Simply Glorious The Rise Of Gloucestershire County Cricket Club:

Simply Glorious Andy Stockhausen, Bristol Evening Post, Bristol Evening Post Staff, 2001-06 Simply Glorious is the behind the scenes story of one of the most dramatic rags to riches tales in recent sporting history From the low point of Courtney Walsh's unseemly departure the author charts an astonishing renaissance reliving the joy of that Super Cup triumph and all the colour and drama of three subsequent Lord's finals Pulling no punches the author analyses the reasons behind the county's lack of Championship success and explains the steps being taken to ensure Gloucestershire once more become a force in the four day game Through a series of candid interviews with the central characters Andy Stockhausen lifts the lid on the infamous Kabir Ali episode reveals how Jack Russell drove Somerset players to distraction in the Cider Final and offers an insight into the crucial negotiations which eventually signalled the end of Courtney Walsh's glittering county career

The Boy's Own Annual, 1881 The Daffodil Blooms Andrew Hignell, Brian Halford, 2018-02-01 The third book in the Cricket Witness series is a celebration of Glamorgan winning the 1948 County Championship Not only was it their first ever title it was achieved just four years after the heartbreak of losing their inspirational captain Maurice Turnbull who was killed shortly after the Normandy invasion whilst serving King and Country Maurice had steered the county through a series of difficult seasons when defeats were more common than success and the committee was regularly contemplating a return to Minor County status Elevated into first class cricket in 1921 Glamorgan CCC were the Cinderella of the county game with opponents travelling to South Wales only booking two nights accommodation instead of the normal three given the Welsh county's dreadful form As defeat followed defeat during their first two decades Glamorgan's selection committee often found it difficult to raise a strong team as talented amateurs declined invitations to play and in 1922 they had to draft in a virtually unknown 15 year old schoolboy for what proved to be his one and only county game There were calls for the debt ridden club to wind up but to the delight of their loyal band of supporters they continued and in 1948 Wilf Wooller the former Welsh rugby international led the county to the Championship title This rags to riches tale is recounted with the use of contemporary quotes and extracts from the memoirs of the players themselves It is also lavishly illustrated with many previously unpublished images to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the club's first Championship winning season and a special moment in Welsh sporting history
