School Discipline Guidebook Frank A. Johns, Robert H. MacNaughton, Nancy G. Karabinus, 1989 The Palgrave International Handbook of School Discipline, Surveillance, and Social Control Jo Deakin, Emmeline Taylor, Aaron Kupchik, 2018-06-07 Truly international in scope this Handbook focuses on approaches to discipline surveillance and social control from around the world critically examining the strategies and practices schools employ to monitor students and control their behavior Bringing together leading scholars from a range of disciplinary backgrounds the chapters scrutinize analyze and compare schools practices across the globe providing a critical review of existing evidence debates and understandings while looking forward to address emerging important questions and key policy issues The chapters are divided into four sections Part 1 offers accounts of international trends in school discipline surveillance and punishment Part 2 examines the merging of school strategies with criminal justice practices Part 3 focuses on developments in school technological surveillance and Part 4 concludes by discussing restorative and balanced approaches to school discipline and behavior management As the first Handbook to draw together these multiple themes into one text and the first international comparative collection on school discipline surveillance and social control it will appeal to scholars across a range of fields including sociology education criminology critical security studies and psychology providing a unique timely and indispensable resource for undergraduate educators and researchers Classroom Management Ming-tak Hue, Wai-shing Li, 2008-01-01 Deals with management of student conduct in the classroom which is the number one area of concern for many teachers This book includes discussions and real life cases with reference to the influence of Chinese culture on Hong Kong classrooms It covers topics such as managing behaviour establishing classroom rules and conveying authority Learning Diversity in the Chinese Classroom Shane N. Phillipson, 2007-10-01 A unique feature of Learning Diversity in the Chinese Classroom is its Chinese context for meeting the educational requirements of children with special needs At a time when many of the currently available texts in the area have a general perspective Asian teachers and students have long felt the need for a text that specifically recognizes the local context Learning Diversity in the Chinese Classroom notes that international trends including those in many Southeast Asian countries are moving toward inclusive education and special needs and includes chapters on giftedness counseling and behavior management Section 1 of the book describes the context of inclusive education in Asia Summaries of the special features of the classroom in the region the conceptions of inclusion and cultural diversity from the perspective of the Asian classroom and how these are different to the Western classroom are provided Section 2 focuses on various approaches to meeting the educational and socio emotional needs of children in the inclusive classroom The first part is concerned with theoretical underpinnings of the type of need and the second part describes examples of how a teacher can cater for this type of diversity according to subject including mathematics Chinese English information technology and arts Section 3 widens the perspective and describes a whole school approach to meeting

the educational requirements of children with special needs A systems approach is taken whereby the success of the inclusive school is dependent on the functioning of a number of interrelated parts This section draws from recent case studies which describe the approaches taken by a number of schools that have been successful in implementing inclusive education Learning Diversity in the Chinese Classroom will appeal to teachers parents health professionals who are working with children with special educational needs IJER Vol 16-N4 International Journal of Educational Reform,2008-06-04 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world
