Sport and the Shaping of Italian-American Identity Gerald R. Gems, 2013-12-16 Gems traces the experience of the Italian immigrant and illustrates the ways in which sports helped Italian Americans adapt to a new culture assert pride in an ethnic identity and even achieve social advancement Employing historical sociological and anthropological studies Gems explores how sports were instrumental in helping notions of identity evolve from the individual to the community from the racial to the ethnic In doing so Sport and the Shaping of Italian American Identity transcends the study of a particular ethnic group to speak to foundational values and characteristics of the American ethos Remembering Annie Hall Jonathan Ellis, Ana María Sánchez-Arce, 2023-08-24 Since its release Annie Hall has established itself as a key film for Woody Allen's career and the history of romantic comedy more generally. At the 1978 Academy Awards it won Oscars for Best Film, Best Director, Best Screenplay and Best Actress and is regularly cited as one of the greatest film comedies ever released, credited with influencing directors such as Wes Anderson, Noah Baumbach, Richard Linklater, Greta Gerwig and Desiree Akhavan. This lively collection brings a new ethical and philosophical perspective to bear on Allen's work quite different from previous generations of scholars. At the same time as exploring the film's continuing influence on contemporary cinema, this book's contributors engage explicitly and implicitly with ongoing debates about Allen's cinematic output following the renewal of accusations against Allen by his adopted daughter Dylan Farrow in 2014 and 2018. The book is alive to debates within film studies about the limits of auteur theory and the role of the spectator. Remembering Youngstown Mark C. Peyko, 2009-05-01 With stories of inventors, movie moguls, local cuisine and sports heroes, Editor Mark C. Peyko and the writers of the Metro Monthly not only chronicle the history of Youngstown but also capture the essence of their home. The blows of hammers and the humming of mills once echoed throughout the Mahoning Valley. Steel reigned supreme and immigrants from every corner of Europe came to forge new lives and an enduring community. When the sounds of industry were silenced, Youngstown remained a strong and vibrant community. Peyko and company create a portrait of their city through a beautifully rendered collection of vignettes. The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini, people captivate people. A.E.'s Biography best-selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre. But where does one begin? Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10,000 biographical works, including books of fact and fiction, biographies for young readers, and documentaries and movies, all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures, from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians. Each entry includes a brief profile, autobiographical and primary sources, and recommended works. Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title, helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals. Mind, Language and Action Danièle Moyal-Sharrock, Volker Munz, Annalisa Coliva, 2015-03-10 The volume takes on the much-needed task of describing and explaining the nature of the relations and interactions between mind, language, and action in defining mentality. Papers by renowned philosophers unravel what is increasingly acknowledged to be the enacted nature of the mind, memory, and language acquisition whilst also calling attention to Wittgenstein's contribution. The volume offers unprecedented insight, clarity, scope, and currency. Sinatra's Tailor Mark A. Thompson, 2024-11-05 A captivating account of an Italian immigrant's journey from World War II orphan in Italy to celebrity tailor for Hollywood's finest. Italian America magazine of the Sons and Daughters of Italy. With Italy ruptured by conflict during the Second World War, a young boy is sent off without explanation to a Roman Catholic orphanage by his beloved grandfather Umberto Autore would not return to his family home for many years What follows is a remarkable story of how Umberto survived a childhood raised by nuns and Nazis and went on to become a sought after celebrity clothier in Los Angeles courting the tastes of such Hollywood luminaries as Frank Sinatra and the Rat Pack Steven Spielberg and many others Heartwarming harrowing and often humorous Umberto's account of his reunion with his family and his journey to the shores of America where he found success beyond his wildest imaginings is a moving and unforgettable tale of the triumph of the human spirit over adversity and an inspiring account of the American immigrant experience

A Living Systems Theory of Vocational Behavior and Development Fred W. Vondracek, Donald H. Ford, Erik J. Porfeli, 2014-07-03 The Living Systems Theory of Vocational Behavior and Development LSVD explains and illustrates the processes by which individuals construct their work experiences vocational pathways and career patterns through episodes of interaction with affordances they recognize within their contexts and how counseling can facilitate those processes The LSVD was created by combining the scientifically based systems theory that explicates the dynamics of all aspects of human functioning and development called Humans as Self Constructing Living Systems with important ideas about vocational behavior and development The resulting integrative theory represents the individual person as a dynamic self directing and self constructing entity i e a living system Behavior Episodes BEs are the fundamental person in context dynamic units of analysis that serve as the building blocks by which individuals construct and retain their experiences in patterns that can be reactivated to facilitate future BEs The book describes how individuals history of satisfying BEs and their current activities provide the means by which vocational and career counselors can assist them to create satisfying vocational pathways It also describes for researchers how new non linear person centered quantitative and qualitative research methods can be used to analyze BE patterns to advance understanding of person level processes that play key roles in individuals vocational behavior and development The LSVD was designed to be not just an integrative framework for the field of career development but also to reconnect the field to related areas such as human resources and industrial organizational psychology and to the range of human sciences that have already embraced a living systems theoretical model
