Renata Tebaldi An Authorized Biography:

Renata Tebaldi Kenn Harris, 1974 The Autobiography of Maria Callas Alma H. Bond, 1998 A fictionalised account of the well known and not so widely known details of the tempestuous and passionate creative and private life of the internationally acclaimed diva The soaring heights of her talents the fears of her decline written from a psychological highly controversial perspective My Road to Radio and The Vocal Scene George Jellinek, 2015-01-09 Born in Ujpest Hungary in 1919 George Jellinek began his musical career playing violin with gypsies in the family's garden restaurant He spent his adolescence doing much the same honing his talent and enriching his own musical education with frequent trips to the Hungarian Royal Opera House But when Hitler and Chamberlain signed the Munich Pact in 1938 Jellinek's quiet life was shattered How the exiled teenager survived World War II worked his way up from a poor Hungarian immigrant in Cuba and became one of the most important and influential musical administrators in New York is an unconventional but truly American success story This memoir documents the inspiring life of George Jellinek beginning with his childhood in his beloved Hungary The crisis of World War II soon invaded his life and leaving behind his family and homeland he fled west Having been finally allowed to enter the United States he was drafted into the U S Army in 1942 obligated to bear arms against the country of his birth This ironic turn of events culminated in his firsthand role in the capture of Ferenc Szalasi the leader of Hungary's Hitlerite faction The latter half of the book reveals how music helped Jellinek piece back together his broken life in America After rising to the post of musical director for radio station WQXR he went on to become the producer and host of The Vocal Scene His 36 years with that program established it as a revered fixture of New York's opera life The epilogue documents the day on which Hungary's president bestowed upon Jellinek the Knight's Cross of the Order of Merit of the Republic of Hungary Renata Tebaldi Victor Seroff, 1970 Women in World History Anne Commire, 2002 Presents biographical profiles of significant women from throughout the history of the world each with birth and death dates when known a time line quotation and references Arranged alphabetically from Sul Vica Bibliography of Discographies: Classical music, 1925-1975 Michael H. Gray, Gerald D. Gibson, Daniel Allen, 1977 Giacomo Puccini Roger Flury, 2012-06-21 Opera recordings have been with us since the creation of the first wax cylinders Now at a time when the 25 year reign of the compact disc appears to be coming to an end is the moment to take stock of the history of recordings of arguably the most popular composer of operas Giacomo Puccini In Giacomo Puccini A Discography librarian and music historian Roger Flury looks at each opera chronologically from Le Villi to Turandot followed by sections on Puccini's instrumental chamber orchestral and solo vocal works Details of each complete opera are listed by recording date followed by excerpts in the order in which they occur in the opera Recordings of each aria are listed alphabetically by the name of the artist For ease of use Flury establishes as the main criteria for inclusion those recordings assigned a commercial issue number and available for purchase This book does not limit itself to mainstream recordings but includes as well unofficial recordings taken from broadcasts or illegally recorded in theaters ensuring that the audio recording history of Puccini is free of gaps Video and DVD issues whether of staged performances or excerpts in concert are not included unless they have been issued in a sound only format This volume brings together information on nearly 10 000 recordings of Puccini s music It provides a comprehensive overview of the recorded history of the composer s works and serves as a useful guide for the transfer of recordings from one format to another Annotated Bibliography of New Publications in the Performing Arts,1974 Musicians Since 1900 David Ewen,1978 Lists biographical critical and personal information about 432 performing musicians in concert and opera since 1900 International Dictionary of Opera: L-Z C. Steven LaRue,1993
