Lost And Found A Woman Revisits 8th Grade:

Lost and Found Roberta Israeloff, 1997-10-14 Revisiting her past through old journals and diaries author Roberta Israeloff traces her passage from self confident tomboy to a teenager trying to understand what it means to be female in today's society Her recollections juxtaposed with thoughts on her current life capture from a personal perspective the journey to womanhood Will appeal to readers of REVIVING OPHELIA Library Journal, 2006 Cultural Amnesia
Stephen Bertman, 2000-02-28 Applying the metaphor of Alzheimer's disease to our national state of mind Bertman offers a chilling prognosis for our country's future unless radical steps for recovery are taken He looks beyond the classroom to the larger social forces that conspire to alienate Americans from their past a materialistic creed that celebrates transience and disposability and an electronic faith that worships the present to the exclusion of all other dimensions of time Jacket

Revisiting The Great White North? Darren E. Lund, 2015-01-20 Returning seven years later to their original pieces from this landmark book over 20 leading scholars and activists revisit and reframe their rich contributions to a burgeoning scholarship on Whiteness With new reflective writings for each chapter and valuable sections on relevant readings and resources this volume refreshes and enhances the first text to pay critical and sustained attention to Whiteness in education with implications far beyond national borders Contributors include George Sefa Dei Tracey Lindberg Carl James Cynthia Levine Rasky and the late Patrick Solomon Courageously examining diverse perspectives contexts and institutional practices contributors to this volume dismantle the underpinnings of inequitable power relations privilege and marginalization The book's relevance extends to those in a range of settings with abundant and poignant lessons for enhancing and understanding transformative social justice work in education Revisiting The Great White North offers terrific grist for examining the persistence of Whiteness even as it shape shifts Chapters are comprehensive theoretically rich and anchored in personal experience Authors reflections on the seven years since publication of the first edition of this book complexify how we understand Whiteness while simultaneously driving home the need not only to grapple with it but to work against it Christine Sleeter Professor Emerita California State University Monterey Bay Our understanding of racial inequities in education will be impoverished unless we look deeply at White privilege its variation in different contexts and resistances to change Such is the call in this important book by Lund Carr and colleagues whose analyses within Canadian contexts framed and re framed for this captivating revised edition will be useful to educators and scholars around the world Read this book today Kevin Kumashiro Dean School of Education University of San Francisco President National Association for Multicultural Education Darren Lund and Paul Carr have given the contributors to their original 2007 text the opportunity to revisit rethink reconceptualize and reframe their earlier work The result is an interesting invigorating and unsettling group of chapters that challenge readers to also revisit and rethink their own ideas about Whiteness privilege and power Teachers administrators policymakers and researchers will all benefit from this critical work Sonia Nieto Professor Emerita Language

Literacy and Culture College of Education University of Massachusetts Amherst Lund and Carr bring together a superb collection of authors who collectively challenge readers to go beyond liberal platitudes about race until educators confront the political social and economic consequences of inequitably distributed privilege the path towards equality and freedom will remain elusive By immersing us in the discourse of Whiteness the essays in this book illuminate that very path Joel Westheimer University Research Chair Professor Faculty of Education University of Ottawa The First Ladies Margaret Brown Klapthor,1995 Brief biographies and portraits of wives sisters daughters nieces and other relatives of Presidents who have served as White House hostesses from Martha Washington to Hillary Clinton New Books on Women and Feminism ,1997 Talking about Leaving Revisited Elaine Seymour,Anne-Barrie Hunter,2019-12-10 Talking about Leaving Revisited discusses findings from a five year study that explores the extent nature and contributory causes of field switching both from and among STEM majors and what enables persistence to graduation The book reflects on what has and has not changed since publication of Talking about Leaving Why Undergraduates Leave the Sciences Elaine Seymour Nancy M Hewitt Westview Press 1997 With the editors guidance the authors of each chapter collaborate to address key questions drawing on findings from each related study source national and institutional data interviews with faculty and students structured observations and student assessments of teaching methods in STEM gateway courses Pitched to a wide audience engaging in style and richly illustrated in the interviewees own words this book affords the most comprehensive explanatory account to date of persistence relocation and loss in undergraduate sciences Comprehensively addresses the causes of loss from undergraduate STEM majors an issue of ongoing national concern Presents critical research relevant for nationwide STEM education reform efforts Explores the reasons why talented undergraduates abandon STEM majors Dispels popular causal myths about why students choose to leave STEM majors This volume is based upon work supported by the Alfred P Sloan Foundation Award No 2012 6 05 and the National Science Foundation Award No DUE 1224637 Connecting Young Adults and Libraries Patrick Jones,1998 A manual designed for staff at libraries who are trying to provide some level of quality YA service without the benefit of a YA professional Not intended for experienced YA librarians The Publishers Weekly ,1925 Revisiting Women's Cinema Lingzhen Wang,2020-12-14 In Revisiting Women s Cinema Lingzhen Wang ponders the roots of contemporary feminist stagnation and the limits of both commercial mainstream and elite minor cultures by turning to socialist women filmmakers in modern China She foregrounds their sociopolitical engagements critical interventions and popular artistic experiments offering a new conception of socialist and postsocialist feminisms mainstream culture and women s cinema Wang highlights the films of Wang Ping and Dong Kena in the 1950s and 1960s and Zhang Nuanxin and Huang Shuqin in the 1980s and 1990s to unveil how they have been profoundly misread through extant research paradigms entrenched in Western Cold War ideology post second wave cultural feminism and post Mao intellectual discourses Challenging received interpretations she elucidates how socialist feminism and culture were conceptualized and practiced in relation to China's search not only for national independence and economic development but also for social emancipation proletarian culture and socialist internationalism Wang calls for a critical reevaluation of historical materialism socialist feminism and popular culture to forge an integrated emancipatory vision for future transnational feminist and cultural practices

The Class Struggle in the Ancient Greek World G. E. M. Ste. Croix, 2025-07-01 The Class Struggle in the Ancient Greek World is an original and provocative reconstruction of 1 400 years of classical antiquity Sharply written it is a major intervention in Marxist theories of class seeking to explain and illustrate the value of Marx's general analysis of society to ancient Greek studies G E M de Ste Croix makes slavery central to the achievements of the Greek city states and wider classical civilisation He traces the social origins of Athenian democracy and advances an innovative explanation for the decline and fall of the Roman Empire Comparing the late Roman political system to a vampire bat Ste Croix argues that serfdom and a tightening fiscal screw left the peasant masses indifferent to the Empire's fate Widely reviewed and debated The Class Struggle in the Ancient Greek World was hailed by the New York Review of Books as the only work in a Western language that has ever attempted to tell the story of the greatest part of the ancient world with the interests of the lower classes as its central theme

Revisiting Minjung Sunyoung Park, 2019-03-11 An epoch marking alliance of laborers students dissident intellectuals and ordinary citizens was at the heart of South Korea's transformation from a dictatorship into a vibrant democracy during the 1980s Collectively known as the minjung the people these agents of Korean democratization historically carved out an expanded role for civil society in the country's politics In Revisiting Minjung some of the foremost experts in 1980s Korean history literature film art and music provide new insights into one of the most crucial decades in South Korean history Drawing from the theoretical perspectives of transnationalism post Marxist studies intersectional feminism popular culture studies and more the volume demonstrates how an era that is often associated with radical politics was in effect the catalyst for the subsequent flourishing of democratic and liberal values in South Korea Revisiting Minjung brings new themes new subjectivities and new theoretical perspectives to the study of the rich ecosystem of 1980s Korean culture Treated here is a wide array of topics including the origins of minjung ideology its critique by the right wing minjung art and music workers literary culture women writers and the resurgence of feminism erotic cinema science fiction transnational political travels and the representations of race and queerness in 1980s popular culture The book thus details the origins and development of some of the movements that shape cultural life in South Korea today and it does so through analyses that engage some of the most pressing debates in current scholarship in Korea and abroad

Parents, 1996 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Intersectionality, Class and Migration Mastoureh Fathi, 2017-10-11 This book offers critical analysis of everyday narratives of Iranian middle class migrants who use their social class and careers to fit in with British society Based on a series of interviews and participant observations with two cohorts of privileged Iranian migrant women working as doctors dentists and academics in Britain groups that are usually absent from studies around migration marginality and intersectionality the book applies narrative analysis and intersectionality to critically analyse social class in relation to gender ethnicity places and sense of belonging in Britain As concepts such as Nation Migrant Native Other Security and Border have populated public and policy discourse it is vital to explore migrants experiences and perceptions of the society in which they live to answer deceptively simple questions such as What does class mean and How is class translated in the lives of migrants
