Love A Novel Of Romance With Attitude:

An Imperialist Love Story Amira Jarmakani, 2015-07-31 A curious figure stalks the pages of a distinct subset of mass market romance novels aptly called desert romances Animalistic yet sensitive dark and attractive the desert prince or sheikh emanates manliness and raw sexual power In the years since September 11 2001 the sheikh character has steadily risen in popularity in romance novels even while depictions of Arab masculinity as backward and violent in nature have dominated the cultural landscape An Imperialist Love Story contributes to the broader conversation about the legacy of orientalist representations of Arabs in Western popular culture Combining close readings of novels discursive analysis of blogs and forums and interviews with authors Jarmakani explores popular investments in the war on terror by examining the collisions between fantasy and reality in desert romances Focusing on issues of security freedom and liberal multiculturalism she foregrounds the role that desire plays in contemporary formations of U S imperialism Drawing on transnational feminist theory and cultural studies An Imperialist Love Story offers a radical reinterpretation of the war on terror demonstrating romance to be a powerful framework for understanding how it works and how it perseveres Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum, 1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum's published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements Manly Love Axel Nissen, 2009-09-15 The modern idea of Victorians is that they were emotionless prudes imprisoned by sexual repression and suffocating social constraints they expressed love and affection only within the bounds of matrimony if at all And yet a wealth of evidence contradicting this idea has been hiding in plain sight for close to a century In Manly Love Axel Nissen turns to the novels and short stories of Victorian America to uncover the widely overlooked phenomenon of passionate friendships between men Nissen's examination of the literature of the period brings to light a forgotten genre the fiction of romantic friendship Delving into works by Mark Twain Henry James William Dean Howells and others Nissen identifies the genre's unique features and explores the connections between romantic friendships in literature and in real life Situating love between men at the heart of Victorian culture Nissen radically alters our understanding of the American literary canon And with its deep insights into the emotional and intellectual life of the period Manly Love also offers a fresh perspective on nineteenth century America s attitudes toward love friendship marriage and sex Carol Shields, Narrative Hunger, and the Possibilities of Fiction Ted Farrell,2003-01-01 Award winning Canadian writer Carol Shields has garnered praise from scholars and an international audience of readers Inspired by the quality and scope of Shields s work Carol Shields Narrative Hunger and the Possibilities of Fiction addresses her creative exploration of postmodernism As the first thorough examination of the Pulitzer Prize winning author this collection of essays establishes the groundwork for future studies of her oeuvre The collection begins with a significant new essay from Shields herself Narrative Hunger and the Overflowing Cupboard perhaps her most substantial commentary upon her own aims as a writer In addition scholars from Canada England the United States and Australia explore the complexity of Shields s work and her contributions to the genre of the novel These lively essays reflect Shields s verve and her playful approach to today s sophisticated critical thinking Among the topics are Shields s use of biography and autobiography metafiction popular romance and symbolism While the essays foreground the unreliability of language and hence our inability to know one another or even ourselves the contributors argue that Shields has taken a step beyond postmodernism by suggesting that we can transcend the limitations of its epistemology Containing several essays on Swann and The Stone Diaries Shields s most popular works and the most extensive annotated bibliography available of works by and about Shields this collection will appeal widely to scholars students and readers of Carol Shields and Canadian fiction

Transformation of Love Elif Güvendi Yalçın,2022-11-03 Romances date back to the creation of stories Although the definition of the genre has changed in time from the Ancient Greeks to the Bildungsromans to the 19th century and today s courtship novels both scholarship and widely held attitudes towards romance has remained fixedly and prioritized only the universality unoriginality and continuity of romance fiction instead of its sociocultural effect of promoting positive ideals like female empowerment The portrayal of women in social roles has been in a state of constant change including their relationship with and relation to men This book explores only medieval historical romance fictions and their changes through the course of the time I examine three medieval romances content Walter Scott s Ivanhoe 1920 Kathleen Woodowiss The Wolf and the Dove 1974 and Amanda Quick s Mystique 1995 written in different time periods based on content analysis using Anthony Giddens s 1992 theories of intimacy In addition it will address romance novels views about sex gender and love roles

The Chinese Vernacular Story Patrick Hanan,1981 Literary Activities and Attitudes in the Stanislawian Age in Poland (1764-1795) Jan IJ. van der Meer,2022-01-04 The present book for the first time links the thoughts of modern Western sociologists of literature with an overall description of the literary activities attitudes and views in late eighteenth century Poland Inspired by the studies of Bourdieu on literary fields and more particular S J Schmidt s study of the history of the rise and development of the social system literature in Germany in the eighteenth century of Schmidt 1989 the author tries to establish whether Poland witnessed the rise of a more complex and relatively autonomous literary field or as Schmidt calls it a functionally differentiated literary system in the age of the reign of King Stanislaw August Poniatowski 1764 1795 Functionally differentiated literary systems systems in which an increased number of literary agents and institutions produce sell buy and criticize literary works according to capitalist principles are the literary systems of today As most scholars believe their origins are to be found in most European nations in the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Did such a modern literary system albeit with certain limitations rise in Poland in the years of the rule of Stanislaw A Poniatowski this is the question the author of the present volume will attempt to answer This volume is of interest to theoreticians and empirical researchers approaching literature from a sociological point of view historians and of course slavists interested in eighteenth century literary developments in Poland

Laura Vivanco's study challenges the idea that Harlequin Mills Boon romances are merely mass produced commodities churned out in accordance with a strict and unchanging formula She argues that many are well written skilfully crafted works and that some are small masterpieces For Love and Money demonstrates the variety that exists beneath the covers of Harlequin Mills Boon romances They range from paranormal romances to novels resembling chick lit and many have addressed serious issues including the plight of post Second World War refugees threats to marine mammals and HIV AIDS The genre draws inspiration from Shakespearean comedies and Austen's novels as well as from other forms of popular culture Laura Vivanco's For Love and Money is an impressive study of the popular fiction of Harlequin Mills and Boon that is a must read for any student of popular fiction and for those who write and love the genre Liz Fielding author of over 50 Harlequin Mills Boon romances Deep learning wide reading and clear thinking are very much in evidence in Vivanco's exploration of HM B A welcome addition to popular romance criticism Professor Pamela Regis author of A Natural History of the Romance Novel Laura Vivanco's analysis of the category romance is both meticulous and inspiring And while Vivanco limits her examples and discussions to category romances by Harlequin Mills Boon and the HQN imprint her application of Frye's mimetic modes begs for expansion to texts and authors across the genre This piece of literary criticism should serve as a template for romance scholars to move from defending the genre to discussing its values and complexity as a literary art Maryan Wherry Journal of Popular Romance Studies
