Remembering Korea 1950 A Boy Soldiers Story:

Remembering Korea 1950 H. K. Shin, 2001-04-01 Hyung K Shin was sixteen years old when the North Korean army invaded South Korea in June 1950 Fleeing his home Shin soon found himself alone in Pusan a refugee without resources or any means of support To save himself from destitution he lied about his age and volunteered for service in the South Korean army Shin s account of the months that followed is a moving record of the Korean War from the perspective of an ordinary ROK soldier He recounts his hasty training and subsequent experiences as a battlefield soldier in North Korea as a guard in a prisoner of war camp and as a refugee again in the massive flight of civilians and ROK military personnel retreating before the onslaught of the Chinese invasion Through it all Shin struggles to retain his humanity and pursue his education In the process the naive schoolboy becomes a man Today Hyung K Shin is an internationally respected chemist but in the pages of this memoir he carries us back to Korea during a pivotal moment in that country s history This is the first account in English that describes the war from the perspective of a Korean who lived through and fought in it Shin s detailed and lively narrative is a stirring monument to the survival of human decency and kindness in the midst of terror cruelty despair and the destruction of a proud nation
