is the biblical commandment to love God and to love one's neighbor as oneself But what is the meaning of love Scholars have wrestled with this question since the recording of the Christian gospels and in recent decades teachers and students of Christian ethics have engaged in vigorous debates about appropriate interpretations and implications of this critical norm In Love and Christian Ethics nearly two dozen leading experts analyze and assess the meaning of love from a wide range of perspectives Chapters are organized into three areas influential sources and exponents of Western Christian thought about the ethical significance of love perennial theoretical questions attending that consideration and the implications of Christian love for important social realities Contributors bring a richness of thought and experience to deliver unprecedentedly broad and rigorous analysis of this central tenet of Christian ethics and faith William Werpehowski provides an afterword on future trajectories for this research Love and Christian Ethics is sure to become a benchmark resource in the field Relational Christianity Wesley M. Pinkham,2022-06-21 This work begins with a transformative idea human existence is fundamentally relational Relational Christianity explores how the nature of the Trinity must define the Church and the Christian spiritual life Utilizing Scripture Christian spiritual tradition and philosophy Pinkham and Gruenberg paint the picture of a Trinitarian Jesus centered Christianity led by the Father and explored in interpersonal oneness In this view God's intimate unifying love is the theological river that runs through the landscape of biblical revelation and through God's movement in history This work of Trinitarian practical theology suggests that the relation between Father Son and Spirit should shape and guide all Christian interactions with God with others and with self In the paradigm of relational Christianity the formation of genuine personhood and identity are based upon relational connections first with the Trinity and second with God's family The shape of the new covenant community must reflect the Father's nature Church culture must prioritize relationship in the same way the Trinity does The Laws of Life James Shane,2002-10 The Last Great Revival Steve Meeks,1994-12 Choosing God's Best Dr. Don Raunika,2013-01-23 Make a God Choice Not Just a Good Choice Many Christian singles today are in pain Wounded from past relationships overwhelmed at being single longer than they expected devastated at finding themselves single again Eighteen to sixty year olds will welcome the timely biblically based approach Dr Raunika offers as he encourages them along the path to Choosing God's Best healing from the past learning how to avoid the pain of counterfeit oneness physically emotionally and spiritually and much more This attractive repackaged edition delves into the real issues Christian singles face today and offers sound proven advice for creating deeply satisfying godly relationships Who's Your Matchmaker Disillusioned by dating Tired of being let down It may be time to visit the ultimate Matchmaker No matter what your age or past it's never too late to trust God and choose His best for your future Dr Don Raunika delves into the real issues to offer proven biblical principles for

The Acting Person and Christian Moral Life Darlene Fozard Weaver, 2011-11-18 What may we say about the significance of particular moral actions for one's relationship with God In this provocative analysis of contemporary Catholic moral theology Darlene Fozard Weaver shows the person as a moral agent acting in relation to God Using an overarching theological context of sinful estrangement from and gracious reconciliation in God Weaver shows how individuals negotiate their relationships with God in and through their involvement with others and the world Much of current Christian ethics focuses more on persons and their virtues and vices exemplified by the work of virtue ethicists or on sinful social structures illustrated in the work of liberation theologians These judgments fail to appreciate the reflexive character of human action and neglect the way our actions negotiate our response to God Weaver develops a theologically robust moral anthropology that advances Christian understanding of persons and moral actions and contends we can better understand the theological import of moral actions by seeing ourselves as creatures who live move and have our being in God Purpose Unlocked:

Transformative Religious Experience Joshua Iyadurai, 2015-04-30 What makes a priest of one religion become a preacher of another religion How could a person embrace a religion suddenly that he or she had up to then opposed Why would young women risk their reputation and endanger their lives for the sake of newfound faith How could an alcoholic detest a sip of wine all of a sudden What drives an atheist to become an ardent worshiper of God How could an intelligent person relate to God as to an adult human being Transformative Religious Experience answers these questions with fascinating narratives of conversion These narratives together show how the transforming effects of conversion permeate the daily lives of converts in a multireligious context Joshua Iyadurai analyzes psychologically the mystical turning point in the conversion process and finds that the divine human encounter entails a cognitive restructuring a new set of beliefs values and desires replaces previously held religious beliefs values and desires By drawing insights from the fields of psychology sociology anthropology and theology Iyadurai develops an interdisciplinary step model from a phenomenological perspective to explain the conversion process that incorporates the religious practices and social psychological factors while giving a central place to religious experience
