Review of Love Songs of Arnhem Land Arthur E. Hippler, 1978

The Origins of the Love Song Nino Tsitsishvili, 2022-11-18 The book offers a radically new perspective on the origins of the love song and human sexuality in an evolutionary context By comparing different human societies and animal species past and present it reveals that love songs romantic love and exclusive pair bonds are not the original evolutionary features of Homo sapiens One of the key findings of the book is that early humans practiced multiple partner sexual relations similar to our closest relatives bonobos and chimpanzees but with the emergence of culture and sexual taboo their behaviour had to adjust It contends that since the exodus from Africa and the rise of culture humans started to distance themselves from the rest of the animal kingdom drastically restraining their innate sexual nature The book will appeal to both scholars and laypeople with an interest in evolutionary theory socio biology anthropology and the origins of culture

Becoming Art Howard Morphy, 2020-08-28 Thirty years ago Australian Aboriginal art was little more than a footnote to world art Today it is considered to be an important contemporary art movement often promoted as being connected to a deep cultural past Becoming Art provides a new analysis of the shifting cultural and social contexts that surround the production of Aboriginal art Transcending the boundaries between anthropology and art history the book draws on arguments from both disciplines to provide a unique interdisciplinary perspective that places the artists themselves at the centre of the argument Western art history has traditionally regarded Aboriginal art as distanced from time and place Becoming Art uses the recent history of Aboriginal art to challenge some of the presuppositions of western art discourse and western art worlds It argues for a more cross cultural perspective on world art history

Irregular Connections Andrew P. Lyons, Harriet Lyons, 2004-12-01 Irregular Connections traces the anthropological study of sex from the eighteenth century to the present focusing primarily on social and cultural anthropology and the work done by researchers in North America and Great Britain Andrew P and Harriet D Lyons argue that the sexuality of those whom anthropologists studied has been conscripted into Western discourses about sex including debates about prostitution homosexuality divorce premarital relations and hierarchies of gender class and race Because sex is the most private of activities and often carries a high emotional charge it is peculiarly difficult to investigate At times such as the late 1920s and the last decade of the twentieth century sexuality has been a central concern of anthropologists and focal in their theoretical formulations At other times the study of sexuality has been marginalized The anthropology of sex has sometimes been one of the main faces that anthropology presented to the public often causing resentment within the discipline Andrew P Lyons is an associate professor of anthropology at Wilfrid Laurier University Harriet D Lyons is an associate professor of anthropology at the University of Waterloo
