Conrad's Fiction as Critical Discourse Richard Ambrosini, 1991-07-26 Joseph Conrad s comments about his works have commonly been dismissed as theoretically unsophisticated while the critical notions of James Woolf and Joyce have come to shape our understanding of the modern novel Richard Ambrosini s study of Conrad s Fiction as Critical Discourse makes an original claim for the importance of his theoretical ideas as they are formed tested and eventually redefined in Heart of Darkness and Lord Jim Setting the narrator s discourse in these tales in the context of the dynamic interplay of Conrad s fictional with his non fictional writings and of the transformations in his narrative forms Ambrosini defines Conrad s view of fiction and the artistic ideal underlying his commitment as a writer in a new and challenging way Conrad s innovatory techniques as a novelist are shown in the continuity of his theoretical enterprise from the early search for an artistic prose and a personal novel form to the later dislocations of perspective achieved by manipulation of conventions drawn from popular fiction This reassessment of Conrad s critical thought offers a new perspective on the transition from the Victorian novel to contemporary fiction

Heart of Darkness - Ed. Peters Joseph Conrad, 2018-12-27 Heart of Darkness is based upon Joseph Conrad s own experience in the Congo it is as he remarks in his 1916 author s note to Youth A Narrative and Two Other Stories experience pushed a little and only very little beyond the actual facts Unlike many other editions this new edition of Conrad s most famous tale focuses on the time in which Conrad was himself in the Congo while also exploring the differences between his reported experiences and their reshaping in fiction This edition includes an extensive selection of Conrad s correspondence and autobiographical writing as well as contemporary accounts of the Congo from other writers Contemporary reviews situate Heart of Darkness in its literary contexts

Joseph Conrad and the Reader A. Acheraïou, 2009-10-21 Joseph Conrad and the Reader is the first book fully devoted to Conrad s relation to the reader visual theory and authorship This challenging study proposes new approaches to modern literary criticism and deftly examines the limits of deconstructionist theories introducing groundbreaking new theoretical concepts of reading and reception

Heart of Darkness (Fourth International Student Edition) (Norton Critical Editions) Joseph Conrad, 2016-04-04 The Fourth Edition is again based on Robert Kimbrough s meticulously re edited text Missing words have been restored and the entire novel has been repunctuated in accordance with Conrad s style The result is the first published version of Heart of Darkness that allows readers to hear Marlow s voice as Conrad heard it when he wrote the story Backgrounds and Contexts provides readers with a generous collection of maps and photographs that bring the Belgian Congo to life Textual materials topically arranged address nineteenth century views of imperialism and racism and include autobiographical writings by Conrad on his life in the Congo New to the Fourth Edition is an excerpt from Adam Hochschild s recent book King Leopold s Ghost as well as writings on race by Hegel Darwin and Galton Criticism includes a wealth of new materials including nine contemporary reviews and assessments of Conrad and Heart of Darkness and twelve recent essays by Chinua Achebe Peter Brooks Daphne Erdinast Vulcan Edward Said and Paul B Armstrong among others Also new to this edition is a section of writings on the connections between Heart of Darkness and the film Apocalypse Now by Louis K Greiff Margot Norris and Lynda J Dryden A Chronology and Selected Bibliography are also included Joseph Conrad and the Imperial Romance L. Dryden,1999-11-24 Linda Dryden places Almayer s Folly An Outcast of the Islands Karain and Lord Jim in the context of the nineteenth century imperial romance Through the thwarted dreams and aspirations of his central characters she argues that Conrad exposes the empty promises of such fiction and challenges assumptions about the superiority of European imperialists and the imperial venture itself Using illustrations from and references to many well known novels of Empire Dryden demonstrates how Conrad s Malay fiction alludes to the conventions and stereotypes of popular imperial fiction

Achieving Autobiographical Form Nicholas Meihuizen,2016-01-27 In Achieving Autobiographical Form Nicholas Meihuizen argues that significant autobiographies achieve significant forms peculiar to themselves alone Form he argues is not accidental or merely functional The author arrives at a form through a careful negotiation between the self s immersion in its world and its ability to distance itself from this world The quality of the resultant self scrutiny enables the author to transform everyday reflex into the act of attention that results in formal achievement a uniquely crafted structure Meihuizen s book helps demonstrate how each piece of autobiographical writing under consideration in it works by Yeats Conrad Martin Amis Frank Kermode Andrew Motion Roy Campbell Richard Murphy and J M Coetzee discovers a unique form A Traveller's Year ,2015-10-01 A collection of anecdotes for each day of the year on the subject of travel and exploration from Charles Darwin Michael Palin Evelyn Waugh and others With an emphasis on the period 1750-1950 the classic era of both European exploration and diary writing this anthology features excerpts that convey men and women s experiences of travel and discovery from the sixteenth to the early twenty first centuries The authors of the pieces range from famous explorers such as Captains Cook and Scott to modern travel writers journeying through the contemporary world from people who pushed back the boundaries of geographical knowledge to people who wrote about what they did on their summer holidays The book includes an introduction explanatory notes and mini biographies of all the contributors including Gertrude Bell woman traveller in the Middle East James Boswell travels in Scotland and the Hebrides William Cobbett Rural Rides through England Christopher Columbus journals of his voyages to America Charles Darwin Voyage of the Beagle Captain James Cook

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2007 Work, Inheritance, and Deserts in Joseph Conrad's Fiction Evelyn Tsz Yan Chan,2022-08-19 This book focuses on the complex relationships between inheritance work and desert in literature It shows how from its manifestation in the trope of material inheritance and legacy in Victorian fiction inheritance gradually took on additional more modern meanings in Joseph Conrad s fiction on work and self making In effect the emphasis on inheritance as referring to social rank and wealth acquired through birth shifted to a focus on talent ability and merit often expressed through work The book explores how Conrad s fiction engaged with these changing modes of inheritance and work and the resulting claims of desert they led to Uniquely it argues that Conrad s fiction critiques claims of desert arising from both work and inheritance while also vividly portraying the emotional costs and existential angst that these beliefs in desert entailed The argument speaks to and illuminates today s debates on moral desert arising from work and inheritance in particular from meritocratic ideals Its new approach to Conrad s works will appeal to students and scholars of Conrad and literary modernism as well as a wider audience interested in philosophical and social debates on desert deriving from inheritance and work
