Transforming British Government R. Rhodes, 2015-12-26 Examines the changing roles and relationships of the Prime Minister ministers and civil servants Edited by Rod Rhodes and written by a team of distinguished political scientists and historians these volumes provide an authoritative account of how British government has changed over the past fifty years

The Prime Minister: The Office and Its Holders Since 1945 Peter Hennessy, 2001-10-05 He illuminates often for the first time precise Prime Ministerial attitudes toward and authority over nuclear weapons policy the planning and waging of war and the secret services as well as dealing with governmental overload the Suez crisis and the Soviet threat He concludes with a controversial assessment of the relative performance of each Prime Minister since 1945 and a new specification for the premiership as it meets its fourth century BOOK JACKET Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 The Transfer of Undertakings in the Public Sector Colin Bourn, 2020-09-29 This title was first published in 2000 This volume discusses the impact of the transfer of undertakings regime upon the public sector particularly focusing on the interaction between the protection of employee rights and the restructuring and modernization of public services The crux of the book is the interaction of market led policies in the public sector such as compulsory competitive tendering best value and the PFI with the protection of employee rights on the transfer of employment It considers the evolving law on the scope of a relevant transfer under the European Acquired Rights Directive and the TUPE regulations before reviewing the present state of the law on dismissals variation of terms pensions and employee consultation in transfer related situations The book incorporates consideration of the text of the 1998 revision of the Acquired Rights Directive The Fiscal Crisis of the United

Kingdom I. McLean, 2005-04-15 The system for allocating public expenditure to the nations and regions of the UK has broken down Money goes to Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland by the notorious Barnett formula but this is collapsing and cannot last long Money goes to the English regions by poorly understood formulae that work badly People in every region think that the system is unfair to them The Fiscal Crisis of the United Kingdom suggests how the system could be fixed drawing lessons from Australia and Canada It recommends a Territorial Grants Commission The Stationery Office Annual Catalogue 1998 Stationery Office, 2000 The Stationery Office Annual Catalogue Great Britain. Conference, John McManus, 2006 Children's TV and Digital Media in the Arab World Naomi Sakr, Jeanette Steemers, 2017-03-30 Who analyses children's screen content and media use in

Arab countries and with what results Children defined internationally as under 18s account for some 40 per cent of Arab populations and the proportion of under fives is correspondingly large Yet studies of children s media and child audiences in the region are as scarce as truly popular locally produced media content aimed at children At the very time when conflict and uncertainty in key Arab countries have made local development and diversification of children s media more remote it has become more urgent to gain a better understanding of how the next generation s identities and worldviews are formed This interdisciplinary book is the first in English to probe both the state of Arab screen media for children and the practices of Arabic speaking children in producing as well as consuming screen content It responds to the gap in research by bringing together a holistic investigation of institutions and leading players children s media experiences and some iconic media texts With children s media increasingly linked to merchandising which favours US based global players and globalizing forces this volume provides a timely insight into tensions between differing concepts of childhood and desirable media messages
