

A man and a woman are shown in a close embrace in a dark forest at night. The woman is wearing a red dress and the man is wearing a dark shirt. There is a large plume of white smoke or mist on the left side of the image. The background is filled with tall, thin trees and a blueish light from the right.

Love Burns:

Songs Don Walker, 2019-07-01 For over forty years Don Walker's songwriting has captured what it is to be Australian. From Cold Chisel to Catfish and the Bottlemen, Don Charlie to his solo work as well as many other writing collaborations, Walker's words are poetic, moving, and incisive. Including classics such as 'The Sanh Flame Trees', 'Cheap Wine', and 'Harry was a Bad Bugger', this collection reveals the breadth of Walker's vision and the precision of his prose. These lyrics live on the page with or without the memory of music. Interspersed with autobiographical sketches and anecdotes, Songs is a must-have for fans of Walker's brilliant, razor-sharp storytelling. Includes a foreword by Jimmy Barnes. Pithy, poignant, and provocative, Don Walker is the Poet Laureate of Australian rock n' roll. Mandy Sayer. As ever, the doyen to the rest of us. Beauty, humour, and pathos coexist in his songs. Any time I try to write, the voice of The Don is in my head. You sure you wanna do that. Consistently, persistently, the master. Tim Rogers. Pithy, acerbic, dry, and deeper than a drought-ridden dam, Don's words are truly a thing of wonder. Peter Garrett. One of the great poets of the Australian experience. His lyrics speak of, and to, an Australia that is too rarely glimpsed in song, giving voice to the forgotten and dispossessed and transforming the currents of grief and love and tenderness that run through even the most ordinary of lives into something universal. James Bradley. Walker is one of our great storytellers. As much a keeper of the flame as Lawson, Carey, or White. But he cuts to the burning heart with far fewer words. John Birmingham Banished from heaven Abdullah Al Mamun, 2024-02-02 This is a poetry book by Abdullah Al Mamun. This is his debut poetry book. There are 54 poems in this book. Love's Oneing Kerrie Hide, 2022-11-08 Grounded in Christian love, mysticism, Love's Oneing gives voice to the luminous consciousness that awakens from within our oneness in God in contemplation. With great sensitivity, the book offers nuanced insight into the marriage of kenosis and desire in contemplation through the rich tapestry of writings from nine mystics: Julian of Norwich, the Cloud of Unknowing, author Meister Eckhart, Mechthild of Magdeburg, Clare of Assisi, John of the Cross, Teilhard de Chardin, Beatrice Bruteau, and Ilia Delio. With the delicate eye of a spiritual director immersed in mystical literature, Kerrie Hide situates these mystical teachings within contemplative prayer whilst offering a scholarly exploration of contemplative practice to embody the insights. Deeply grounded in traditional and contemporary mystical classics, Hide celebrates how the Christian mystical tradition lays a foundation for the evolutionary growth of communion, consciousness, and the insights of quantum science, highlighting key moments in contemplation that when surrendered into open, into divine love, born of intellectual reflection, lived experience, and contemplative wisdom, Love's Oneing makes a unique contribution to the existing literature on contemplation at a time when the recovery of the mystical dimension of life is crucial for the future of our planet in this climate crisis moment.

The Darkened Room Alex Owen, 2004-04-15 A highly original study that examines the central role played by women as mediums, healers, and believers during the golden age of spiritualism in the late Victorian era. The Darkened Room is more than a meditation on women mediums; it's an exploration of the era's gender relations. The hugely popular spiritualist movement which maintained that women were uniquely qualified to commune with spirits of the dead offered female mediums a new independence authority and potential to undermine conventional class and gender relations in the home and in society Using previously unexamined sources and an innovative approach Alex Owen invokes the Victorian world of darkened séance rooms theatrical apparitions and moving episodes of happiness lost and regained She charts the struggles between spiritualists and the medical and legal establishments over the issue of female mediumship and provides new insights into the gendered dynamics of Victorian society

Poems by the way William Morris, 1896 A Dictionary of American Proverbs

Wolfgang Mieder, 1992 Americans have a gift for coining proverbs A picture is worth a thousand words was not as you might imagine the product of ancient Chinese wisdom it was actually minted by advertising executive Fred Barnard in a 1921 advertisement for Printer's Ink magazine After all Americans are first and foremost a practical people and proverbs can be loosely defined as pithy statements that are generally accepted as true and useful The next logical step would be to gather all of this wisdom together for a truly American celebration of shrewd advice A Dictionary of American Proverbs is the first major collection of proverbs in the English language based on oral sources rather than written ones Listed alphabetically according to their most significant key word it features over 15 000 entries including uniquely American proverbs that have never before been recorded as well as thousands of traditional proverbs that have found their way into American speech from classical biblical British continental European and American literature Based on the fieldwork conducted over thirty years by the American Dialect Society this volume is complete with historical references to the earliest written sources and supplies variants and recorded geographical distribution after each proverb Many surprised await the reader in this vast treasure trove of wit and wisdom Collected here are nuggets of popular wisdom on all aspects of American life weather agriculture travel money business food neighbors friends manners government politics law health education religion music song and dance And to further enhance browsing pleasure the editors have provided a detailed guide to the use of the work While it s true that many of our best known proverbs have been supplied by the ever present Anonymous many more can be attributed to some very famous Americans like Ernest Hemingway Abraham Lincoln Benjamin Franklin Mark Twain J Pierpont Morgan Thomas Alva Edison Abigail Adams and Ralph Waldo Emerson to name but a few offered in this fascinating collection Who wouldn't want to know the origin of the opera ain't over till the fat lady sings This uniquely American proverb and many more are gathered together in A Dictionary of American Proverbs A great resource for students and scholars of literature psychology folklore linguistics anthropology and cultural history this endlessly intriguing volume is also a delightful companion for anyone with an interest in American culture

Subversive Family Ferdinand Mount, 2010-06-15 British politician and writer Ferdinand Mount challenges contemporary beliefs about society and family including the history of divorce childcare and the concept of the nuclear family In Subversive Family politician and writer Ferdinand Mount argues that society is shaped by a series of powerful revolutionary movements the leaders of which whether they be political ideologues theologians feudal lords or feminist writers have done their utmost to render the family a subordinate instrument of their purpose but that in spite of it all the family endures Mount maintains that many widely held contemporary beliefs about the family are based on a willful misreading of the evidence among the myths are that arranged marriages were the norm until this century that child care is a modern innovation that in earlier societies children were treated as expendable objects that the nuclear family is not a 20th century invention and that romantic love never existed before the troubador poets glorified adultery Divorce he contends is no great novelty either he shows that in many times and places it has been almost as easy to obtain as it is today Far from diminishing the general desire and respect for family life Mount contends that the provision for divorce has been popularly regarded as an integral part of any sensible system of family law This study should jolt the reader into a re assessment of one of the most familiar and ancient institutions and encourage greater consideration for policies today that support the family
