Frontier Cowboys and the Great Divide

Ken Mather, 2013-04-15 Despite being neighbouring provinces with long ranching histories British Columbia and Alberta saw their ranching techniques develop quite differently As most ranching styles were based on one of the two dominant styles in use south of the border BC ranchers tended to adopt the California style whereas Alberta took its lead from Texas But the different practices actually go back much further Cattle cultures in southwestern Spain sub Saharan Africa and the British highlands all shaped the basis of North American ranching Digging deep into the origins of cowboy culture Ken Mather tells the stories of men and women on the ranching frontiers of British Columbia and Alberta and reveals little known details that help us understand the beginnings of ranching in these two provinces
