A Natural History of the Senses Diane Ackerman, 1991-09-10 Diane Ackerman's lusciously written grand tour of the realm of the senses includes conversations with an iceberg in Antarctica and a professional nose in New York along with dissertations on kisses and tattoos sadistic cuisine and the music played by the planet Earth Delightful gives the reader the richest possible feeling of the worlds the senses take in The New York Times

A Natural History of the Senses Diane Ackerman, 1991-12-01 A naturalist guides readers through the human senses discussing the evolution of the kiss the sadistic cuisine of eighteenth century England the chemistry of pain and the melodies of Earth

A History of the Senses Robert Jütte, 2005 This path breaking book examines our attitudes to the senses from antiquity through to the present day Robert Jutte explores a wealth of different traditions images metaphors and ideas that have survived through time and describes how sensual impressions change the way in which we experience the world Throughout history societies have been both intrigued or unsettled by the five senses The author looks at the way in which the social world conditions our perception and traces the rediscovery of sensual pleasure in the twentieth century paying attention to experiences as varied as fast food deodorization and extra sensory perception He concludes by exploring technological change and cyberspace reflecting on how developments in these fields will affect our relationship with the senses in the future

A Cultural History of the Senses in the Modern Age David Howes, 2014-10-23 In the 20th century many aspects of life became a matter of perception in the wake of the multiplication of media stylistic experimentation and the rise of multiculturalism Life sped up as a result of new modes of transportation automobiles and airplanes and communication telephones and personal computers which emphasized the rapid movement of people and ideas The proliferation of synthetic products and simulated experiences from artificial flavors to video games in turn created heady virtual worlds of sensation This progressive mediation and acceleration of sensation along with the sensory and environmental pollution it often spawned also sparked various countertrends such as the back to nature movement the craft movement slow food and alternative medicine This volume shows how attending to the sensory dynamics of the modern age yields many fresh insights into the intertwined processes which gave the 20th century its particular feel of technological prowess and gaudy artificiality

A Cultural History of the Senses in the Modern Age presents essays on the following topics the social life of the senses urban sensations the senses in the marketplace the senses in religion the senses in philosophy and science medicine and the senses the senses in literature art and the senses and sensory media

A Cultural History of the Senses in the Age of Enlightenment Anne C. Vila, 2014-10-23 This volume examines the varied ways in which the senses were perceived afresh during the Enlightenment In addition to introducing new philosophical and scientific models which sometimes upended the classic hierarchy of the senses this period witnessed major changes in living and working habits including urbanization travel and exploration the invention of new sonic and visual media and the rise of comfort and pleasure as values that cut across a range of social classes As this volume shows those developments inspired a wealth of sensorially stimulating styles of design art music poetry foodstuffs material goods and modes of worship and entertainment The volume also demonstrates the period's countervailing concern with managing the senses evident in fields like natural philosophy medicine education religion and public hygiene Finally it explores some of the Enlightenment's desensualizing tendencies like the separation of sensuous body from discerning mind in certain arenas of science and manufacturing and the late 18th century shift away from a politics of publicity or intense visual and aural scrutiny toward the secret ballot A Cultural History of the Senses in the Age of Enlightenment presents essays on the following topics the social life of the senses urban sensations the senses in the marketplace the senses in religion the senses in philosophy and science medicine and the senses the senses in literature art and the senses and sensory media
