Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer,1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children s literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself

Negotiating Multicultural Europe H. Armbruster,U. Meinhof,2011-10-27 This book examines neighbourhoods and networks between the diverse people of contemporary Europe who live in a globalized and globalizing world across different types of borders physical and mental geopolitical and symbolic

Reference Library of European America: Ethnic essays, Irish Americans to Welsh Americans ,1998 Presents information on all aspects of European American life including politics employment and income education religion literature performing arts science and medicine and sports

Black Cultures and Race Relations James L.

Conyers, 2002 The essays in this book examine black cultural issues from the inside out rather than from a majority perspective Topics are grouped into four categories historical studies on race policy economics and race educational studies and race and social and cultural studies on race Readers of this volume will gain a deeper understanding of the past and present realities experienced by black people in the United States Sweeping changes have taken place in American society but much work remains to be done before black Americans will no longer face the daily challenges created by racist stereotyping and assumptions This book will furnish absorbing reading for anyone who seeks a better understanding of black white relations in the United States from the mid nineteenth century to the present A Burnham Publishers book Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1993 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Resources in Education, 2000-10 Developing an Outstanding Core Collection Carol Alabaster, 2010-02-26 Carol Alabaster focuses on developing a collection with high quality materials while saving time and money Central Europe Thirty Years after the Fall of Communism Aliaksei Kazharski, 2022-05-23 This book examines the politics and international relations of Central Europe the Visegrád Four three decades after the fall of communism Once bound together by a common geopolitical vision of returning to the West the Czech Republic Hungary Poland and Slovakia now find themselves in a more ambiguous position The 2015 European migration crisis exposed serious normative differences with Western Europe leading to a collective V4 rebellion against the European Union's migration policies At the same time as this book demonstrates despite this normative rift with Western Europe and despite the democratic backsliding in some of the V4 states they remain deeply dependent on the West in both symbolic and material terms Furthermore ways in which individual Central European states position themselves vis à vis the West exhibit notable differences informed by their specific political and cultural legacies The author examines these in separate country chapters This book also contains a chapter that analyzes the effect of the COVID 19 crisis on political discourses in the V4 Multicultural Aspects of Library Media Programs Kathy Howard Latrobe, Mildred Laughlin, 1992 Addresses the cultural needs of ethnic groups within the curriculum and in the library collection

Dictionary of Multicultural Psychology Lena E. Hall, 2004-10-28 There appears to be a burgeoning lexicon of terms and concepts pertinent to multiculturalism Unfortunately this increase in the number of terms and concepts seems to be colliding with a decrease in a shared understanding of what they mean A dictionary style volume for such terms seems an admirable and overdue quest William H George University of Washington This dictionary is an up to date volume that contains numerous references to relevant concepts and terms in the field of multicultural psychology Professor Lena Hall has collected studied and analyzed a multitude of terms in her eleven years of teaching multicultural psychology and she has gathered them together in this handy accessible reference book Key Features Definitions are written in concise language for easy comprehension Standard dictionary format is familiar and convenient to use making this book a handy reference for students and professionals alike who wish to clarify a term or broaden their knowledge on a topic Relevant reference sources are included along with each entry enabling students to do further reading on concepts they have learned Dictionary entries are excellent starting points for stimulating class discussions and creative research and written assignments The Dictionary of Multicultural Psychology is a highly useful resource for undergraduate psychology students The book is recommended as a classroom supplement for courses in psychology and multiculturalism as well as for professionals and graduate students working with multicultural populations for certification Lena Hall is associate professor at Nova Southeastern University She obtained her BS in Psychology from York University her MA and MED from Columbia University and her PhD in Counseling Psychology from University of Florida She conducts seminars presents papers and teaches classes in multicultural psychology She is presently involved in cross cultural research on substance abuse Her latest publication is Issues in Multicultural Psychology a textbook for undergraduate students

Library Management and Marketing in a Multicultural World James L. Mullins, 2008-11-03 The papers collected in this volume were presented at the conference entitled Library Management and Marketing in a Multicultural World in Shanghai China from August 16 17 2006 held under the auspices of the Marketing and Management Section of the International Federation of Library Associations IFLA This book addresses some of the latest developments in the marketing and management of libraries worldwide recognizing the challenges to meet local needs in a global information society The authors used different approaches to identify trends opportunities and needs as well as effectiveness and assessment in countries ranging from Australia Belgium China Denmark Greece India Pakistan Spain the United States and elsewhere throughout the world Several authors describe successful programs designed to promote libraries within a community nation or academic community Others report on trends and changes taking place within the user community and present case studies on the response of libraries to meet challenges and opportunities through marketing and management

Multiculturalism in the College Curriculum Marilyn Lutzker, 1995-03-18 Emphasizing that diversity in the curriculum is as much about a way of thinking as it is about specific information Lutzker presents a compendium of innovative and practical classroom strategies and widely available information resources which will enable faculty to increase the multicultural content of their courses without necessarily making major changes in their accustomed methods of teaching This is a handbook for college faculty in all disciplines who would like to increase the multicultural content of their courses but have been reluctant to do so for a variety of reasons including an already overloaded syllabus a lack of background in the subject uncertainty about student reactions or lack of time to make substantial changes in an existing syllabus Administrators anxious to increase diversity in the curriculum of their institutions but unable to fund large scale curriculum revision projects will also find this volume useful Part I is concerned with classroom strategies and with student research projects Starting with discussions of objectives and priorities the underlying role of critical thinking and the importance of language sensitivity the book then describes specific classroom strategies useful for increasing diversity The subsequent chapters are devoted to discussions of general guidelines for developing student projects with a multicultural perspective innovative alternatives to the traditional term paper and suggestions for multicultural student projects which do not require library research Part I concludes with a discussion of possible student reactions to increased multiculturalism and suggested approaches to those reactions Part II is concerned with information resources which will be useful to instructors and to students Fully annotated lists are provided in a variety of areas including widely available primary sources specialized biographical directories sources for sample syllabi in all disciplines guides to ethnic and foreign press to films and videos and to electronic resources Part II concludes with a discussion designed to increase efficiency in using the library catalog to locate information in multicultural subject areas Appendices provide sample research worksheets a list of small publishers and distributors of multicultural books and an annotated bibliography
