Schooling Without Labels:

Schooling Without Labels Douglas Biklen, 2010 How people who have been labeled disabled might become full participants in different areas of society Schooling Without Labels Douglas Biklen, 1992 Learning Without Labels: Improving Outcomes for Vulnerable Pupils Marc Rowland, 2017-03-17 If we are to improve outcomes one of the things we need to do is move away from the notion of labelling children and their families Rather we need to focus on the needs of such pupils never forgetting their greatest need is relentlessly high expectations and great teaching As fragmentation of LAs continues the need for authoritative evidence based guidance and signposting has grown This book does not provide an exhaustive list of all the challenges that might arise but it has a good go Including chapters by Simon Knight Loic Menzies Bernard Trafford Jarlath O'Brien Mary Myatt David Bartram David Weston and many others

CREATING AN INCLUSIVE SCHOOL MANGAL, S. K., MANGAL, SHUBHRA, 2019-07-01 With the proclamation of human rights and impact of the philosophy of humanism there has been a worldwide call for providing humane treatment to the disabled and putting an end to their isolation Written in the same context the book developed as per the issued directives of NCTE equips its readers with the knowledge understanding skills interests and attitude needed for working in the inclusive schools It acquaints them with all the essentials related to the nature of the different types of disabilities or impairments diversities and exceptionalities of the children belonging to an inclusive school the need and means of introducing the required adaptations in the environmental conditions curriculum teaching learning strategies teaching learning aids and equipment methods of assessing the progress of the diverse children and likewise so many other things and requirements for fulfilling their responsibilities towards the diverse children in the inclusive set up of the school It is primarily designed for the students of secondary and elementary teacher education B Ed B El Ed D Ed of the teacher training institutes KEY FEATURES Full coverage of the current syllabi prescribed for B Ed B El Ed and D Ed in a user friendly language Comprehensive description of the various aspects of inclusive education and children with special needs CWSN such as historical perspectives to disability and inclusive education needed pedagogical and assessment approaches for CWSN educational provisions for the disabled at national and international levels and so forth Inclusion of recent topics such as learning styles in the context of different types of disabilities and CWSN forms of exclusions on various grounds including disabilities in Indian education approaches and models of inclusion individual education programme assistive and adaptive technologies and so on Comprises chapter end summary for quick glance of the concepts TARGET AUDIENCE B Ed B El Ed D Ed Removing Labels, Grades K-12 Dominique Smith, Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, 2021-01-19 Disrupting the cycle starts with you No matter how conscientious we are we carry implicit bias which quickly turns into assumptions and then labels Labels define our interactions with and expectations of students Labels contribute to student identity and agency And labels can have a negative effect beyond the classroom It is crucial then that teachers remove labels and focus on students strengths

but this takes real work at an individual classroom and schoolwide scale Removing Labels urges you to take an active approach toward disrupting the negative effects of labels and assumptions that interfere with student learning This book offers 40 practical replicable teaching techniques all based in research and best practice that focus on building relationships restructuring classroom engagement and management and understanding the power of social and emotional learning Suggestions for actions on an individual classroom and schoolwide level Ready to go tools and student facing printables to use in planning and instruction Removing Labels is more than a collection of teaching strategies it s a commitment to providing truly responsive education that serves all children When you and your colleagues take action to prevent negative labels from taking hold the whole community benefits

Revitalizing Special Education James M. Kauffman,2022-09-26 Revitalizing Special Education presents neither a pessimistic nor a Pollyannish view of past or future but rather is a careful assessment of some of the greatest threats to robust special education posed by distorted and misguided thinking about what special education is and does

Leading for Social Justice Elise M. Frattura,Colleen A. Capper,2007-04-18 A step by step process for raising the achievement of English language learners and students with special needs and for integrating schoolwide change through proactive support services that benefit all students

Clinical Simulations as Signature Pedagogy Benjamin Dotger,Kelly Chandler-Olcott,2022-08-18 Clinical Simulations as Signature Pedagogy explores the use of live actor simulations as an engaging training tool to better prepare educational professionals for school wide challenges In this volume editors Benjamin

H Dotger and Kelly Chandler Olcott present a persuasive overview of this effective method of professional development and show how it resonates with other practice based initiatives Through original case studies the book s contributors demonstrate how live actor simulations serve as valuable assets in the training of teachers school counselors and school leaders They show how simulations provide a safe shared learning environment that closely approximates authentic problems of practice while reducing the complexity of the instructional context in manageable ways The contributors point out how the method standardizes training ensuring that all candidates have comparable opportunities to practice and master key skills and habits of mind among other advantages Each case study showcases a distinct way in which educational simulations have been used to address common issues confronting educators such as educational equity community building and cultural responsiveness In addition the cases highlight subject specific concerns from fostering inclusivity in physical education to presenting differing approaches to mathematical problems for which live actor simulations provide a dynamic learning context Ultimately this book illustrates why clinical simulations have emerged as a powerful pedagogical tool that holds promise for the professional preparation and continuing education of educators counselors and school leaders

Artiles, 2019-09-30 This handbook examines policy and practice from around the world with respect to broadly conceived notions of inclusion and diversity within education It sets out to provide a critical and comprehensive overview of current thinking and debate around aspects such as inclusive education rights philosophy context policy systems and practices for a global audience This makes it an ideal text for researchers and those involved in policy making as well as those teaching in classrooms today Chapters are separated across three key parts Part I Conceptualizations and Possibilities of Inclusion and Diversity in Education Part II Inclusion and Diversity in Educational Practices Policies and Systems Part III Inclusion and Diversity in Global and Local Educational Contexts

The Space and Power of Young People's Social Relationships Louise Holt, 2024-03-14 The book examines the power of young people s social relationships in schools to transform or more often to continue differences that pervade societies mind body emotional differences or Special Educational Needs and Disability gender poverty race ethnicity sexuality and their intersections The book details extensive qualitative research with young people foregrounding their accounts In challenging educators and others to engage with young people s own agencies and to make space for their socialities the concepts of embodied social and emotional capital and young people as contextual bodies subjectivities agencies are developed emphasising both young people s agencies and how these are socio spatially situated constrained and enabled The book is most concerned with how and when young people challenge and change enduring differences The concept of immersive geographies outlines the potential of change inherent in the repeated coming together of the same people in space doing similar things that are however always provisional and always with the potential to be done differently Examples of when difference is transformed are presented The book marks a major interdisciplinary contribution to geographies and social studies of children youth and education child development social work social policy and education studies Furthermore it is of appeal to anyone interested in young people social reproduction and sociality from educators policy makers youth workers and social workers to parents Excellence Gaps in Education Jonathan A. Plucker, Scott J. Peters, 2020-01-15 2017 Texas Association for Gifted and Talented Legacy Scholar Book Award 2017 National Association of Gifted Children Scholar Book of the Year Award In Excellence Gaps in Education Jonathan A. Plucker and Scott J. Peters shine a spotlight on excellence gaps the achievement gaps among subgroups of students performing at the highest levels of achievement Much of the focus of recent education reform has been on closing gaps in achievement between students from different racial ethnic or socioeconomic backgrounds by bringing all students up to minimum levels of proficiency Yet issues related to excellence gaps have been largely absent from discussions about how to improve our schools and communities Plucker and Peters argue that these significant gaps reflect the existence of a persistent talent underclass in the United States among African American Hispanic Native American and poor students resulting in an incalculable loss of potential among our fastest growing populations Drawing on the latest research and a wide range of national and international data the authors outline the scope of the problem and make the case that excellence gaps should be targeted for elimination They identify promising interventions for talent development already underway in schools and provide a detailed review of potential strategies including universal screening flexible grouping targeted programs and psychosocial interventions Excellence Gaps in Education has the potential for changing our national conversation about equity and excellence and bringing fresh attention to the needs of high potential students from underrepresented backgrounds
