Architecture in the United States, 1800-1850 William Barksdale Maynard, 2002-01-01 This study traces the development of American architecture from the age of Jefferson to the antebellum era providing a survey of this important period W Barksdale Maynard overturns the long accepted notions that the chief theme of early 19th century American architecture was a patriotic desire to escape from European influence and that competing styles chiefly reflected the American struggle for cultural uniqueness Instead deep and consistent aesthetic ties especially with England shaped American architecture and house designs Maynard shows that the Greek Revival in particular was an international phenomenon with American achievements inspired by British example and with taste taking precedence over patriotism      Colonial Revival Maine Kevin Murphy,2004-05 Colonial Revival Maine provides an account of how this interest in the classical influences of colonial and federal era buildings engaged the imagination of a group of architects and their draftsmen in the late nineteenth century Together these designers created the charming streetscapes and bucolic retreats that today dot the Maine coast      American Architecture Leland M.
