Care, Healing, and, Human Well-Being within Interreligious Discourses Helmut Weiss, Karl H. Federschmidt, Daniël Louw, Linda Sauer Bredvik, 2021-12-08 Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an edited peer reviewed volume of global perspectives on interreligious approaches to healing and well being by 23 academics and practitioners from five different faith practices and 13 different cultures With chapters by counsellors chaplains religious thinkers and linguists the multifaceted nature of the volume provides an expansive approach to spiritual care and counselling In order to understand the ways in which interreligious encounters can have an enriching effect on our humanity the volume is divided into four sections that address methodological questions surrounding spiritual caregiving perspectives of different faith traditions on care and healing the challenges to the praxis of care in diverse cultural and political settings and finally how spiritual care and healing can be carried out in public places such as the police the military and hospitals The book is an outgrowth of 25 years of experience within the Society for Interreligious Care and Counselling SIPCC to promote better understanding and practices of intercultural and interreligious spiritual caregiving Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an extraordinary assemblage of writings from diverse cultural religious and geopolitical contexts By addressing methodological questions challenges faced in the care of individuals and care in public settings from Islamic Jewish Christian Buddhist and Hindu perspectives this anthology moves the discourse on care and healing into a more adequate theological anthropology than has often undergirded pastoral care and counselling in most Western texts This much needed work will doubtless be crucial for chaplains and other spiritual care providers seeking to offer genuinely interreligious and intercultural care in today s globalized world Emmanuel Y Lartey PhD Charles Howard Candler Professor of Pastoral Theology Spiritual Care Candler School of Theology Emory University GA USA Given the variety of religious expressions in the contemporary world providing interreligious care is a great challenge for caregivers This book contributes to reflection on care and healing from an interreligious perspective by helping us to think about the theme not only from a theoretical approach but also from methodological practical and culturally contextualized points of view that overflow with compassion It is not to be simply read but studied and used as a bedside book by those engaged in the practice of human care Dr Mary Rute Gomes Esperandio Professor and researcher on Spirituality Health in the Post Graduate Program in Bioethics and Post Graduate Program in Theology at the Pontif cia Universidade Cat lica do Paran Brazil

Valor and Vulnerability Robert C. Dykstra, Ryan LaMothe, 2025-04-10 Intimacy vulnerability precarity resiliency and loss are ingredients of any life though they take on particular shape and tone when we listen to the experiences of boys and men The voices and stories of men and boys are invitations for pastoral ministers and theologians to understand and respond to their joys struggles and sorrows as well as to recognize and affirm their courage and strengths In this book thirteen scholars in pastoral theology from diverse backgrounds and perspectives collaborate in engaging art literature the social sciences and cultural artifacts to explore the intersection of masculinity and religious life in rich and varied forms Their aim in part is not only to deepen and appreciate wide ranging experiences of boys and men but also to attend and respond to systemic realities that contribute to or undermine their flourishing Pastoral Theology and Care Nancy J. Ramsay, 2018-03-19 Leading pastoral theologians explore a wide variety of themes related to pastoral practice Pastoral Theology and Care Critical Trajectories in Theory and Practice offers a collection of essays by leading pastoral theologians that represent emerging trajectories in the fields of pastoral theology and care The topics explored include qualitative research and ethnography advances in neuroscience care across pluralities and intersections in religion and spiritualities the influence of neoliberal economics in socio economic vulnerabilities postcolonial theory and its implications the intersections of race and religion in caring for black women and the usefulness of intersectionality for pastoral practice Each of the essays offers a richly illustrated review of a practice of pastoral care relationally and in the public domain The contributions to this volume engage seven critical directions emerging in the literature of pastoral theology in the United States and internationally among pastoral and practical theologians While coverage of these topics does not exhaust important points of activity in the field it does represent especially promising resources for theory and practice This important work Offers unique coverage of new directions in the field Includes contributions from an exceptional group of experts who are noted leaders in their areas of study Introduces the newest perspectives on pastoral care and offers constructive proposals Filled with case illustrations that make chapters pedagogically useful Pastoral Theology and Care is essential reading for faculty seminarians and students in advanced degree programs and pastors

Korean Resources for Pastoral Theology James Newton Poling, HeeSun Kim, 2012-07-19 In a time of life and death challenges to the human spirit global economics nuclear dangers environmental threats and religious polarization and war Christians must look for resources that provide new insights of God's power and care for all people What are the forms of suffering and hope in the world today and how can Christians respond with healing resources Korean Christians have unique contributions to make to our understanding of pastoral theology and counseling Pastoral counselors and theologians from the United States should look to the South Korean Christian churches and other Asian churches for conversation partners about the nature of care and healing in today's world In this book the authors explore important ideas such as han jeong and salim from Korean history and culture that can inform the healing ministries of the churches

Rethinking Faith James Newton Poling, 2011-08 What can practical theology contribute to other theological disciplines and the church about the nature of God and the church's witness to Jesus Christ in the world What can we learn about the love and power of God in Jesus Christ from the community of survivors of violence Rethinking Faith urges all Christians to consider themselves practical theologians by drawing on their own experiences in making theological assertions Poling couples his understanding of the tradition with his work with survivors of violence to demonstrate the resilience of Christianity

Pastoral Theology in an Intercultural World Emmanuel Y. Lartey, 2013-03-13 Lartey has lived and taught for many years in Africa Great Britain and the United States He shares his intercultural approach to pastoral care an approach which is vital to the increasingly wide range of both lay and ordained practitioners who work in different settings whether new to the field or already established

Gender, Violence, and Justice Pamela Cooper-White, 2019-03-20 Gender Violence and Justice is a volume of collected essays by an expert in the field of violence against women and pastoral theology It represents over three decades of research advocacy and pastoral theological reflection on the subject of sexual and domestic violence Topics include intimate partner violence sexual abuse and trauma and clergy sexual misconduct controversial theological issues such as forgiveness and as well positive frameworks for fostering well being in families church and society Framed by a foreword and an introduction that place this work in the context of new and contemporary challenges in theory and practice these essays show an evolution of issues and frameworks for theology care and activism arising over time from the movement to end violence against women both within and beyond religious communities while at the same time demonstrating an unchanging core commitment to gender justice
