

Science and religion in conflict?

- Yes, there have been, and are, conflicts of ideas, but it is too simplistic to see these as conflicts between science and religion per se.
- Scientific and religious ideas always have philosophical, cultural and historical contexts
- Some apparent conflicts are due to faulty logic.

Review of Philosophy, Culture and Religion Falres Ilomo, Abdikadir Noor Fidow, Ogayo Luka Otieno, 2022-12-20 TOPICS IN THE BOOK Luo Rituals Pertaining To Ancestral Spirits Veneration And Their Implication On Christian Worship A Study In The Seventh Day Adventist Church Kenya Lake Conference African World View Versus Christian Eschatological Expectation Islam And Terrorism Philosophy Culture and Vision: African Perspectives Gyekye, Kwame, 2014-05-08 Believing that the intellectual enterprise called philosophy is essentially a part of the cultural as well as historical experience of a people that the concepts and problems that occupy the attention of philosophers placed in different cultural spaces or historical times generally derive directly from those spaces and times and that philosophy in turn has been most relevant to the development of human cultures the Ghanaian philosopher Kwame Gyekye gives reflective attention in this book to some of the concepts and problems that in his view feature most prominently in the contemporary African cultural social political and moral experience Such concepts and problems include the following political legitimacy development culture and the pursuit of science and technology political corruption democracy representation and the politics of inclusion the status of cultural values in national orientation understanding globalization and others It is these topics that are covered in the essays collected in this book The unrelenting pursuit of the speculative activity by the philosopher in most cases eventuates in normative proposals these normative proposals often embody a vision a vision of an ideal human society in terms of its values politics and culture Vision understood here has human not supernatural or divine origination and involvement and requires action by human beings in order for it to come into reality A vision may derive from sustained critical evaluation of a culture or some elements of it Gyekye attempts an articulation of the visions of the essays contained in the book Even though philosophical ideas and concerns are originally inspired by and worked out in a cultural milieu it does not necessarily follow Gyekye strongly believes that the relevance of those ideas and insights is to be tethered to the cultures that produced them For more often than not the relevance of those ideas or at least some of them transcends the confines of their own times and cultures and can be appreciated by other societies or cultures or generational epochs This trans cultural or trans epochal or meta contextual appeal or attraction of philosophical ideas and insights spawned by a particular culture or cluster of cultures or in specific historical times is to be put down to our common human nature including our basic human desires and aspirations Thus most of the essays published here should be of interest to the global community i e to cultures and societies beyond the African African Theology, Philosophy, and Religions Julius Gathogo, Chammah J. Kaunda, 2020-11-24 In African Theology Philosophy and Religions Celebrating John Samuel Mbiti's Contribution contributors explore John Samuel Mbiti's contributions to African scholarship and demonstrate how he broke through the western glass ceiling of scholarship and made African informed and African shaped scholarship a reality Contributors examine the far reaching implications of Mbiti's scholarship arguing that he shifted the contemporary African Christian landscape and informed global expressions of

Christianity African Theology Philosophy and Religions analyzes Mbiti's scholarship and shows that his theories are malleable and fluid allowing a new generation of scholars to reinterpret reconstruct and further develop his theories This collection brings together contributors from a wide range of disciplines to study John Samuel Mbiti as the father of contemporary African theology and grapple with questions Africans face in the twenty first century Being Scioto Hopewell: Ritual Drama and Personhood in Cross-Cultural Perspective Christopher Carr, 2022-01-05 This book in two volumes breathes fresh air empirically methodologically and theoretically into understanding the rich ceremonial lives the philosophical religious knowledge and the impressive material feats and labor organization that distinguish Hopewell Indians of central Ohio and neighboring regions during the first centuries CE The first volume defines cross culturally for the first time the ritual drama as a genre of social performance It reconstructs and compares parts of 14 such dramas that Hopewellian and other Woodland period peoples performed in their ceremonial centers to help the soul like essences of their deceased make the journey to an afterlife The second volume builds and critiques ten formal cross cultural models of personhood and the self and infers the nature of Scioto Hopewell people's ontology Two facets of their ontology are found to have been instrumental in their creating the intercommunity alliances and cooperation and gathering the labor required to construct their huge multicomunity ceremonial centers a relational collective concept of the self defined by the ethical quality of the relationships one has with other beings and a concept of multiple soul like essences that compose a human being and can be harnessed strategically to create familial like ethical bonds of cooperation among individuals and communities The archaeological reconstructions of Hopewellian ritual dramas and concepts of personhood and the self and of Hopewell people's strategic uses of these are informed by three large surveys of historic Woodland and Plains Indians narratives ideas and rites about journeys to afterlives the creatures who inhabit the cosmos and the nature and functions of soul like essences coupled with rich contextual archaeological and bioarchaeological taphonomic analyses The bioarchaeological taphonomic method of l'anthropologie de terrain new to North American archaeology is introduced and applied In all the research in this book vitalizes a vision of an anthropology committed to native logic and motivation and skeptical of the imposition of Western world views and categories onto native peoples Christian Identity in Cross-Cultural Perspective Martien Brinkman, 2019-12-30 Preliminary Material Martien E Brinkman and Dirk van Keulen Introduction Martien Brinkman and Dirk van Keulen Pela as Inclusive Socio Cosmic System in the Central Moluccas Simon Ririhena Pela as Inclusive Socio Cosmic System in the Central Moluccas Comments on Simon Ririhena's Paper Dirk Smit African Theology as a Challenge for Western Theology Kwame Bediako African Theology as a Challenge for Western Theology Mechteld Jansen Liminality and Worship in the Korean American Context Sang Hyun Lee Liminality and Worship in the Korean American Context Verry Patty Christians in the Clash of Civilizations Abraham van de Beek Christians in the Clash of Civilizations Comments on Abraham van de Beek's Paper James Kombo Contextual Theology Tradition and Heresy No other motives would give us the right Dirk

Christology in Cultural Perspective Colin J. D. Greene, 2015-10-14 Christology defines the very heart of the Christian faith Traditionally the study of the person and work of Christ has been understood largely as an exercise in biblical exegesis or historical and doctrinal analysis Rarely if ever has Christology focused on the changing cultural paradigms that have deeply influenced the development of human knowledge and self understanding This unique volume by Colin Greene reverses that trend and in line with developments in modern cultural theory explores the interlaces between successive cultural contexts and the story of Jesus to which the Scriptures bear witness Starting with an examination of the three main Christological trajectories that have dominated the history of Christology cosmological Christology political Christology and anthropological Christology Greene proceeds to concentrate on the subtle and complex linkages between Christology and the sociopolitical paradigms that have bolstered the epistemological assumptions of modernity Greene s wide ranging study closes with a creative exploration into how Christology might once again provide us with a Christ centered vision of reality

Philosophy in Culture J. Tosam, Peter Takov, 2016-09-13 This book explores the symbiotic relationship between philosophy and culture Every philosophy emerges as a reaction to or as justification for a particular culture and it is for this reason that philosophy may differ from one culture to another It argues that philosophy is an essential part of every culture Philosophy is the means by which every culture provides itself with justification for its values beliefs and worldview and also serves as a catalyst for progress Philosophy critically questions and confronts established beliefs customs practices and institutions of a society As reflective critical thinking philosophy is linked to a way of life a form of enquiry intended to guide behaviour a form of thinking that sharpens and broadens our intellectual horizon scrutinizes our assumptions and clarifies the beliefs and values by which we live Philosophy helps to liberate the individual from the imprisonment of ignorance prejudice superstition narrow mindedness and the despotism of custom Culture constitutes the raw data the laboratory from which philosophers do their analytic experimentation Culture is considered as philosophy of the first order activity The book maintains that any genuine global philosophy must include philosophical traditions from all cultures and regions of the world as it is by seeking alternative philosophical answers to some of the thorniest problems facing humanity that we are most likely to find more lasting solutions to some global problems In this commitment to a universal humanity we cannot afford to depend on solutions from a single culture or from the most influential cultures

Philosophy's Higher Education Nigel Tubbs, 2006-01-26 At about the age of 13 I began to realise that my formal education was separating itself off from my philosophical education Of course at the time I did not know it in this way I experienced it as a split between what I was being taught and my experience of what I was being taught It was I now know the philosophical experience of formal schooling It was not until beginning the study of sociology at 16 that I came across the idea of dualisms pairs of opposites that always appeared together but were never reconciled In sociology it was the dualism of the individual and society The question most asked in our classes was always regarding which aspect of the dualism dominated the other The answer we always leaned towards was that both were mutually affected by the other The answer seemed to lie somewhere in the middle It was only at university first as an undergraduate and then as a postgraduate that I came across the idea of the dialectic Slowly I began to recognise that the dualisms which plagued social theory I and we self and other good and evil modernity and post modernity autonomy and heteronomy freedom and nature truth and relativism and so many more were not only dialectical in being thought about but also that the thought of them being dialectical had an even stranger quality It was the same experience as being at school
