Sunday June 4 A calm and beautiful day. The account of this typical Sunday would run as follows: Breakfast. A half hour or so selecting hymns and preparing for Service whilst the hut is being cleared up. The Service: a hymn, Morning prayer, to the Psalms, another hymn, prayers, Communion Service, and Litany, a final hymn, and our special prayer. Wilson strikes the note on which the hymn is to start and I try to hit it after with doubtful success. After church the men go out with their ponies.
