

Reports of Meetings

Afro-Nordic Library Conference 1979

The Third Afro-Nordic Library Conference was held in Espoo, Finland, 3–7 September 1979.

An interesting report to the Danish Library Association was given by D.E. Uba, Imo State Library Board, Owerri, Nigeria, and published in Bogens Verden, No. 10, 1979.

The main parts of Mr. Uba's report are presented below.

Aims and Objectives

For the purpose of this report, I interviewed several of those considered to be the more involved personalities among the Nordic participants, to find out the original aim of the Afro-Nordic Library Conference, but none appeared to have the slightest idea. An African participant I later put it to, explained that the Nordic Countries, at a point in time, felt that their library aids to African Countries were producing short of the desired effect and therefore initiated this conference as a forum for African Librarians to draw upon their vast library experience, while letting them know the areas of their greatest needs — all aimed at maximizing the effect of the assistance for African library development. This sounds possible, but certainly not from the horse's mouth. Whatever was the original motive was undoubtedly a laudable one.

The egg that hatched into the Third Afro-Nordic Library Conference in Finland this September, was laid during the second conference held in Dakar in 1975. It is an implementation of one of the resolutions in the Dakar Conference.

This third conference aims at: —

- a) discussing the problems of sparsely populated countries with a relatively small output of information
- b) evaluating experiences gained in the regional co operation in improving library and information services
- c) discussing methods of increasing the effectiveness of library and information services
- d) discussing forms for foreign aid (bi and multi-lateral) in African library work.

Composition

Originally the conference was planned for 40 African and 30 Nordic participants, but in actual fact 30 Africans, 31 Nordic librarians and a Unesco representative took part.

Opening

The conference was formally opened on the 3rd September, 1979 in the Auditorium of the Forest Lake Hotel Espoo by the Finnish Minister for Education. Outlining the reasons for the Finnish people's interest in promoting cultural co operation with African countries, he said, among other things that it was to eliminate unnecessary barriers in the interaction of Afro-Nordic countries to find an easy and profitable way of transferring scientific and technological information from Europe to the African countries and to promote peace and understanding among nations.
