eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Maine was part of the northeastern frontier a sparsely settled area that held to the old ways Thus its compilers reprinted and singers sang the music of Billings Read Swan Holden and other Yankee psalmodists long after a reform movement had swept them from the galleries of southern New England churches Belcher was a man much honored in the region as a musician a public servant and a civic leader Following military service in the Revolutionary War he opened Belcher s Tavern where local musicians frequently gathered for sings In addition to being a composer Belcher was also a singer a violinist and a prominent member of the Stoughton Musical Society He published seventy four works between 1788 when his first tune appeared in print and 1819 when his final contributions to psalmody were issued As this edition of his collected works reveals his vigorous and skillful pieces show him to have been an original and creative spirit in psalmody and even today are worthy of attention and performance Catalog of Copyright Entries
