Selected Canadian Spinning Wheels in Perspective Judith Buxton, 1995-06-01 Richly illustrated this book gives an inside look at the houses house fronts and poles of the Grand Hall of the Canadian Museum of Civilization This hall which was developed in cooperation with the Native peoples of the Pacific Coast presents their history and contemporary culture The Book of the Grand Hall not only explores the development of the Grand Hall and the construction and conservation work behind it but it is also a fascinating look at the cultures symbols and beliefs of the native peoples of the Pacific Coast Andrea Laforet is Chief of the Canadian Ethnology Service at the Canadian Museum of Civilization Canadian Books in Print.

Author and Title Index, 1975 History of Atlantic Canada Peter E. Rider, 1981-01-01 Authors associated with seven leading museums from Atlantic Canada have contributed chapters for this volume Each explains how history has been interpreted in his particular institution describing the themes which are stressed and outlining the reasons for adopting the interpretive approaches which are used The text and accompanying photographs provide a glimpse of the contents of the museums and place the exhibits in their operational and intellectual context Published in English Introduction to the social history of Scots in Quebec (1780-1840) Lynda Price, 1981-01-01 This volume comprises a historical study of the Scottish urban elite of Quebec between 1780 and 1840 whose educational religious philanthropic and economic institutions demonstrate a strong continuity with their homeland and resistance to cultural assimilation within the larger French Canadian society Published in English Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner, Mary F. Identifies and summarizes thousands of books article exhibition catalogues government publications and theses published in many countries and in several languages from the early nineteenth century to 1981 Québec City, 1765-1832 David T. Ruddel, 1987-01-01 This book provides a synthesis of social demographic and economic change in Quebec City during the British regime a period which saw the former French capital transformed into an English city with all the problems associated with rapidly growing urban centres Published in English Consumers in the Bush Douglas McCalla, 2015-03-01 General stores are essential to the image of a colonial village Many historians however still base their stories of settlement on the notion of rural self sufficiency begging the question if general stores were so common who were their customers To answer this Consumers in the Bush draws on the account books of country stores rich evidence that has rarely been used

Douglas McCalla considers more than 30 000 transactions on the accounts of 750 families at seven Upper Canadian stores between 1808 and 1861 These customers were typical of rural society farmers artisans labourers and often women At village stores they found a wide variety of products most imported from Britain a few from the United States and a surprising number that were produced locally Three chapters focus on the major product categories of dry goods groceries and hardware a fourth considers local products and a fifth addresses a variety of items from household goods to footwear to school books In telling us about the goods colonists bought this book explores what they were used for and the stories they allow us to tell about rural lives and experience By seeing rural Upper Canadians as consumers Consumers in the Bush reveals them as full participants in the rapidly changing nineteenth century global world of goods
