Shaping the Lotus Sutra Eugene Yuejin Wang, 2005 The Lotus Sutra has been the most widely read and most revered Buddhist scripture in East Asia since its translation in the third century The miracles and parables in the king of sutras inspired a variety of images in China in particular the sweeping compositions known as transformation tableaux that developed between the seventh and ninth centuries Surviving examples in murals painted on cave walls or carved in relief on Buddhist monuments depict celestial journeys bodily metamorphoses cycles of rebirth and the achievement of nirvana Yet the cosmos revealed in these tableaux is strikingly different from that found in the text of the sutra Shaping the Lotus Sutra explores this visual world Challenging long held assumptions about

Buddhist art Eugene Wang treats it as a window to an animated and spirited world Rather than focus on individual murals as isolated compositions Wang views the entire body of pictures adorning a cave shrine or a pagoda as a visual mapping of an imaginary topography that encompasses different temporal and spatial domains He demonstrates that the text of the Lotus Sutra does not fully explain the pictures and that a picture or a series of them constitutes its own text In exploring how religious pictures sublate cultural aspirations he shows that they can serve both political and religious agendas and that different social forces can co exist within the same visual program These pictures inspired meditative journeys through sophisticated formal devices such as mirroring mapping and spatial programming analytical categories newly identified by Wang The book examines murals in cave shrines at Binglingsi and Dunhuang in northwestern China and relief sculptures in the grottoes of Yungang in Shanxi on stelae from Sichuan and on the Dragon and Tiger pagoda in Shandong among other sites By tracing formal impulses in medieval Chinese picture making such as topographic mapping and pictorial illusionism the author pieces together a wide range of visual evidence and textual sources to reconstruct the medieval Chinese cognitive style and mental world The book is ultimately a history of the Chinese imagination Read an interview with the author <http://dgeneratefilms.com/cinemataalk/cinemataalk-interview-with-professor-eugene-wang-on-chinese-art-and-film>

The Lotus Sutra (Saddharma-Pundarika) Johan Hendrik Caspar Kern, The Lotus Sutra is considered the greatest of all Buddhist scriptures It interprets the person of Buddha as a manifestation of metaphysical entity and synthesizes the two aspect of his being his incarnation in human life and his real ontological identity It teaches salvation for all creatures reducing the Three Vehicles to One Vehicle on the principle of One is all and All is One We know nothing of its authorship or its place of origin but its first translation into Chinese is dated c 255 A D

The Lotus Sutra and Its Opening and Closing Sutras Burton Watson, 2023-08-06 The Lotus Sutra clearly and definitively reveals the buddha nature that is an integral part of the lives of all people And it makes clear that the Buddha desires and acts so that all people by opening up this buddhanature inherent within themselves may attain the state of buddhahood for themselves The sutra further stresses that the continued observance of such action is the true mission of the bodhisattva and never ceases to praise the observance of this practice
