P. Moreland, Chad V. Meister, Khaldoun A. Sweis, 2013-08-15 Comprising groundbreaking dialogues by many of the most prominent scholars in Christian apologetics and the philosophy of religion this volume offers a definitive treatment of central questions of Christian faith The essays are ecumenical and broadly Christian in the spirit of C S Lewis's Mere Christianity and feature lucid and up to date material designed to engage readers in contemporary theistic and Christian issues Beginning with dialogues about God's existence and the coherence of theism and then moving beyond generic theism to address significant debates over such specifically Christian doctrines as the Trinity and the resurrection of Jesus Debating Christian Theism provides an ideal starting point for anyone seeking to understand the current debates in Christian theology Forgiveness and Truth Alistair McFadyen, Marcel Sarot, 2002-01-01 An international group of theologians considers the importance of forgiveness and truth in the modern world Dogmatic and practical theological themes are addressed including Christology and atonement forgiving abusive parents the economics of forgiveness forgiveness in Northern Ireland and shame sin and guilt Contributors include Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger Peter Selby Christopher Jones Fraser Watts Peter Sedgwick Jane Craske Todd Pokrifka Joe Nico Schreurs Alwyn Thompson and David Self Philosophical Theology and Christian Doctrine Brian Hebblethwaite, 2008-04-15 Philosophical Theology and Christian Doctrine surveys and comments on recent work by philosophers of religion in the analytic tradition on the doctrines of the Christian creed Topics covered include creation Incarnation Trinity salvation and eschatology and the ultimate future of creation Comprehensive survey of core Christian doctrines The Nature and Promise of Analytic Theology Oliver D. Crisp, James Arcadi, Jordan Wessling, 2019-12-16 In the past decade analytic theology has established itself as a flourishing research program that includes academic journals monograph series a dedicated annual conference research centres on several continents and a growing and diverse body of work produced by scholars drawn from philosophy theology and biblical studies In this short monograph Oliver Crisp James Arcadi and Jordan Wessling introduce readers to analytic theology The work provides an account of analytic theology some of the main areas in which analytic theologians have worked and some of the prospects for the future of analytic theology going forward It also addresses some key objections to analytic theology as a theological method Written by three leading researchers in the field this work is an excellent way for scholars and students to get acquainted with this new theological movement A Rational Faith Joshua Sijuwade, 2025-01-01 A comprehensive analysis of Richard Swinburne's intellectual journey and philosophical work A Rational Faith explores the legacy of one of the most influential and rigorous philosophical defenders of theism Across Swinburne's written career he has displayed a deep commitment to demonstrating the intellectual credibility of the Christian faith facing modern scientific and philosophical challenges and the materialistic worldview of modern intellectualism Analysing his life and work through in depth accessible explanations of key issues and their context Joshua Sijuwade brings together collected criticism of Swinburne s work and explores possible counter arguments alongside a foreword by Richard Swinburne himself Suitable for any reader interested in Swinburne s philosophy first approach or those intrigued by a philosophical defence of the Christian faith A Rational Faith reveals Swinburne s life and work as a witness to his belief that belief in the central tenets of the Christian faith is rational Embodying Forgiveness L. Gregory Jones,1995-08-31 In an engaging and interesting style that draws on a wide variety of literature as well as on Scripture and theological texts Jones shows how the practices of Christian forgiveness are richer and more comprehensive than often thought Letters of J.N.D. John Nelson Darby,1886 Forgiveness and Restorative Justice Myra N. Blyth,Matthew J. Mills,Michael H. Taylor,2021-06-17 The meaning of forgiveness and its role within restorative justice are highly contested This book offers analysis from practical and academic perspectives within Christian theology against a rich canvas of related concepts including victimhood sin love and vulnerability Critical friends of restorative justice the authors argue that forgiveness whether as journey or act unilateral or mutual conditional or unconditional is necessary to achieving a fully restorative resolution to acts of harm They also suggest that Christianity with its meaning giving metanarrative of restoration and preference for communitarian approaches to justice may have epistemic value for evaluating and even deepening the theory and practice of restorative justice Reward, Punishment, and Forgiveness Joze Krasovec,2014-09-03 This book deals with central and universal issues of reward punishment and forgiveness for the first time in a compact and comprehensive way Until now these themes have received far too little attention in scholarly research both in their own right and in their interrelationship The scope of this study is to present them in relation to the foundations of our culture These and related issues are treated primarily within the Hebrew Bible using the methods of literary analysis The centrality of these themes in all religions and all cultures has resulted however in a comparative investigation drawing attention to the problem of terminology the importance of Greek culture for the European tradition and the fusion of Greek and Jewish Christian cultures in our modern philosophical and theological systems This broad perspective shows that the biblical personalist understanding of divine authority and of human righteousness or guilt provides the personalist key to the search for reconciliation in a divided world
