Reform Within Islam:

Islamic Reform in South Asia Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2013-05-16 The articles in this volume build up ethnographic analysis complementary to the historiography of South Asian Islam which has explored the emergence of reformism in the context of specific political and religious circumstances of nineteenth century British India Taking up diverse popular and scholarly debates as well as everyday religious practices this volume also breaks away from the dominant trend of mainstream ethnographic work which celebrates sufi inspired forms of Islam as tolerant plural authentic and so on pitted against a reformist Islam Urging a more nuanced examination of all forms of reformism and their reception in practice the contributions here powerfully demonstrate the historical and geographical specificities of reform projects In doing so they challenge prevailing perspectives in which substantially different traditions of reform are lumped together into one reified category often carelessly shorthanded as wah habism and branded as extremist if not altogether demonised as terrorist

An Islamic Reformation? Michaelle Browers, Charles Kurzman, 2004-01-01 This book brings together scholars with expertise in modern Islamic thought and practice to evaluate the claim that we are witnessing something tantamount to an Islamic Reformation by assessing the character and impact of various reformist trends in the Middle East and North Africa Each chapter also addresses the question of the appropriateness and usefulness of comparisons between Christian and Islamic or Western and Eastern reformations

Revival and Reform in Islam Bernard Haykel, 2003-05-27 Revival and Reform in Islam is at once an intellectual biography of Muhammad al Shawkani and a history of a transitional period in Yemeni history This was a time when a society dominated by traditional Zaydi Shiism shifted to one characterised instead by Sunni reformism The author traces the origins and outcomes of this transition presenting the first systematic account of the ways in which the eighteenth and nineteenth century reorientation of the Zaydi madhhab and consequent sunnification of Yemeni society were intricately linked to tensions within the political realm In advocating juridical systematization of religious belief and practice Shawkani espoused a socio religious order which in its dominant features echoed key aspects of Western modernity Yet he did so in a context bereft of Western ideational influence This study then presents a textured account of eighteenth century Islamic reformist thought and challenges the meaning of modernity in an Islamic context

The Princeton Encyclopedia of Islamic Political Thought Gerhard Bowering, Patricia Crone, Mahan Mirza, 2013 In 2012 the year 1433 of the Muslim calendar the Islamic population throughout the world was estimated at approximately a billion and a half representing about one fifth of humanity In geographical terms Islam occupies the center of the world stretching like a big belt across the globe from east to west P vii

The Trouble with Islam Irshad Manji, 2007-04-01 I have to be honest with you Islam is on very thin ice with me Through our screaming self pity and our conspicuous silences we Muslims are conspiring against ourselves We're in crisis and we're dragging the rest of the world with us If ever there was a moment for an Islamic reformation it's now For the love of God what are we doing about it In blunt provocative and deeply personal terms Irshad Manji unearths the troubling cornerstones of mainstream Islam today tribal insularity deep seated anti

Semitism and an uncritical acceptance of the Koran as the final and therefore superior manifesto of God In this open letter to Muslims and non Muslims alike Manji asks arresting questions Who is the real colonizer of Muslims America or Arabia Why are we all being held hostage by what s happening between the Palestinians and the Israelis Why are we squandering the talents of women fully half of God s creation What s our excuse for reading the Koran literally when it s so contradictory and ambiguous Is that a heart attack you re having Make it fast Because if more of us don t speak out against the imperialists within Islam these guys will walk away with the show Manji offers a practical vision of how the United States and its allies can help Muslims undertake a reformation that empowers women promotes respect for religious minorities and fosters a competition of ideas Her vision revives Islam s lost tradition of independent thinking This book will inspire struggling Muslims worldwide to revisit the foundations of their faith It will also compel non Muslims to start posing the important questions without fear of being deemed racists In more ways than one The Trouble with Islam is a clarion call for a fatwa free future

Islam and the Question of Reform Benjamin MacQueen, Rebecca Barlow, Kylie Baxter, 2008-12-15 Reform by definition is not a complete break with tradition but a determination by scholars activists politicians and critical thinkers to re claim the tenets of their faith Muslim communities have historically displayed a tendency to preserve the status quo By contrast the individuals and movements in Islam and the Question of Reform are determined often at great personal risk to push aside existing political and social elites and the historically accepted interpretations of Islam and its place in society The perspectives examined in this volume avoid superficial or apologetic examinations of Islam s political and social role Instead they meticulously scrutinise the religion s public role often questioning the validity of dogmas that have acted as tools of empowerment for existing elites for centuries Islamic Studies Series Volume 1 Routledge Handbook of Islam in Africa Terje Østebø, 2021-12-20 Bringing together cutting edge research from a range of disciplines this handbook argues that despite often being overlooked or treated as marginal the study of Islam from an African context is integral to the broader Muslim world Challenging the portrayal of African Muslims as passive recipients of religious impetuses arriving from the outside this book shows how the continent has been a site for the development of rich Islamic scholarship and religious discourses Over the course of the book the contributors reflect on The history and infrastructure of Islam in Africa Politics and Islamic reform Gender youth and everyday life for African Muslims New technologies media and popular culture Written by leading scholars in the field the contributions examine the connections between Islam and broader sociopolitical developments across the continent demonstrating the important role of religion in the everyday lives of Africans This book is an important and timely contribution to a subject that is often diffusely studied and will be of interest to researchers across religious studies African studies politics and sociology

opdracht Inside the Gender Jihad Amina Wadud, 2013-10-01 A world renowned professor of Islamic studies Amina Wadud has long been at the forefront of what she calls the gender jihad the struggle for justice for women within the global Islamic community In 2005 she made international headlines when she helped to promote new traditions by leading the Muslim Friday prayer in New York City provoking a firestorm of media controversy and kindling charges of blasphemy among conservative Muslims worldwide In this provocative book Inside the Gender Jihad Wadud brings a wealth of experience from the trenches of the jihad to make a passionate argument for gender inclusiveness in the Muslim world Knitting together scrupulous scholarship with lessons drawn from her own experiences as a woman she explores the array of issues facing Muslim women today including social status education sexuality and leadership A major contribution to the debate on women and Islam Amina Wadud's vision for changing the status of women within Islam is both revolutionary and urgent The New World of Islam Lothrop Stoddard, 1921 Islamic Reform in Lebanon Samir Khalaf, 1969

Eighteenth-century Renewal and Reform in Islam Nehemia Levtzion, John Obert Voll, 1987 Muslim Reformism - A Critical History Mohamed Haddad, 2020-02-28 This book examines the evolution of Islam in our modern world The renowned Tunisian scholar Mohamed Haddad traces the history of the reformist movement and explains recent events related to the Islamic religion in Muslim countries and among Muslim minorities across the world In scholarly terms he evaluates the benefits and drawbacks of theological political renovation neo reformism legal reformism mystical reformism radical criticism comprehensive history and new approaches within the study of Islam The book brings to life the various historical sociological political and theological challenges and debates that have divided Muslims since the 19th century The first two chapters address failed reforms in the past and introduce the reader to classical reformism and to Mohammed Abduh Haddad ultimately proposes a non confessional definition of religious reform reinterpreting and adjusting a religious tradition to modern requirements The second part of the book explores perspectives on contemporary Islam the legacy of classical reformism and new paths forward It suggests that the fundamentalism embodied in Wahhabism and Muslim Brotherhood has failed Traditional Islam no longer attracts either youth or the elites Mohamed Haddad shows how this paves the way for a new reformist departure that synthesizes modernism and core Islamic values Exposing the Call for Islamic Reformation Adnan Khan, 2015-10-06 The first attempts at reforming Islam resulted in the abolition of the Khilafah and the end of nearly fourteen centuries of Islamic rule However with less than a century passing from this historical event Muslims have returned to Islam and every day edge closer to the re establishment of the Khilafah It is for this reason that the West has once again initiated plans to change Islam since any revival of Islam will naturally end in the establishment of the Khilafah which represents an alternative system of governance that would then challenge the dominance of capitalism in the world The battle for hearts and minds is now fully underway Former British Prime Minister Tony Blair outlined this after the 7 7 attacks in July 2005 It is not a clash of civilisations all civilized people Muslim or other feel revulsion at it But it is a global struggle It is a battle of ideas and hearts and minds both within Islam and outside 4This battle is taking varying shapes and forms A spectrum of various shades of modernist thought ranging from the extreme such as that of Irshad Manji to the more subtle such as Sheikh Ali Gomaa form part of this battle for hearts and minds Amongst this spectrum are people from various backgrounds including academics activists and traditional Ulema All are in some shape or form knowingly or unknowingly propagating the reform of Islam in order to change Islam to fit with contemporary realities instead of working to change the reality in order to fit with Islam It is for this very reason this book has been written To outline very clearly the attempts being undertaken to reform Islam and highlight the key styles and means being used It outlines the specific arguments being used by the West and those smitten by the West It looks at the events that have already occurred to reform Islam outlining the common approach taken by the West It also outlines the correct method in defending Islam ensuring the responses do not inadvertently aid the agenda to reform Islam It also outlines the method to go on the offensive rather than become defensive and accept the propaganda being levelled against Islam

Reform and Modernity in Islam Safdar Ahmed, 2013-05-30

The debate over Islam and modernity tends to be approached from a Eurocentric perspective that presents Western norms as a template for progress against which Islamic societies can be measured This misses the historical development of Muslim reformist thought that actively engages with the world around it and seeks to reconfigure Islam within the diverse conditions of modernity Safdar Ahmed paints a complex and nuanced picture that goes beyond the idea that Muslim reformers have either reproduced or reacted against Western ideas Rather Ahmed argues they have reconstructed and appropriated these ideas and so the thread of Western influence runs through modern Islamic thought on nationalism and sovereignty femininity and gender Ahmed uncovers new historiographical perspectives by critically examining the work of prominent intellectuals such as Muhammad Abduh Qasim Amin and Abdul A la Maududi
