Religion in Late Modernity Robert Cummings Neville, 2012-02-01 Religion in Late Modernity runs against the grain of common suppositions of contemporary theology and philosophy of religion Against the common supposition that basic religious terms have no real reference but are mere functions of human need the book presents a pragmatic theory of religious symbolism in terms of which the cognitive engagement of the Ultimate is of a piece with the cognitive engagement of nature and persons Throughout this discussion Neville develops a late modern conception of God that is defensible in a global theological public Against the common supposition that religion is on the retreat in late modernity except in fundamentalist forms the author argues that religion in our time is a stimulus to religiously oriented scholarship a civilizing force among world societies a foundation for obligation in politics a source for healthy social experimentation and the most important mover of soul Against the common supposition that religious thinking or theology is confessional and inevitably biased in favor of the thinker's community Neville argues for the public character of theology the need for history and phenomenology of religion in philosophy of religion and the possibility of objectivity through the contextualization of philosophy contrary to the fashionable claims of neo pragmatism This vigorous analysis and program for religious thinking is straightforwardly pro late modern and anti postmodern a rousing gallop along the high road around modernism Hallowed Secularism B. Ledewitz,2009-03-02 Bruce Ledewitz proposes a Reformation in secular thinking He shows that in opposition to today s aggressive Atheism religious sources are necessary if secularism is to promote fulfilling human relationships and peaceful international relations Amid signs that secularism is growing in unhealthy ways Ledewitz proposes a new secular way to live The Changing Nature of Religious Rights Under International Law Malcolm David Evans,Peter Petkoff,Julian Rivers,2015 The right to freedom of religion or belief has become a matter of increasing controversy both politically and in international law This book provides a detailed assessment of the right in its contemporary context analysing its current status the impact of the 1981 Declaration and the challenges facing the continued existence of the right Religion in Secular Education Cathy Byrne,2014-01-09 Cathy Byrne presents the secular principle as a guiding compass for religion in government schools in plural democracies Using in depth case studies historical and contextual research from Australia and comparisons with other developed nations Religion in Secular Education provides a comprehensive at times confronting analysis of the ideologies policies pedagogies and practices for state school religion In the context of rising demands for students to develop intercultural competence and interreligious literacy and alongside increasing Christian evangelism in the public arena this book highlights risks and implications as education develops religious identity in individual children and in nation states Byrne proposes a best practice framework for nations attempting to navigate towards socially inclusive outcomes and critical thinking in religions education policy
