Beyond Foundations Thomas J. Grites, Marsha A. Miller, Julie Givans Voler, 2016-08-30 Sharpen advising expertise by exploring critical issues affecting the field Beyond Foundations a core resource for experienced academic advisors gives practitioners insight into important issues affecting academic advising In addition to gaining understanding of foundational concepts and pressing concerns master advisors engage with case studies to clarify their roles as educators of students as thought leaders in institutions and as advocates for the profession Pillar documents the NACADA Core Values NACADA Concept of Academic Advising and CAS Standards serve as sources of both information and inspiration for those seeking to improve advising New strategies inform advisors helping a diverse student population delineate meaningful educational goals Each chapter prompts productive discussions with fellow advisors interested in cultivating advising excellence To promote advisor influence in higher education experienced contributors explain new trends including the impact of external forces and legal issues on postsecondary institutions and the evolution of advising as a profession and a field of inquiry Expert insight and practical focus contribute to the development of experienced advisors Use existing resources in new ways to master advising roles and encourage student success Apply theory to advance advising practice Create and optimize professional development opportunities Establish recognition for the contributions of academic advisors to the institution and higher education Face challenges created by the changing higher education landscape Advisors must meet the expectations of students parents faculty members administrators and outside agencies all while navigating an increasingly complex range of issues presented by a student population unlike any that has come before Beyond Foundations provides the insight and clarity advisors need to help students achieve their educational goals and to advance the field Teaching in Themes Deborah Meier, Matthew Knoester, Katherine Clunis D'Andrea, 2015 How do teachers and schools create meaningful learning experiences for students with diverse skills abilities and cultures How can teachers authentically assess the learning of their students and build on their strengths and interests in ways that enrich the larger community How can schools be turned into places where everyone is learning from each other These are the big questions that guide the work of teachers at the well known Mission Hill School in Boston and that are addressed in this book Teaching in Themes will help schools incorporate a whole school theme based curriculum that engages students across grade levels K 8 The authors provide detailed descriptions of four thematic units What's Baking Learning Together About Bread and Bakeries The Impact of Nature and Play The Struggle for Justice U S History Through the Eyes of African Americans and Astronomical Inquiries Readers will see how teachers and students design emergent inquiries within the themes and create artwork music presentations and a variety of hands on learning experiences that support differentiated instruction across the curriculum Book Features Examples of whole school projects designed to create a deep sense of immersion in a curricular theme and to build a multi age learning community Details of how teachers developed rich curriculum tailored to their unique students The insights of legendary educator Deborah Meier on how whole school thematic units were used to encourage collaboration among teachers An afterword by teachers and film makers about the thinking behind their work featured in the widely viewed film series A Year at Mission Hill The schools Deborah Meier created in New York and Boston are outstanding examples of democratic education in action I will never forget the first time I visited one of Deborah's schools in East Harlem and saw the joy and curiosity on the faces of children and teachers alike I took time then to carefully describe the school's practices including its portfolio based assessment system because I believed the word needed to be spread I still do Happily this new book from Deborah and her colleagues at the Mission Hill School adds to the literature on creative and collaborative teaching and on building trusting and powerful learning communities Linda Darling Hammond Charles E Ducommun Professor of Education Stanford University Here is a book that shatters the prevailing definition of a good school as one with high test scores Teaching in Themes makes clear the often hidden fact that there are many kinds of good schools for children adults and a democratic society past and present Experienced teachers tell a fascinating story about Boston's Mission Hill School its goals curriculum classroom lessons and assessments that will knock the socks off many true believers in only one kind of a good school Larry Cuban Professor Emeritus of Education Stanford University Real student engagement is not the result of entertaining instruction it is borne from students being passionate about their own learning about becoming young experts This book gives a behind the scenes look at Mission Hill a remarkably successful public school where the quality of student thinking and student work takes precedence over test scores and where thematic learning builds powerful intellectual bridges within classrooms and across the school Ron Berger chief academic officer Expeditionary Learning Collaborations for Student Success Dallas Long,2019-08-14 Libraries are exploring new roles and new partnerships on college campuses in order to improve students experiences and enable learning outside the classroom But other than faculty members who are librarians potential partners The student affairs professionals are responsible for everything from residence halls to service learning to career exploration and make up one of the fastest growing groups in higher education they are the experts in student development and the student experience However librarians and student affairs professionals are largely unfamiliar with each other s roles in student learning By using multiple focus groups Long describes the experiences and perceptions of librarians and student affairs professionals at several four year residential colleges and universities He identifies ways librarians and student affairs professionals share common values and can approach partnerships successfully but also the barriers that result when these two groups don t fully understand each other s roles in student learning This book is the perfect road map for librarians and student affairs professionals alike who are seeking partners for campus collaborations

Teaching Literacy in Urban Schools Barbara Purdum-Cassidy, Lakia M. Scott, 2018-03-02 Today s public schools represent greater student diversity than ever before in the history of the United States yet pedagogical approaches as mandated by state education agencies and school districts superimpose mainstream curricula and instructional practices which ultimately disadvantage the academic outcomes of the majority minority African American and Hispanic Latino students Unfortunately national report findings also heighten the educational crisis that exists for Black and Brown children with regard to reading and writing achievement As a result there is need to deeply explore the relationship between Black and Brown student literacy achievement and educational policy teacher education program curriculum and assessment This book seeks to provide some practical insights guided by conceptual and contextual knowledge by understanding how to teach urban African American and Hispanic Latino students by discussing culturally appropriate instructional strategies that have demonstrated success among African American and Hispanic Latino students This book will showcase successful models for teaching literacy to urban student through a discussion of topics that include

- 1 increasing literacy achievement and motivation
- 2 multicultural literacy practices and
- 3 early and elementary literacy instruction

Virtual Mentoring for K-12 Literacy Instruction Paula Saine, 2018-10-12 There is no research based text that provides a model for teaching and learning in a virtual environment with literacy learners Therefore this book will focus on preparing challenging students to be successful independent learners for the twenty first century This will involve one where students are constructing their own meaning not only within the traditional brick and mortar environment with the assistant of the classroom teacher but also in an online environment scaffolded by a virtual tutor Today virtual environments are a common alternative space for students in K 12 to engage in meaningful online literacy learning with their tutors Boxie 2004
