The Films of Woody Allen Charles L. P. Silet, 2006 From What's Up Tiger Lily to Match Point Woody Allen's work has generated substantial interest among scholars and professionals who have written extensively about the director In The Films of Woody Allen Critical Essays Charles L P Silet brings together two dozen scholarly articles that address the core of Allen's work from a variety of cultural and theoretical perspectives With a special emphasis on his films of the 1980s this collection includes both general essays that examine various themes and issues encompassed in Allen's repertoire as well as discussions that focus on one or two specific films General essays explore Allen's Jewish background as a religious and cultural facet his apparent love affair with New York City and his relation to various strains of humor _particularly American film humor but also Allen's broad use of such traditional comic tropes as irony and parody The essays on individual films include examinations of some of Allen's most significant work including Love and Death Annie Hall Interiors Crimes and Misdemeanors Hannah and Her Sisters Manhattan and Shadows and Fog A number of the articles collected here were originally published in now hard to locate places while others were selected from journals not usually associated with film studies The result is an anthology of essays that presents an overview of the central issues raised by Allen's body of work as well as a close examination of fourteen individual films that convey these larger themes A wide ranging exploration of one of America's most innovative and productive modern directors this book should appeal to both professionals and students of contemporary film comedy

Love, Sex, and the Human Condition Lex Crane, 2007 A handbook on passionate living for rational folk Love Sex and the Human Condition cuts through our media fog of information about living the good life and serves up practical wisdom for people who like being fully alive without slogans sentimentality or empty promises So much of what keeps us from being who we might become has been laid on us by outside forces incessant advertising early childhood experience the expectations of other people inherited cultural and religious baggage These with our fierce drives for love sex and power really enslave us LSHC guides the reader through the maze of influences on our lives to a freedom rarely enjoyed these days LSHC examines both the bright and dark sides of existence Exploring both life and death and the creative and destructive aspects of human nature the book shows how our drives for sex and power can work for us and those around us when tempered with love reason and liberated decision making In provocative chapters like Learning to Be Free Living Deliberately Love Power and Happiness Youth Time and Aging Changing Ourselves Deliberately Crane describes what people fully alive really do to stay ahead of that sense of quiet desperation stalking us A penetrating account of the current human condition and what it takes to be fully alive and engaged even in the face of today's overwhelming demands The writing style
