Journal of Mediterranean Studies, 2000      Proceedings of the Brazilian Studies Association (BRASA). Brazilian Studies Association. Conference, 2003      Crusading and Warfare in the Middle Ages Simon John, Nicholas Morton, 2016-04-22 This volume has been created by scholars from a range of disciplines who wish to show their appreciation for Professor John France and to celebrate his career and achievements For many decades Professor France's work has been instrumental in many of the advances made in the fields of crusader studies and medieval warfare He has published widely on these topics including major publications such as Victory in the East A Military History of the First Crusade 1994 and Western Warfare in the Age of the Crusades 1999 This present volume mirrors his interests offering studies upon both areas The fifteen essays cover a wide variety of topics spanning chronologically from the Carolingian period through to the early fourteenth century Some offer new insights upon long contested issues such as the question of whether a new form of cavalry was created by Charles Martel and his successors or the implications of the Mongol defeat at Ayn Jalut Others use innovative methodologies to unlock the potential of various types of source material including manuscript illuminations depicting warfare Templar graffiti German crusading songs and crusading charters Several of the articles open up new areas of debate connected to the history of crusading Malcolm Barber discusses why Christendom did not react decisively to the fall of Acre in 1291 Bernard Hamilton explores how the rising Frankish presence in the Eastern Mediterranean during the central medieval period reshaped Christendom's knowledge and understanding of the North African cultures they encountered In this way this work seeks both to advance debate in core areas whilst opening new vistas for future research      The International Conference Education and Creativity for a Knowledge based Society - Social and Political Sciences, Communication, Foreign Languages and Public Relations, 2012 ,      Europe J. Berting, 2006 Modern Europe is a patchwork quilt in which a diverse array of national cultures have been pieced into one community In Europe A Heritage a Challenge a Promise Jan Berting reckons with a continent at a turning point in its history arguing that Europe must balance its urge to modernize with a respect for its shared legacy As Europe struggles with the tension between its past and its future Berting pinpoints challenges to modernization and proposes intriguing solutions He addresses topics as varied as the rise of Islam political liberalism and individual freedoms in this comprehensive volume sure to interest all those invested in the future of Europe      Turkey: facing a new millennium Amikam Nachmani, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Turkey's involvement in the Gulf War in 1991 paved the way for the country's acceptance into the European Union This book traces that process and in the first part looks at Turkey's foreign policy in the 1990s considering the ability of the country to withstand the repercussions of the fall of communism It focuses on Turkey's achievement in halting and minimising the effects of the temporary devaluation in its strategic importance that resulted from the waning of the Cold War and the disintegration of the Soviet Union the skilful way in which Turkey avoided becoming embroiled in the ethnic upheavals in Central Asia the Balkans and the Middle East and the development of a continued policy of closer integration into the European and western worlds Internal politics are the focus of the second part of the book addressing the curbing of the Kurdish revolt the economic gains made and the strengthening of civil society Nachmani goes on to analyse the prospects for Turkey in the twenty first century in the light of the possible integration into Europe which may leave the country s leadership free to deal effectively with domestic issues This book will make crucial reading for anyone studying Turkish politics or indeed European or European Union politics

Laughing Matters Giorgio Baruchello, Ársæll Már Arnarsson, 2023-11-06 Part 2 of Volume 3 addresses in detail the conflicts between humor and cruelty i e how cruelty can be unleashed against humor and conversely humor can be utilized against cruelty Potent enmities to mirth and jollity are retrieved from a variety of socio historical contexts ranging from Europe s medieval monasteries to the 2015 Charlie Hebdo massacre Special attention is paid to the cruel humor and humorous cruelty arising thereof insofar as such phenomena can reveal critical aspects of today s neoliberal socio economic order In parallel settings where humor has been used as an instrument to cope with suffered cruelty whether natural or human in origin are also retrieved and discussed These also vary greatly and encompass domains such as hospital wards 20th century Jewish ghettos and contemporary funeral homes A set of concluding reflections is then offered on the psychological theological ethical and metaphysical roots of humor and its cruel rejection Like Aristotle and Dewey Arnarsson and Baruchello do not define their terms at the outset but instead they relentlessly pursue the meanings of two ordinary words that everyone vaguely understads to arrive at a critical insight into the concepts these words represent which are both disparate and interrelated Richard Marc Rubin President George Santayana Society

Tuff City Nicholas T. Dines, 2012 During the 1990s Naples left wing administration sought to tackle the city s infamous reputation of being poor crime ridden chaotic and dirty by reclaiming the city s cultural and architectural heritage This book examines the conflicts surrounding the reimagining and reordering of the city s historic centre through detailed case studies of two piazzas and a centro sociale focusing on a series of issues that include heritage decorum security pedestrianization tourism immigration and new forms of urban protest This monograph is the first in depth study of the complex transformations of one of Europe s most fascinating and misunderstood cities It represents a new critical approach to the questions of public space citizenship and urban regeneration as well as a broader methodological critique of how we write about contemporary cities

When Greeks think about Turks Dimitrios Theodossopoulos, 2013-09-13 Drawing upon anthropological studies that document culturally specific ways of perceiving ethic Others in Greece and Cyprus this book explores the cultural boundaries of the categories Greek and Turk and compares views on what it means to be one of these ethnic groups or both The contributors examine the opinions of diverse social groups such as ordinary middle class citizens intellectuals army officers children villagers refugees from Asia Minor and Greek and Turkisj Cypriots They also investigate the local attitudes to international politics and highlight the contextual as opposed to immutable and essentialist meaning of evaluations about nations such as Greece Turkey and Cyprus and their citizens When Greeks think about Turks carefully unpacks the cultural meaning of popular metaphors stereotypes and versions of history as these are articulated in the context of discussions about the Turks in Greece It sets the template for understanding how local perceptions of resemblance and difference provide a conceptual framework for defining and negotiating ethnic identity at the local national and international level It sheds valuable light on the politics of identity making and the constitution of nationalism in Greece and Cyprus This book was previously published as a special issue of South European Society and Politics      Spectacles of Blood Swaralipi Nandi ,Esha Chatterjee,2014-03-11 This book places itself at the nexus of current issues of violence masculinity and power in the postcolonial context and its representation in its films in challenging normalising or contesting these major concerns of our times The essays address the interplay of critical and theoretical insights both from literature and social studies in analysing the films based on societal violence in postcolonial cultures be it in the context of sophisticated terrorism suicide bombings the underworld any organised crime mob violence etc The writers look at the the dynamics of the representation of these issues as cinematic plots and techniques They draw attention to the affective value of the films in generating and foregrounding the questions of feelings invoked by the onscreen violence and the impact of this emotive state on the issues of national and cosmopolitan identity formation Together the essays enrich both literary studies and social studies with a nuanced borrowing and intermixing of their primary texts and modes of interpretation This new collection of essays thus brings together in one volume the interplay of critical and theoretical insights from Literature Sociology and Media Studies Published by Zubaan      Geological Setting, Palaeoenvironment and Archaeology of the Red Sea Najeeb M.A. Rasul,Ian C.F. Stewart,2018-12-05 This book gathers invited contributions from active researchers to provide an up to date overview of the geological setting of the Red Sea It discusses aspects ranging from historical information to modern research in the Red Sea and presents findings from rapidly advancing emerging fields This semi enclosed young ocean basin provides a unique opportunity to study the development of passive continental margins in order to examine the current status of that region In addition to studies on the Sea itself it includes those from related fields on the littoral zone The book is of interest to geoscientists and non specialists alike      The European Union and Enlargement G. Christou,2004-10-15 The European Union and Enlargement is about the EU s power of attraction an exploration of the potential for EU impact on conflicts within Europe and the implications for the EU to influence the order beyond its borders It provides both a theoretical and historical context in order to understand the EU s impact and combines this with empirical analysis of the perceptions of the Greek Cypriots Turkish Cypriots and Turkey on the accession process and its effect on the Cyprus issue It demonstrates the limits and the potential of the EU as a global actor through its power of attraction      The International Journal of Marine and Coastal Law ,2002      Turkey and the EU Harun Arikan,2006-01-01 Since the first edition EU Turkey relations have clearly taken different directions This extended and revised edition addresses these major developments and assesses the implications of Turkish membership for the current EU structures

Balkan Biodiversity Huw I. Griffiths, Boris Kryštufek, Jane M. Reed, 2013-03-19 Balkan Biodiversity is the first attempt to synthesise our current understanding of biodiversity in the great European hot spot The conservation of biodiversity is one of today's great ecological challenges but Balkan biodiversity is still poorly understood in a region with complex physical geography and a long history of political conflict The Balkans exhibit outstanding levels of endemism particularly in caves and ancient lakes such as Ohrid lying at the crossroads of Europe and Asia they are also renowned as a focus of Pleistocene glacial refugia This volume unites a diverse group of international researchers for the first time Its interdisciplinary approach gives a broad perspective on biodiversity at the level of the gene species and ecosystem including contributions on temporal change Biological groups include plants mammals spiders and humans cave dwelling organisms fish aquatic invertebrates and algae The book should be read by zoologists botanists speleobiologists palaeoecologists palaeolimnologists and environmental scientists

The Competitive Advantage of Greece Ioannis Konsolas, 2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2002 This compelling text is the first major application of Michael Porter's diamond framework to identify the sources of national competitive advantage in the case of Greece Offering a useful evaluation of Porter's theory through an extensive literature review the book also draws on empirical evidence from five selected Greek industries It also provides information and commentary on many aspects of the Greek economy its historical evolution and its current trends International and Greek investors international organizations business consultants and financial institutions will certainly benefit from this analysis of the Greek economic environment Moreover universities and researchers will be interested in the evidence supporting or refuting parts of the widely used and cited diamond framework
