What Works in School Leadership? Linet Arthur, Debra McGregor, 2024-10-31 The key purpose of school leadership is to improve learning What Works in School Leadership examines research evidence and leadership models that focus on learning and provides resources that will help readers to understand their school's culture and develop strategies to change and improve their schools It introduces and explains contemporary research leadership theories and real world examples to identify what works and doesn't work in school leadership Recognising that leadership occurs at all levels in schools this book addresses factors that underpin successful distributed middle and team leadership Chapters identify how leaders can effectively recruit retain and motivate their staff as well as the ways in which professional development can be supported Key aspects of inclusive leadership that address diversity and equity are also considered in depth Each school is unique and there is no magic formula that will guarantee instant results in every school with this in mind What Works in School Leadership provides readers with a range of research evidence and resources to enable them to select strategies that will create a positive learning environment for staff and pupils at their own school This is essential reading for school leaders those aspiring to leadership and anyone studying or researching school leadership

Unmasking School Leadership Ciaran Sugrue, 2014-10-06 This book is a longitudinal life history of the lives and work of primary school principals in Ireland It provides a unique opportunity to peer inside the realities of leading schools in changing times In a system that until recently did not prepare principals for the onerous roles and responsibilities a small system with limited mobility inter personal relationships emerge as critical frequently privileged over professional relationships Consequently principals struggle to bring about change to build trust in order to cultivate a transformative leadership agenda while several aspects of systemic structures and processes emerge as constraints on leadership capacity building In the absence of comprehensive leadership portfolio development classroom teachers catapulted into the principal's office tend to be cautious and careful in ways that tend to perpetuate the status quo while putting a premium on the exercise of soft power and an over reliance on the good will of colleagues Several of the leadership lessons that emerge from this in depth analysis concur with an increasing international consensus that due to complexity and increasingly performative policy demands learning about leadership for all is an absolute necessity However care must be taken to avoid overly scripted programmes Critical to the cultivation of a professionally responsible leadership disposition rather than capitulation to technologies of control is professional renewal cultivated through adequate attention to the Zone of Proximal Distance
