Marx, Marxism and the Spiritual Anjan Chakrabarti, Anup Dhar, Serap A. Kayatekin, 2020-09-10 While Marxian theory has produced a sound and rigorous critique of capitalism has it faltered in its own practice of social transformation Has it faltered because of the Marxian insistence on the hyper secularization of political cultures The history of religions with the exception of some spiritual traditions has not been any less heartless and soulless This book sets up a much needed dialogue between a rethought Marxian praxis of the political and a rethought experience of spirituality Such rethinking within Marxism and spirituality and a resetting of their lost relationship is perhaps the only hope for a non violent future of both the Marxian reconstruction of the self and the social as also faith based life practices Building on past work in critical theory this book offers a new take on the relationship between a rethought Marxism and a rethought spirituality rethought in the life philosophy and works of Christian thinkers anti Christian thinkers Marxian thinkers those critical of Marxist Statecraft Dalit neo Buddhist thinkers thinkers drawing from Judaism as well as thinkers drawing critically from Christianity Contrary to popular belief this book does not see spirituality as a derivative of only religion This book also sees spirituality as what Marx designated the sigh of the oppressed against both social and religious orthodoxy In that sense spirituality is not just a displaced form of religion it is a displaced form of the political too

This book therefore sets up the much needed dialogue between the Marxian political and the spiritual traditions The chapters in this book were originally published in Rethinking Marxism A Journal of Economics Culture and Society Overtly Muslim, Covertly Boni Mark R.J. Faulkner,2006-05-01 This volume explores the way of life of the Boni community a hunter gatherer people that straddle the Kenya Somali border in East Africa The Boni converted to Islam some fifty years ago and the reasons for this both internal and external to the community are identified The book argues that former indigenous religious activity far from having died out is now being renegotiated so as to reflect an evolving Boni self identity in a multi ethnic setting as well as allowing the fermentation of resistance in the face of attempts at cultural hegemony advanced by outside forces Employing a phenomenological approach and a methodology based on participant observation this volume identifies three contrasting spheres of religious activity the bush the village centre and individual homesteads

Intercultural Theology Mark J. Cartledge,David Cheetham,2010-11-01 A groundbreaking and trendsetting collection of essays introducing a new interdisciplinary area of theological studies Usable as a key text for modules in intercultural theology mission studies Black Theology and Pentecostal Studies at upper undergraduate and M level The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume Rethinking Gramsci Marcus
