range in structure and form from the syncopated swing of big bands to the musical experimentalism of small combos As Stephans illustrates listeners and jazz artists often experience the essence of the music together an experience unique in the world of music Experiencing Jazz demonstrates how the act of listening to jazz takes place on a deeply personal level and takes readers on a whirlwind tour of the genre instrument by instrument offering not only brief portraits of key musicians like Joe Lovano and John Scofield but also their own commentaries on how best to experience the music they create Throughout jazz takes center stage as a personal transaction that enriches the lives of both musician and listener Written for anyone curious about the genre this book encourages further reading listening and viewing helping potential listeners cultivate an understanding and appreciation of the jazz art and how it can help in drummer Art Blakey s words wash away the dust of everyday life Resounding Pasts Drago Momcilovic,2020-05-15 The field of memory studies has long been preoccupied with the manner in which events from the past are commemorated forgotten re fashioned or worked through on both the individual and collective level Yet in an age when various modes of artistic and cultural commemoration have begun to overlap with and respond to one another the dynamics of cultural remembering and forgetting become bound up in an increasingly elaborate network of representations that operate both within and outside temporal cultural and national borders As publicly circulating texts that straddle the line between cultural artifact and artistic object both musical and literary works both individually and often in conjunction with one another help shape cultural memories and individual experiences of those events Troping their cultural milieux through specific aesthetic and social forms genres and modes of dissemination music and literature become part of a growing global panoply of raw materials upon which we might begin to pose questions regarding the way we remember the consequences of sharing and passing on those memories and the aesthetic and cultural pressures attendant upon the circulation and interpretation of texts that re sound the past
