Gender Differences and the Making of Liturgical History Teresa Berger, 2020-03-26 Mapping uncharted territory in the study of liturgy's past this book offers a history to contemporary questions around gender and liturgical life Teresa Berger looks at liturgy's past through the lens of gender history understood as attending not only to the historically prominent binary of men and women but to all gender identities including intersexed persons ascetic virgins eunuchs and priestly men Demonstrating what a gender attentive inquiry is able to achieve Berger explores both traditional fundamentals such as liturgical space and eucharistic practice and also new ways of studying the past for example by asking about the developing link between liturgical presiding and priestly masculinity Drawing on historical case studies and focusing particularly on the early centuries of Christian worship this book ultimately aims at the present by lifting a veil on liturgy's past to allow for a richly diverse notion of gender differences as these continue to shape liturgical life Early Christian Families in Context David L. Balch, Carolyn Osiek, 2003 Typical studies of marriage and family in the early Christian period focus on very limited evidence found in Scripture This interdisciplinary book offers a broader richer picture of the first Christian families by drawing together research by experts ranging from archaeologists to ancient historians By exploring the nature of households in the ancient Greco Roman world the contributors assemble a new understanding of ancient Christian families that is both compelling and instructive Divided into six parts the book covers key aspects of ancient family life from meals and child rearing to women's roles and the lives of slaves Three concluding chapters explore the implications of all this information for theological education today Contributors David L Balch Suzanne Dixon J Albert Harrill Ross S Kraemer Christian Laes Peter Lampe Amy Jill Levine Margaret Y MacDonald Dale Martin Eric M Meyers Margaret M Mitchell Carolyn Osiek Beryl Rawson Richard Saller Timothy F Sedgwick Monika Trummer Andrew Wallace Hadrill

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Religions of Late Antiquity in Practice Richard Valantasis, 2000 This is an unprecedented collection of nearly seventy Late Antique primary religious texts These texts all in new English translation and many appearing in English for the first time represent every major religious current from the late first century until the rise of Islam Produced through the efforts of thirty six leading scholars in the field they constitute a comprehensive view of religious practice in Late Antiquity Religious life and performance during this period comprised diverse often unusual practices Philosophical ascent magic legal pronouncement hymnography dietary and sexual restriction and rhetoric were all part of this deeply fascinating world Religious and political identity often intertwined as reflected in the Roman persecution of Christians And a fluid boundary between religion and superstition was contested in daily life Many practices including ascetic training crossed religious boundaries Others such as incubation at specific temples and certain divination rites were distinctive practices of individual groups and orders Intrinsically interesting the practice of religion in the Late Antique also edifies modern day religious life As this volume shows the origins of the contemporary Western religious terrain can be gleaned in this period Rabbinic Judaism flourished and spread Christianity developed still important theological categories and structures And even movements that did not survive intact such as Neoplatonism and the once powerful Manichaeian churches continue to influence religion today This rich sourcebook includes discussions of asceticism religious organization ritual martyrdom religion s social implications law and theology Its unique emphasis on practice and its inclusion of texts translated from lesser known languages advance the study of religious history in several directions A strong interdisciplinary orientation will reward scholars and students of religion theology gender studies classical literatures and history Each text is accompanied by an introduction and a bibliography for further reading and research making the book appropriate for use in any university or seminary classroom The Journal of Ecclesiastical History Clifford William Dugmore,2002

Rabbinic Body Language: Non-Verbal Communication in Palestinian Rabbinic Literature of Late Antiquity Catherine Hezser, 2017-01-16 This study constitutes the first comprehensive examination of rabbinic body language represented in Palestinian rabbinic sources of late antiquity Catherine Hezser examines rabbis appearance and demeanor spatial movement gestures and facial expressions on the basis of literary and social anthropological methods and theories She discusses the various forms of rabbis non verbal communication in the context of Graeco Roman and ancient Christian literary sources and in connection with the material culture of Roman and early Byzantine Palestine Catherine Hezser convincingly shows that in rabbinic literature body language serves as an important means of rabbis self fashioning Rabbinic texts create the image of a particularly Jewish type of intellectual who functioned and competed for adherents within the highly visual and body conscious environment of late antiquity

Jewish Women Katharina Galor, 2023-12-15 Jewish Women Between Conformity and Agency examines the concepts of gender and sexuality through the primary lens of visual and material culture from antiquity through to the present day The backbone of this transhistorical and transcontextual study is the question of Jewish women s agency in four different geographical chronological and methodological contexts beginning with women s dress codes in Roman Byzantine Syro Palestine continuing with rituals of purity in medieval Ashkenaz worship in papal Avignon and the Comtat Venaissin and ending with marriage and divorce in Israeli film Each of these explorations is interested in creating a dialogue between the patriarchal legacy of the traditional texts and the chronologically corresponding visual and material culture The author challenges traditional approaches to the study of Jewish culture by employing tools from art history archaeology and film and media studies In each of these different contexts there is ample evidence that women despite persistent overall structural discrimination have found ways to challenge male constructs of gender norms Ultimately these examples from past and present times highlight women s eminence in shaping Jewish history and culture Bringing a new interdisciplinary lens to the study of the history of gender and sexuality the book will be of interest to students and researchers of Jewish history and culture art history archaeology and film studies
