Reflections Of Pearls And Swine:

Reflections on Higher Love Kaemanje Thomas,2013-02-20 These reflections are mere experiences that are common to most human beings When life happens whether we are conscious or unconscious of these events it brings us to a reality that some things in life happen randomly There are noticeable constraints inherent to our existence but ultimately we realize that we need to master ourselves our emotions and embrace one truism that some of our pain is self chosen Reflections on

Biblical Themes by an Octogenarian Reuben J. Swanson,2007-01-01 Reflections on Biblical Themes by an Octogenarian represents the journey into faith by the author of the essays over the span of sixty years in the pastoral ministry and as a professor on college university and theological school levels There has been a continuing growth in understanding from the beginnings of a rather conservative religious background and training to a more mature appreciation and understanding of life This growth came about through the interchange in the classroom as a student in preparation for ministry then as a pastor in the everyday work experience and interchange with parishioners and especially in the interchange with students in the classroom This more mature understanding and growth is reflected in the essays presented in this volume on various themes as listed in the Table of Contents It is hoped that they will be of value to lay persons and to professionals in the life of the church and in the academic world and that they will stimulate thought and discussion in parishes and in institutions of higher learning Some of the viewpoints may seem to be controversial but how are we to grow intellectually and spiritually unless we wrestle seriously with the deep and profound questions of our faith and life These reflections are offered with the hope and prayer that they will stimulate discussion and growth in the life of the church in both parish and academic settings

The New Testament and the Theology of Trust Teresa Morgan,2022-06-16 This study argues for the recovery of trust as a central theme in Christian theology and offers the first theology of trust in the New Testament Trust is the root meaning of Christian faith pistis fides and trusting in God and Christ is still fundamental to Christians But unlike faith and other aspects of faith such as belief or hope trust is little studied Building on her ground breaking study Roman Faith and Christian Faith and drawing on the philosophy and psychology of trust Teresa Morgan explores the significance of trust trustworthiness faithfulness and entrustedness in New Testament writings Trust between God Christ and humanity is revealed as a risky dynamic forward looking life changing partnership God entrusts Christ with winning the trust of humanity and bringing humanity to trust in God God and Christ trust humanity to respond to God s initiative through Christ and entrust the faithful with diverse forms of work for humanity and for creation Human understanding of God and Christ is limited and trust and faithfulness often fail but imperfect trust is not a deal breaker Morgan develops a new model of atonement showing how trust enables humanity s release from the power of both sin and suffering She examines the neglected concept of propositional trust and argues that it plays a key role in faith This volume offers a compelling vision of Christian trust as soteriological ethical and community forming Trust is both the means of salvation and an end in itself because where we trust is where we most fully live
