The book navigates through the complex landscape of worldwide stardom from Hollywood to Bollywood, exploring how technological advances and cultural exchange have transformed the way actors achieve and maintain global recognition. Through a compelling mix of industry insights and academic research, it reveals how streaming platforms and social media have created new pathways to fame while challenging traditional star-making systems. The Repertory Movement George Rowell, Tony Jackson, Anthony Jackson, 1984-10-18 This is an account of the origins, development, and current state of the repertory theatre movement in Britain. The movement had its roots in ideas, experiments, and traditions stretching back into the nineteenth century and first found its voice in 1907 with Miss Horniman's company in Manchester. Since then, it has played a vital, often a dominant, role in British twentieth-century theatre. As a method of theatre organisation, repertory refers to those theatres based primarily in the regions, housing a resident acting company and seeking to maintain each season a programme of plays catering for the tastes of the whole community. But the theory has never been dogmatic, and the movement has evolved from a gamut of complex factors, not least the visions of particular personalities. Major landmarks in the history include the effects of the two World Wars, the advent of substantial state funding for the Arts, the growth of cinema and television, and the renewal of theatre's link with the community in the form of such initiatives as Theatre in Education. The history concludes with a detailed study of six representative regional theatres: The Nottingham Playhouse, The Citizens Theatre, Glasgow, The Salisbury Playhouse, The Victoria Theatre, Stoke, The Everyman, Liverpool, and The Royal Exchange, Manchester. Appendixes include a Chronology, sample repertory programmes from the period, audience attendance figures, and some comparative statistics about funding. Interspersed through the text are photographs of selected theatre
